A Reflection…
from Sr. Faustina Ferko, Director of Youth Ministry

April 12, 2015

Happy Divine Mercy Sunday! What an honor it is for me to write this weekend about a couple amazing Sacraments that our Catholic faith gives us to celebrate! The first being...Reconciliation and the great Mercy of God!! I don’t know about you but that is a word that is truly precious to me for a number of reasons. The first being because often I find myself although I try my hardest to live my life for others, there are times when I am totally selfish and need to come back to Jesus and ask for His forgiveness and mercy. Instead of being punished for my selfishness, I am tenderly held in the arms of Jesus whose love makes me desire to be better and selfless like Him. There are so many times I have come to the Sacrament of Reconciliation hating myself for ways I have treated others, my God and myself. Instead of a critical judge awaiting me, I found a loving, forgiving, merciful God in the presence of the priest who listened humbly as I sought the healing of Jesus. The peace I experience after attending this healing sacrament is like nothing I have felt before; it is a true gift! We are so blessed with Fr. Matt, Fr. Joji, Fr. Gilbert, and Fr. Bill who have such a gentle and loving presence in this healing sacrament! If you have not been to the Sacrament of Reconciliation in a while, please do not be afraid, come and receive the unquenchable mercy that God is awaiting to shower you with. Today we celebrate a beautiful feast of Divine Mercy, which was given to us through St. Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun who received private revelations from Jesus. These revelations were published in a book called, “Divine Mercy in my soul.” Jesus also asked St. Faustina to have the image above painted and distributed throughout the world. There are two rays coming forth from the heart of Jesus; the red is that of His great mercy and the white is a ray of grace. This mercy and grace is just waiting for us to receive it, all we have to do is ask.

The second Sacrament I wish to share about is the Sacrament of Confirmation! This Saturday 99 of our 10th grade parishioners received this beautiful sacrament! Their names are on the front cover of this bulletin. I hope you will join me in continuing to pray for these amazing young people who have been journeying towards this moment for the last two years. I have only known them for one year, but each one of them I have encountered has blessed my life and the lives of many others. You probably know them and have seen them share the gifts of the Holy Spirit already. They have served on the Mission Team, at the PADS Thanksgiving brunch, helped with the Mercy boxes, St. Malachy gifts and countless other parish events. I have been on retreat with many of them and I wish to express they have inspired me with their faith, kindness, and sincerity. St. James is blessed to have such fine young people within this parish to continue to carry the torch of faith with us! “Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit! Amen! Peace be with you. And with your spirit!”

- Sister Faustina

Ministry of Praise
THE IMPORTANCE OF EUCHARISTIC ADORATION AND PRAYER

The worship given to the Trinity of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit... must fill our churches also outside the timetable of Masses... This worship must be prominent in all our encounters with the Blessed Sacrament... Adoration of Christ in this sacrament of love must also find expression in various forms of Eucharistic devotion: personal prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, hours of adoration, periods of exposition — short, prolonged, and annual (Forty Hours) — Eucharistic benediction, Eucharistic processions, Eucharistic Congresses... Let us be generous with our time in going to meet him in adoration and in contemplation that is full of faith and ready to make reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world. May our adoration never cease.”

-Pope John Paul II

WHAT IS EUCHARISTIC ADORATION?

It has been the consistent belief of the Catholic Church from the very beginning that the bread and wine consecrated at Mass truly become the Body and Blood of Christ; and that, furthermore, as the Catholic Catechism states, this “Eucharistic presence of Christ [which] begins at the moment of the consecration...endures as long as the Eucharistic species subsist.” (CC #1377). In other words, the Eucharistic Christ then continues to be present in our midst beyond the Eucharistic liturgy when the consecrated host is either reposed in a tabernacle or exposed on the altar.

The Blessed Sacrament is exposed for Adoration in the Church at St. James every Thursday following the 7:30 am Mass until 4:00 pm. Starting at 3:00 pm, we recite the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the Rosary, and end with Benediction.

This charity assists veterans with housing, counseling, and job placement. Learn more at: www.catholiccharities.net

SOLlemnITY of the SECOND SUNDAY of EASTER (or SUNDAY of Divine Mercy)

We are stronger for the scars

There’s a classic scene in the 1975 movie Jaws where Quint, Hooper, and Brody are at sea, comparing the scars they have. From a moray eel bite to an arm-wrestling match, each scar contains the memory of great physical and emotional pain. Their conversation is more than a friendly game of bettering the other (“I got that beat!”); it’s a way of sharing and weaving together significant stories on their journey. The scars we have witness not only to hardship but also to resilience! Consider the scars that you bear. How might they impart meaning to yourself and to others?

TODAY’S READINGS: Acts 4:32-35; 1 John 5:1-6; John 20:19-31 (44). “Then Jesus said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believing.”

MONDAY, APRIL 13

FEAST of Martin I, pope, martyr Easter weekday

Choose the good

Get a powerful person angry and you often pay a penalty. Martin I became the last pope-mostly for accepting his election without waiting for the emperor’s approval. That “mistake” was followed quickly by another: Martin condemned the notion the emperor favored. Folks like the emperor preferred to think of Christ’s humanity as dissolving “like a drop of honey in the sea” of his divinity—rendering Christ’s free choice to save us as no choice at all. Goodness must always be chosen, which makes us truly human and not puppets—as emperors then and now would like us to be.

TUESDAY, APRIL 14

EASTER weekday

Leap of faith

There is a folksy saying, attributed to many different ethnic groups, that goes: “Every baby is born with a loaf of bread under his arm.” In so many words, it means that God will provide, even if you’re not exactly sure how. It’s difficult to let go of worry in the face of uncertainty, whether it’s being able to care for a child or to handle any important responsibility. Your willingness to try, despite your fears, without knowing the outcome, shows faith. Trust that God will see you through it.

TODAY’S READINGS: Acts 4:32-37; John 3:7b-15 (98). “There was no needy person among them … the proceeds … were distributed to each according to need.”

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15

Light the way

As the days of Easter continue, the light of the Easter dawn shines brightly. That light revealed that Christ had risen and, in the light of day, called his disciples to go out and spread the Good News. God was living and breathing in them. As they shared their faith journeys, more and more light entered the world. By that light, we believe. And in the light of the Risen Christ, there is hope and freedom and grace. Today, see the light that shines within you. Tend the flames of mercy and find the Good News this day holds!

THURSDAY, APRIL 16

EASTER weekday

Celebrate God’s abundance

Scripture is replete with images of the abundance of God: from the widow of Zarephath receiving alabaster jars full of flour and oil to the miracle of water becoming wine at the wedding feast in Cana. How might this characteristic of God inform our own activities? What choices might we make in our relationships, at work, or standing in line at the grocery store? How might we live out God’s abundance even on those days or weeks or years of feeling like we have less than nothing? Let us nudge our alabaster jar toward God and trust that God will take care of the rest.

FRIDAY, APRIL 17

FEAST of Kateri Tekakwitha Easter weekday

Things that go bump set us right

The smallpox Kateri suffered as a child left her with a scarred face and near blindness, hence her name Tekakwitha—“She who bumps into things,” which seems cruel, but also might be a reminder of unpredictable grace. Years ago, when the bumper sticker “S happens” was popular, Bishop Richard Skiba countered such a defeatist attitude by reminding us that “Grace happens” too. What we bump into and what bumps into us every day are countless opportunities to wake up to God’s grace at work. Maybe you will “bump into” a neighbor or stranger to whom you can be of some service today.

TODAY’S READINGS: Acts 5:34-42; John 6:1-15 (9). “Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were receiving.”

SATURDAY, APRIL 18

Community with a capital “C”

The church is built on community. Together, the People of God welcome new members in Baptism, come together to be fed in the Eucharist, and witness faith proclaimed at Confirmation. Such community nurtures, supports, and affirms the universality and unity of church. When gathering around the table to celebrate, give thanks, and worship, it is helpful from time to time to look and see those around us. Who isn’t present? Who isn’t being served at the table? Who have I shut out? Our call is to spread the Good News . . . and sometimes the greatest news is that all are welcome.

TODAY’S READINGS: Acts 6:1-7; John 6:16-21 (9). “It is I. Do not be afraid.”

Register for a free Advance Care Planning Seminar
Tuesday, April 14th in the O’Brien Room
10:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m

If you’ve been wondering how to talk with your loved ones about how you’d like to be cared for if you were no longer able to speak for yourself, join us for a meaningful look at advance care planning. This seminar is open to anyone 18 years and over. St. James parishioners, their friends and family are all welcome.

We’ll share a simple document, Five Wishes that can help you think through some of the decisions you might consider. We’ll talk about how to start the conversation, and what you can do to make sure your wishes are honored.

This seminar is being offered in partnership with Be@Ease, the Arlington Heights Ministerial Association and Escorted Transportation Service Northwest.

Won’t you join us for this important conversation? Register by phone at 224-345-7200 x 8526 or by email to terrimcdonnell79@gmail.com.

A simple three-step process
Our simple three-step process, My What I Plan, helps you prepare for the
Just in Cases and What-Ifs of life. It leaves you
1. Think about it. How do you wish to be treated if you’re seriously injured or become seriously ill and can no longer speak for yourself? What do you want those you love to know? What kinds of life sustaining medical treatment do you want?
2. Put it in writing. Document your preferences using Five Wishes – a legally recognized, easy to use advance care planning tool that lets you specify your wishes for medical care, quality of life, and emotional support. You’ll also designate someone to speak for you – a healthcare agent.
You’ll be able to answer questions like:
• Who will speak for me if I’m unable?
• What kind of medical treatments do
I want? Or don’t want?
• What level of comfort do I want maintained?
3. Share it with others. Once you’ve completed Five Wishes share it with those you love so that everyone can be at ease. Talking about your wishes helps avoid confusion and disagreements about your care, giving everyone—doctors included—what they need to make good decisions.
My What I Plan allows you to think about, document, and express your wishes for the care and life sustaining measures you want in an emergency.

The end result?
A document that speaks for you if you can’t speak for yourself.
It’s a gift to those who love you!
