Good Friday Collection  A Pontifical Collection
Christians around the world are united in a special way during Lent, Holy Week and Easter. Our hearts, minds and prayers are also especially aware of the Holy Land.

As a Pontifical collection requested by Pope Francis, the annual Good Friday Collection offers a direct link for parishioners to be witnesses of peace and to help protect the Holy Places. When you donate on Good Friday, we are supporting Christians in the Holy Land. Franciscans and others in the Holy Land are housing and feeding the poor, providing religious formation and education, maintaining shrines and parishes, and conducting pastoral ministry. For more information, visit www.MyFranciscan.org

“Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!” the crowds shout in today’s Gospel.
May we always be ready to share our blessings when we are sent in His name!
Historic Pilgrimage in Defense of Life & Family

Welcome the Icon to Arlington Heights

A magnificent replica of this icon is visiting St. James parish as part of an international pilgrimage. (www.hli.org/oceantocean)

Tradition holds that St. Luke, the evangelist, “wrote” the icon on a table in the home of the Holy Family. It is credited with numerous miracles among those whom she visited.

How We Receive Communion

Many of us parents received our First Holy Communion a very long time ago, and we may have forgotten or relaxed some of the standards for the way we receive the Eucharist. Some of us are in the season of helping our children prepare for their First Holy Communion, and want to sharpen our own understanding. The Church calls the Eucharist the "summit and source of our faith," so it would seem pretty important to understand the basics about receiving this sacrament when we go to Mass.

We urge you to invest just 5 minutes watching an informative (and even entertaining!) web video by Join Fr. Dave Dwyer, CSP, in which he explains the do's and don'ts and rights and wrongs of receiving Communion. Some highlights include:

• You may choose to receive Communion on the tongue (gently extended) or by hand (one hand under the other).
• Express reverence before approaching the minister with a gentle bow, when you are next in line. Do not genuflect or curtsy.
• In the Communion dialogue, after the Eucharistic Minister says "the body (or blood) of Christ," respond with “Amen” (not silence or “thank you”).
• Don't be so overly concerned about getting it perfectly right that you can't appreciate receiving Jesus Christ into your body and your life.

The video can be found at this link: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qdGkTdv4Dt4, or you can go to youtube.com and type this in the search bar: Sacraments 101 Eucharist.

It’s a video you can watch with your whole family!

Enjoy!
At St. James School, Lent has brought an intense focus upon Eucharistic adoration.

In an age-appropriate manner, each class, from Pre K 3 through Grade 8 has been instructed in this ancient ritual by Mrs. Pat Farrell. Older students have learned about contemplative prayer and have had an opportunity to practice it during their visits with Jesus in the presence of the Eucharist.

As Mrs. Farrell works with each class, she follows adoration by providing students with time to compose a brief written reflection. Students’ reflections are posted outside the chapel around the beautiful monstrance drawn by eighth grader, Bonu Ku.

St. James teachers spent a Lenten day of reflection prepared by Mrs. Farrell. After a Word Communion Service, the staff made a virtual visit to the Shrine of Christ’s Passion in St. John, Indiana. The Shrine is a paved, half-mile pathway, lined with 40 life-sized bronze statues depicting from Jesus’ final hours, as well as his resurrection and ascension into heaven. Finally, Don Knorr, long-time St. James parishioner and volunteer, gave his time to teach the teachers how to make “knot rosaries”. Learning this new skill proved a bit of a challenge for those less nimble-of-fingers than others! The staff enjoyed a prayerful day and will use their new rosaries with memories of a fulfilling Lenten experience.
