SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

(OR SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY)

JESUS CAME AND STOOD IN THEIR MIDST AND SAID TO THEM, "PEACE BE WITH YOU."
John 20:19

April 23 2017
A Reflection…. from Christi Marcheschi, FOCUS Parish Missionary

April 23, 2017

“...may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit.”

I had heard these words repeatedly in the confessional growing up, but this time was different. This time I wasn’t going through the motions. This time I sat in the church beforehand, praying through an examination of conscience and asking the Lord to help me see myself as I truly was.

And there it was. I was weak, broken, and miserable.

I remember the surprise of not feeling discouraged by this revelation, but quite the opposite actually. In acknowledging my smallness, I found an incredible freedom.

Jesus said to St. Faustina, “I am love and Mercy Itself. There is no misery that could be a match for My mercy, neither will misery exhaust it, because as it is being granted – it increases. The soul that trusts in My mercy is most fortunate, because I Myself take care of it.” (Diary of Sister Faustina)

All of Scripture can be summed up by one truth: God’s mercy is greater than our sins.

Mercy is such an important part of God’s message that many saints have been deeply devoted to Divine Mercy itself. There are several forms of devotion to Divine Mercy including the image, the chaplet, the novena, the hour and today we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. All of it exists to call us closer to His merciful heart.

When was the last time you took advantage of the sacrament of forgiveness? Maybe you took the time to go during Lent, preparing yourself for Easter Sunday. Maybe you planned on it, but life “got in the way” and another year went by without going. Maybe you seek the sacrament often, but you’ve been going with a transactional mindset, simply checking off the box and fulfilling your duty as a “good Catholic.” Wherever you are, this Divine Mercy Sunday is for you! Today, in a special way, God opens up the flood gates of His Love and Mercy, offering us not only the gift of receiving His very self in the Eucharist, but also calling us to the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

St. John Paul the Great, who had a special devotion to Divine Mercy gives us great hope:

“A simple act of abandonment is enough to overcome the barriers of darkness and sorrow, of doubt and desperation. The rays of Your Divine Mercy restore hope, in a special way, to those who feel overwhelmed by the burden of sin.”

Let us see ourselves as we truly are: beloved sons and daughters of God, and let us fix our eyes on the loving gaze of Christ as we say, “Jesus, I trust in You!”

(A podcast of this week’s reflection is available on the St. James website and mobile website.)

RESISTING HAPPINESS

For Easter this year, our parish purchased copies of Matthew Kelly’s book, “Resisting Happiness” for all who wish to take one. Our hope is that by reading it, we can uncover those things that prevent us from fully living in the joy of the Resurrection.

The book can also be used as a tool for evangelization—for friends or family members who no longer practice their faith—so after reading it, please share it.

If you did not pick up a copy last week, additional copies are available at the exits this weekend.

Amen

As we enter this season of First Communion, let us reflect on our response as we welcome Jesus into our hearts.

When we come forward to receive Jesus, we move our hands up toward our hearts, and place one hand under the other, supporting the place where we will receive the Body of Christ. We may also receive Communion on our tongue.

As we receive, the Priest, Deacon or Extraordinary Minister of Communion says “The Body of Christ”, and we answer with the word “Amen”, which means “so be it.”

“It is with some urgency that I write to you today, about a bill in our Illinois legislature, HB 40 ... if passed would use tax dollars to pay for taking the life of a child in the womb through an abortion ... Due to the generosity of our parish members and other friends, WINGS realized $60,000 at the event, $14,000 coming from the Boutique Sale that our February clothing and accessories drive helped to stock. In addition, WINGS highlighted some of this merchandise at its April 6 “Spring Sneak Peek” held at the Arlington Heights Resale Shop. Because of the kindheartedness of St. James and other donors, WINGS can continue to offer help and hope to families caught in the cycle of family violence. Together, we are making a difference!

Stepping Stones is dedicated to raising awareness, understanding, and the prevention of domestic violence by educating our community and supporting the victims and survivors of emotional, financial, physical and sexual abuse. This was my second trip to Nogales. At one point, Fr. Pete (our Jesuit leader at the Kino Border Initiative) asked why I felt compelled to participate in this trip a second time. For me, this was an opportunity to become re-invigorated about the humanity we all share, regardless of national borders. It was a powerful reminder of the heartbreak, the uncertainty, and the family brokenness that is everyday life at the border. It has inspired me, again, to share their stories and visibly stand in solidarity with our migrant brothers and sisters.

~ Reflection by Sarah Tipperreiter

Pastoral Reflection from the US Conference of Catholic Bishops: Living As A People of God in Unsettled Times

To live as a people of God is to live in the hope of the resurrection. To live in Christ is to draw upon the limitless love of Jesus to fortify us against the temptation of fear. Pray that our engagement in the debate over immigration and refugee issues may bring peace and comfort to those most affected by current and proposed national policy changes. Let us not lose sight of the fact that behind every policy is the story of a person in search of a better life. They may be an immigrant or refugee family sacrificing so that their children might have a brighter future. As shepherds of a pilgrim Church, we will not tire in saying to families who have the courage to set out from their despair onto the road of hope: “We are with you.” They may also be a family seeking security from an increased threat of extremist violence. It is necessary to safeguard the United States in a manner that does not cause us to lose our humanity.
