St. James 2017 Easter Vigil Mass
A Reflection...from Sister Faustina Ferko, Director of Youth Ministry

April 30, 2017

Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?” (Lk 24:32)

Has your heart ever burned like that after speaking with someone? Have you ever been so touched by someone who has shared their story that it has stayed with you for several days? We have so much power in our words and when we share our stories! Think about moments in your life when you have really felt impacted; I am sure some of those moments were when someone was sharing deeply with you or vise versa. I believe that those times are so profound because God is in the midst of them, just like He was on the Road to Emmaus! These two disciples were obviously shaken. They just witnessed the horrific death of someone whom they loved so dearly and then to hear that He was alive! This had to be really confusing and also amazing at the same time. Then Jesus approaches them but they don’t recognize him and he walks with them. He shares a story and then even takes a meal with them. When he breaks the bread is when they see him, Jesus, for who he is and they experience God! The thing is— they were experiencing God even while they were sharing and talking. Sometimes God is there and we just don’t recognize him, like the disciples.

I have been blessed with encountering God in conversations, or even in a good homily where it just leaves me wanting to change my life! God is really more present to us than we realize, especially when we share our stories with each other. If you are looking for God then start talking and sharing your story with another person. I know God will show up in that moment! This weekend I am on Kairos with 24 teens from our parish and all over! Please keep us in your prayers! What is remarkable about this retreat is that the leaders, who are busy teenagers, give up 2 months of Mondays to meet, pray and prepare for this Kairos weekend retreat! Nine of them are giving talks where they witness to how God has been acting in their lives. It is truly a wonderful encounter of God. They are courageous young adults, and by their sharing their story they give courage to others to share too!

On Kairos, I have been incredibly blessed to work with the following remarkable young adults: Daniel Cuevas-Torres, Emily Dillon, Abby Fleig, Gabbi Gaffney, Anthony Graffia, Kevin Hamilton, Rachel Prisby, Sabrina Pryztula, Brendan Quinn, Arthur Scheller IV, Matthew Stack and Claire Williams! These young adults have really put their heart and soul into this Kairos 2 retreat at St. James and I am so thankful to God for each and every one of them. I am also very thankful to Br. John Eustice who has helped to bring Karios to St. James for the second time! His gifts and talents have really helped our Kairos team to grow and be ready to lead this retreat! I would also like to thank Steven Patzke, Andrea Hug, Fr. Gilbert and Beth Nelson for spending the weekend with us and helping us also to prepare Kairos!

I wanted to say thank you to all of you for your kind words to me when I shared that I was being reassigned. The community here at St. James is like no other I have experienced and I will take you all with me in my heart! Remember, God shows up in simple ways; let our eyes be opened to see that God is in our midst and among us just like he was with the disciples on the way to Emmaus!

Peace!

Sr. Faustina

We Believe
ON THE ROAD

One central metaphor employed to describe the Christian life is a journey. In today’s second reading, Peter addresses the early Christian community: “Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning” (1 Peter 1:17). When we think of a journey, we normally think of some kind of movement from point A to point B. The Christian journey, begun in the waters of baptism (point A) has as its ultimate destination eternal life with God in heaven (point B). Unfortunately we find ourselves on all kinds of detours along the way. Because of sin, we make foolish turns and sometimes seem unable to detect the presence of the Lord. Today’s story of the two disciples on their way to Emmaus illustrates for us the fact that, even when we are dejected or on one of our many detours, the Lord is there, walking right beside us.
Join us for a special ENCOUNTER evening this Easter season, with the opportunity to experience ADORÉ, while taking advantage of free babysitting! If you’ve never been to Adoration before, this is the perfect time to check it out and ENCOUNTER God through prayer and music.

Human Concerns Commission

St. James Peace and Justice  (Cont. from April 23rd)

Intense debate is essential to healthy democracy, but the rhetoric of fear does not serve us well. When we look at one another do we see with the heart of Jesus? Within our diverse backgrounds are found common dreams for our children. Hope in the next generation is how the nation will realize its founding motto, "out of many, one." In doing so, we will also realize God's hope for all His children: that we would see each other as valued sisters and brothers regardless of race, religion or national origin.

Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh (Jn. 1:14), strengthens us to bring our words to life. How might we, as Catholics and in our own small way, bring our words of solidarity for migrants and refugees to life?

1. Pray for an end to the root causes of violent hatred that force mothers and fathers to flee the only home they may have known in search of economic and physical security for their children.

2. Meet with members of your parish who are newcomers, listen to their story and share your own. Hundreds of Catholic parishes across the country have programs for immigrants and refugees both to comfort them and to help them know their rights. It is also important to reach out in loving dialogue to those who may disagree with us. The more we come to understand each other's concerns the better we can serve one another. Together, we are one body in Christ.

3. Call, write or visit your elected representative and ask them to fix our broken immigration system in a way that safeguards both our security and our humanity through a generous opportunity for legal immigration.

As Pope Francis said, "To migrate is the expression of that inherent desire for the happiness proper to every human being, a happiness that is to be sought and pursued. For us Christians, all human life is an itinerant journey towards our heavenly homeland."  http://www.usccb.org/news/2017/17-054.cfm

Emmaus Amazement

Today's Gospel has some surprises for the disciples going to Emmaus. The first is that Luke tells us Jesus appeared to them, "but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him" (Luke 24:16). More likely, they were prevented by their lack of faith. They knew that Jesus had died, so this man who looked familiar couldn't be him. All they had heard was that Jesus' body was missing from the tomb. That leads to the second point. They were amazed at how Jesus explained the scriptures. Even the disciples had not thought of them as predicting Jesus' suffering and death. Yet they seem to know the truth of what Jesus was saying. Their story can help us, too.

If you find you are not always able to see Jesus in the people or events of your life, you may need to stretch your faith. One way to do that is to discuss it with others. The two disciples were stretching their faith as they discussed what they had heard. Your faith will grow as you learn to express it. Another way to stretch your faith is to read and pray over the scriptures. Ask what God is trying to tell you in them. The disciples on the way to Emmaus began to see how Jesus fulfilled the promises found there.

Ask God to help you see Jesus in other people. Receive Jesus in Communion as often as you can (at least once a week). Trust him and expect to see Jesus both in people around you and in the changes that come into your life. The more you look for Jesus, the easier it is to see him.

St. Cecilia Parish Welcomes Bishop George Rassas

In conjunction with St. Cecilia Parish’s 50th Anniversary, a series of adult-education presentations was created. The focus of the series was to learn about Vatican Council II, and some of the documents from the Council, which were published around 50 years ago.

As their final presentation, they have chosen to learn about and discuss Gaudium et Spes (“the joys and hopes”) as we are the Church in the modern world perpetually.

Bishop Rassas will highlight in his presentation the following topics: What was hoped for when Gaudium et Spes was promulgated in December, 1965? What has been able to be implemented since that time? Are there any articles within this Pastoral Constitution that need to be re-addressed or are still in need of implementation? How have Pope Francis and Cardinal Cupich used this document in their visions for Church renewal?

EXODUS TREKKER

Comforts: Often a Blessing, Sometimes a Pitfall

A ship is safe in harbor, but that’s not what ships are for. (Anon.)

It’s a given: our current American culture has never provided so many comforts for mind and body. Just scan the countless number of advertisements displayed so compellingly in the print and digital media. Ever see one that also compellingly warns of too much comfort?

Well, you can read about the dark side of our comfort zones in the April 30th St. James bulletin. There you’ll read some illuminating thought from our own Fr. Derek Ho and Deacon Paul Schmidt, Sister Fedwa of Sisters of the Living Word, Fr. Mitch Pacwa of EWTN Television, and Saint Catherine of Sienna.

Simply go to www.exodustrekkers.blogspot.com or to the St. James website. Once there, click on “resources” then “blogs”. Exodus Trekkers is researched and written by a St. James parish member.
