A Reflection….from Mrs. Judy Pappas, Principal

August 28, 2016

Some things in life are so predictable---Christmas occurs every December 25, taxes need to be paid every April 15, families enjoy a reunion picnic every summer, Olympic competitions are every two years, and school starts in August (for most!).

But with some things, even though they are predictable there is uncertainty. What teacher will I have? Will I be able to handle algebra? I’m nervous about departmental classes. Will I make new friends? I’m afraid I won’t remember my locker combination! That’s where faith comes in!

The primary purpose of Catholic education is to, as the good sisters used to say, “promulgate the faith”. The Catholic bishops along with our own bishop, Blase Cupich, have stated that the best opportunity to spread the faith is through Catholic schools. While academics are extremely important, at St. James School, our higher purpose is to instill the faith into the hearts and minds of our children and their families. Our teachers take this on as their prime responsibility.

Our teachers have been trained to teach the faith. But more important than any training is the faith within them. Their beliefs and convictions, and, as a wise person recently said to me, their personal relationship with Jesus, is what will instill the faith into our children. As we partner with parents, the teachers work daily to help the children grow Jesus in their hearts. We work hard at practicing our faith. We aim to consciously see the face of Jesus in others and have our behavior reflect that.

As we begin the school year, please pray for St. James School’s teachers. The task before them is immense. The sacrifice they make to dedicate themselves to Catholic education is significant.

Please pray, too, for our children and their families. Distinguished academics are commendable but who the children grow to be in moral character, integrity, and FAITH can change the world! Their practice of the faith can be life-changing. As a faith community, let’s make a purposeful effort to help our children overcome the uncertainty by connecting them to Jesus. We will all find certainty with Jesus.

Mrs. Judy Pappas, Principal, St. James School

Welcome...to our new Director of Development

August 28, 2016

Mary Lederer

While growing up in Deerfield and Northbrook with my mom, dad and five siblings, I went to St. Norbert's School. However, I actually graduated from St. Vivian School in Cincinnati as my dad had been transferred there for three years. After graduating from grade school, I attended Marillac High School and Saint Mary's College in Notre Dame, Indiana where I received a B.A. in English Literature and English Writing.

After graduating from college, I envisioned myself working in the fast-paced and exciting world of advertising and took a job with an ad agency. Over the years, I also worked in the sales and marketing department of a North Michigan Avenue hotel, and eventually what turned out to be the most gratifying job...the development office at Children's Memorial Hospital. After starting our family, my husband and I moved to Deerfield where I enjoyed the flexibility of working as a development consultant. My clients included Archdiocesan parishes, schools and special projects; the Office of Catholic Schools; and Mundelein Seminary.

But what I have come to know best are the joys of working as a volunteer in my parish and school. As a member of St. Clement and then Holy Cross Parish, over the past 30 years I have served in a variety of ministries and organizations including as a catechist, parish council member, Eucharistic minister, Confirmation facilitator, school board member, scout leader, and volunteer on various parish fundraisers. Each volunteer role gave me a greater understanding and deeper appreciation of all that parish life had to offer.

As development director at St. James, I'm excited to work on the Open Our Hearts in Welcome Campaign; support existing fundraising activities; and introduce new ideas to expand the base of support for the parish and school. I look forward to meeting and getting to know the people of St. James.

Mary Lederer
Director of Development
Psalm Response
Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 68:4-5, 6-7, 10-11
R. God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

Nicene Creed
I believe in one God, the Father almighty maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
Through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (at the following words, up to and including “and became man”, all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
his suffering death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
with the Father and the Son is adored
and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Archdiocese of Chicago
HUMILITY

Have you ever been in a group of people—maybe on a tour, at a social gathering, or at church—and discovered that you have just been talking with a well-known author, corporate CEO, great scholar, or politician? Your first thought is the hope that you didn’t say anything to embarrass yourself; but your second thought is how much they seemed like such “regular” folks. What is it that makes people seem so “regular”? Today’s readings give us a clue when they stress the importance of humility.

It is so hard for us not to tell the first person who will listen how busy we are, how hard we work, how much money we donate, and how important our job titles are. We think these accolades make a difference to people, and if we don’t tell them, how will they ever know? But if our actions demonstrate our values, people will recognize our worth on their own. The words of Jesus show us how much better it is to let someone else recognize our worth than to be embarrassed because someone did not.
