A Reflection…
from Mrs. Judy Pappas, Principal, St. James School

August 31, 2014

Dear Friends,

While the closing stages of summer can be a bit disconcerting with the end of lazy days, later morning alarms (or none at all!!), and a lower stress level, many of us find the order and structure of a school year more comfortable. We know what to look ahead to, we have a schedule and pretty much know what to expect day-to-day.

Summer vacation, whatever form it may take, usually refreshes and re-invigorates us. Speaking for the St. James School staff, I know that we are coming back ready to embrace the challenges of the new school year. A number of teachers have been taking classes as part of Master’s Degree Programs, on their way to join the 50% of our staff that has already achieved that goal. Some spent time this summer finishing off classes to become Certified Catechists for the Archdiocese of Chicago (St. James School now boasts nearly half of its teachers as Certified Catechists!). Many professional books have been read as we all took steps to grow as more proficient educators. We are prepared to take on the adventures of the new academic year!

Catholic school students participate in daily religion classes, rooted in Scripture and tradition that provide a foundation in faith knowledge. This year at St. James School, a concerted focus will be placed on service learning. The service component provides experiences to support growth and maturity of our Catholic faith. Through service, students of all ages carry out their responsibilities to build a world of justice, peace, and love.

Through service learning, our students will actively engage in a process to identify significant needs, in the school, parish, and wider community. Through reflection, students will design a way in which they can personally take a part in fulfilling those needs. The upper level will be required to complete a specific number of hours of service as part of their education at St. James, better preparing them for their high school experiences. Perhaps this component of our students’ education can grow a new family practice or tradition!

As we heard from the Book of James at our first school Mass, “I, by my works, will show you my faith”. St. James challenges all of us to be “doers’ of the Word. Through service, we participate in the mission of the Church to serve our brothers and sisters by using the gifts and talents given to us by God. In simple terms, part of living one’s faith is to respond to the call to serve others.

May this academic year be one during which we can be a “doer” and grow as we provide the gift service for those who are in need!

Mrs. Judy Pappas

Principal, St. James School

(A podcast of this week’s reflection is available on the St. James website and mobile website.)
In today's second reading, St. Paul exhorts the Romans to total stewardship.

Brothers and sisters, he urges, “…offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God.”

The St. James family is a welcoming Catholic community sent forth from our celebration of the Eucharist to walk in faith, live in hope, and act in love.

“Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love, and where there is injury, pardon.

- St. Francis of Assisi

Millions of our Iraqi brothers and sisters are suffering displacement and terror from the Islamic State of Iraq and greater Syria (ISIS). Religious minorities, including Christians, Shia Muslims, and Turkmen are being attacked and murdered. The lives of hundreds of thousands of Iraqi families are in peril and in need of meaningful interventions to prevent further catastrophe. CRS is seeking support for humanitarian efforts, which are critical to protecting and saving lives immediately, as well as preparing for the needs ahead. Please pray for peace and unity and consider donating to Catholic Relief Services: www.ChicagoPeaceAndJustice.org/IraqEmergencyAppeal.

Your Assistance Is Needed!
The Environment and Art (E&A) Committee is looking for volunteers who want to make a difference by decorating God’s home. The Committee sets up for mass on Saturdays in the Parish Center and takes down/puts away the mass items on Sunday after the last mass at the Parish Center. The members set up for liturgical events in both the Parish Center and the Church. The Committee is active every week of the year! If you ever have wondered how mass was set up or who moves the baptismal font, or where the banners came from, this is the Committee for you! We are looking for members who can volunteer – whether you would like to volunteer one weekend a month or more often, or only during the Christmas season, we could use your help. We have a very small number of volunteers (10 people) who make this happen on a consistent basis. Kathy Borresen is our faithful leader. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Debbie Randon (debrandon@ymail.com) or at (847)590-8917; or Denise Fleig or at (847)342-1759.

Celebration of Mass of Thanksgiving
Sunday, September 7, 2014
11:30am ~ St. James Church

On March 2, 2014 I made my solemn profession of vows at the Cistercian Monastery of Our Lady of Dallas, and this past August 15th, on the Solemnity of Our Lady’s Assumption, I was ordained a priest by Bishop Kevin Farrell of Dallas. I am the eleventh young man to make his solemn profession in our community since the summer of 2008. For four years I have worked in our Preparatory School for boys which is my community’s main apostolate, teaching both religion and Latin. At the same time, I have also attended courses at the University of Dallas furthering my background in classical languages and literature while earning master’s degrees in theology and humanities. This fall I will travel to the Cistercian Monastery of Heiligenkreuz in Austria to broaden my understanding of the Cistercian tradition and to deepen my knowledge of Latin and German. I am among several brothers who in recent years have spent time in Europe to further their studies. All of us have studied with the hope that our scholastic efforts in such enriching environments would bear fruit for the monastery and for our greater Cistercian community. I also have a brother who is a deacon in the Rockford Diocese and will be ordained to the priesthood in June of 2015. It is a real blessing to be able to return to my roots at St. James and celebrate a mass of thanksgiving with my family and the community. Please feel welcome to join me in praising God for his inestimable gifts.

In Christ,
Fr. Justin (Ryan) McNamara

Exodus Trekker

“Night and Day Faith” Kept Her Going After Death of 2 Spouses, 9 Kids—then Cancer

Before she was diagnosed with lung cancer, we used to see Phyllis Shields every morning in a front pew with her husband and friends. Few of our parishioners knew of her life tragedies that included early deaths of two husbands, and the ensuing burden of being a single mom to nine children, one with Down’s Syndrome. With a characteristic stiff upper lip, she would simply refer to all of this as “disappointments.” There was no disappointment, however, when Phyllis, at age 72, fell in love with a retired Palatine dentist two years her senior.…

To read the complete (and updated) interview of this St. James Exodus Trekker, which will run the entire week of August 31st, go to your computer’s address bar and type “http://exodustrekkers.blogspot.com/” or to our parish webpage at www.stjamesah.org and type “Exodus Trekkers” in the “search” window. The regular EXODUS TREKKERS blog will resume at the end of September.
St James… In Mission……@ the Movies

On Monday, September 22, 2014 at 7pm in the O’Brien Room…

we will be presenting the film,

“The Price of Sugar”

– a film that takes place in the Dominican Republic … not the pristine beaches that tourists flock to, but rather, the local “bateys” – neighborhoods of poor Haitian field workers who work harvesting the sugarcane crop. The film shows vivid descriptions of poor working conditions, inadequate housing, a lack of healthcare, and the life of the dispossessed Haitian immigrants in the DR. The film also shows the work of Fr. Christopher Hartley, a charismatic Spanish priest, who organizes the poor and confronts the powerful interests who profit from this work. This film will challenge you and lead to deep questioning about our responsibility in what the human cost is regarding products that we use everyday…We will have a short discussion at the end of the film….

The film is in English and Spanish with some sub-titles...

The film is 90 minutes long.

Catholic Charities Benefits Enrollment Center Helps Seniors Apply for Aid

Catholic Charities Northwest Senior Services has a new program to assist seniors and persons with disabilities in identifying and applying for various benefit aid programs for which they may be eligible.

Applying for the Medicare Savings Plan or other government funded assistance can be overwhelming, but Catholic Charities has trained volunteers who are committed to helping eligible seniors complete the applications. Benefit applications include: Medicare Savings Plan, Extra Help (prescriptions), SNAP, Medicaid, and Benefit Access.

The program is open to residents of Barrington, Hanover Park, and Wheeling Townships.

To participate:
1. Call 847-253-5500 and ask for the BENEFITS ENROLLMENT CENTER to schedule a screening phone call.
2. After completing this screening call, if you are identified as potentially eligible for assistance, a private “Enrollment Appointment” can be set at the Catholic Charities Northwest Regional office, 1717 Rand Road, Des Plaines, or outpost locations: Arlington Heights Senior Center, Wheeling Pavilion Senior Center, or Hanover Township Senior Center.

For more information, please call 847-253-5500 or access the website at www.catholiccharities.net/ccnw
R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for adults who:
- are not baptized
- were baptized in another Christian denomination
- or were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

R.C.I.A. will start meeting on Wednesday nights this fall, beginning on September 24th.

For more information, contact Fr. Joji in the Parish Office or Jim Hamman at 847-506-1368 or email jhamman@rcgdirect.com

We Catholics say things like this all the time: get the baby baptized, get married, and—even—get ordained. The getting speaks of a momentary ritual, holy no doubt but then finished. After you get something, you’ve got it. But there is a mistake in thinking about the sacraments this way. We don’t get them as much as they get us. What do I mean?

The sacraments surely have a focused ritual moment, but they also lead us beyond the moment. The sacraments are meant to shape the way we live. From the moment we are baptized or married or ordained or whatever sacrament we celebrate, that particular sacrament ushers us into a new way of living. It begins—if we are open and responsive to it—a new and fresh pattern of life as a disciple of Jesus or as a sign of God’s love in the world or as a shepherd extending the Good Shepherd’s care. Clearly, God’s creative hand is here at work in our lives.

Saint James Students Return to School for a New Year!

On a remarkably beautiful August morning, St. James School welcomed nearly 500 students back to school. Moms and dads walked along side their children in the warm sunshine. Carrying sacks of supplies and backpacks filled with empty notebooks, sharpened pencils, and pens full of ink, students were welcomed by Father Matt and Mrs. Pappas. Smiles beamed on all faces as children greeted new classmates and parents met new friends.

“The first day of school offers such potential! Everyone is ready to dive in and face the challenges of the new year,” said Mrs. Pappas as she optimistically greeted children from ages 4 to 13 at the school doors.

With the close of summer and the promise of new beginnings, St. James celebrated our wonderful catechists on Sunday, August 17. After the 5pm liturgy, we gathered on the rectory lawn for fellowship and a scrumptious dinner by Dave’s Specialty Foods. Did you know that the Greek root for the word “catechist” means to “echo the word?” The Gospel of John tells us that “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.” What a blessing to be called to “echo the Word, Jesus!” This is exactly what our catechists do. All year long, with passion, fervent commitment and creativity, they graciously return to our community the gifts God has so generously given them. Catechists lead and teach in SPRED, Children’s Liturgy of the Word, Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, St. James School, St. James Religious Education, Confirmation, Youth Ministry, Mission Team, RCIA, CRHP, Human Concerns, Sacramental Preparation, Pre-Cana, Altar Serving Preparation, Music Ministry, Bible Study, Small Faith Groups, and Adult Education. Thank you, Catechists! We are so very grateful!
