Our Mission Statement

The St. James family is a welcoming Catholic community sent forth from our celebration of the Eucharist to walk in faith, live in hope, and act in love.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are committed to justice and peace through Prayer, Education, Evangelization, and Stewardship.

We Remember,
We Celebrate,
We Believe.

The people were astonished at Jesus’ teaching, for he taught them as one having authority.
~ Mark 1:22

A Reflection…
from Rebecca Linscott and Carrie Conley, Religious Education Co-Coordinators

February 1, 2015

We sure had a great lesson in learning who is in control. We found out that even though we had orchestrated this perfect night for our RE families and the St. James Community, we were not ultimately in control.

The story is so funny it actually seems far fetched. We came to hear about this Catholic Christian Rocker, Lee Roessler, who Sr. Faustina had met at a Catholic Youth Work Heart Camp last year. We thought he would be a perfect fit to perform on both RE nights and have our families come together to praise and worship with contemporary Christian music. We began our planning 6 months in advance to make sure the night was terrific. The band was all set to arrive (from Kentucky) 3 hours before the first show on Tuesday, January 6th. That very cold afternoon we learned there was going to be a delay. The van the band was traveling in had transmission problems and they needed to call for a tow truck. Their transmission was nearly brand new so this was unexpected. When the tow truck arrived a semi came along and sideswiped it, knocking off the side view mirror. In the meantime, the band had to rent a U-Haul with only 2 seats in the front while the other 2 band members sat in the back without any heat and the tow truck driver had to fill out a police report…all delaying their arrival in Arlington Heights.

Our initial thoughts were a bit panic stricken...what are we going to do? Will the Band make it on time? Even though it was becoming evident that things were becoming out of our control, we were still trying to control it. Lee informed us he was going to get to the Parish Center 10 minutes late so we quickly moved to Plan B. Many amazing people at St. James jumped in and were helping set up for the band so they’d have a quick transition. Then we learned Lee was going to be 30 minutes late so we went to Plan C and started to prepare other music and activities to keep our Parish families entertained while waiting for the Band to arrive. We tried staying positive hoping our planned night would still be fabulous, but it was getting more difficult. Unfortunately, it became clear the band was not going to make it on time. We thought they were not far away and found out they were still in Indiana - ½ hour before the concert start! We had to cancel the show, cancel RE, contact parents, stand in the parking lot letting people know the concert had been cancelled. To top it off, schools had been cancelled the following day due to the cold weather and so while we could still have our Wednesday concert, it would likely not be as well attended.

To say we were upset was an understatement. In the middle of all of this it became so clear to us that God was in control, not us, not the band. We immediately thought of the song “Jesus Take the Wheel” because we knew we were no longer in control of this concert. This is a pretty famous country song and the lyrics are:

Jesus take the wheel, take it from my hands,
’cause I can’t do this on my own.
I’m letting go.
So give me one more chance—save me from this road I’m on. Jesus take the wheel.

We knew there was nothing we could do but pray and put it in God’s hands. We joked saying “Jesus, please take the wheel…….we know you don’t take the gas pedal”.

In the end, Lee and his Band did arrive in Arlington Heights late Tuesday night. They had a great concert on Wednesday and there were over 200 adults and children in attendance, which far exceeded our expectations. We were able to pray with the Band and experience a wonderful Praise and Worship evening together. Lee talked about his unending love for God and presence in his life. Lee even talked about how God is in control and has a plan for each of us during his concert, related to his travels to Arlington Heights!! Our guess is that he will continue to talk about this experience at his other concerts as testimony to God’s will in our lives.

Sometimes we get so lost in the details of our daily life that we forget who really is in charge. As busy moms/parents/people we are juggling so many different things and when one ball drops, we often feel defeated. We’ve all heard the saying “let go and let God” but how many of us put this into practice in our daily lives? Next time you’re feeling like things are out of your control, take a deep breath and let Jesus take the wheel.

The Theme of the Year is Wake Up the World. Religious priests, sisters and brothers are urged to demonstrate the joy in their lives based on following Jesus. This joy promotes consecrated life to young people as a viable form of life commitment.

THE IMPORTANCE OF EUCHARISTIC ADORATION AND PRAYER

The worship given to the Trinity of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit... must fill our churches also outside the timetable of Masses... This worship must be prominent in all our encounters with the Blessed Sacrament... Adoration of Christ in this sacrament of love must also find expression in various forms of Eucharistic devotion - personal prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, hours of adoration, periods of exposition - short, prolonged, and annual (Forty Hours) - Eucharistic benediction, Eucharistic processions, Eucharistic Congresses... Let us be generous with our time in going to meet him in adoration and in contemplation that is full of faith and ready to make reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world. May our adoration never cease.

- Pope John Paul II

WHAT IS EUCHARISTIC ADORATION?

It has been the consistent belief of the Catholic Church from the very beginning that the bread and wine consecrated at Mass truly become the Body and Blood of Christ, and that, furthermore, as the Catholic Catechism states, this “Eucharistic presence of Christ [which] begins at the moment of the consecration...endures as long as the Eucharistic species subsist.” (CC #1377). In other words, the Eucharistic Christ then continues to be present in our midst beyond the Eucharistic liturgy when the consecrated host is either reposed in a tabernacle or exposed on the altar.

The Blessed Sacrament is exposed for Adoration in the Church at St. James every Thursday following the 7:30 am Mass until 4:00 pm. Starting at 3:00 pm, we recite the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the Rosary, and end with Benediction.

ADVOCATING FOR UNACCOMPANIED CHILDREN

Since 2011, the number of unaccompanied immigrant children making the dangerous journey from Central America to the southern border of the United States has increased more than seven-fold, with arrivals potentially reaching as high as 90,000 children this year. Many of these children, a growing share of whom are girls and under the age of 12, are fleeing pervasive and targeted violence in their home countries of Honduras, El Salvador, and Guatemala.

The U.S. Jesuit Conference and Ignatian Solidarity have made advocacy postcards available at https://ignatiansolidarity.wufoo.com/forms/postcards-advocating-for-unaccompanied-children/ to encourage legislators to uphold the dignity of the human person and the sacredness of human life in policy decisions regarding the disposition of children fleeing horrific violence in Central America.

Or, you can personalize the message on the postcard and send it directly to your legislator:

Dear Senator / Representative ____________________________,

As a person of faith and your constituent, I urge you to reject changes to the Trafficking Victims Protection Reauthorization Act (TVPRA) of 2008 and other policies that would remove life-saving protections from vulnerable unaccompanied children and families fleeing harm in Central America.

An immediate response to this crisis is needed, but removing key due process protections at a time when increasing numbers of children and families are in need of these life-saving protections is the wrong response. Policies that strip children and asylum seekers of their ability to tell their story and present their case creates the possibility of deporting children to their death. In addition, such policies fail to address the violence and instability that continue to force children and their families to flee for their lives.

As Congress considers a response to this crisis, I urge you to support legislation that will:

- Ensure the well-being of vulnerable persons is the driving force of a U.S. response;
- Maintain due process protections that allow children and families adequate time and opportunity to tell their stories;
- Address root causes of forced migration from Central America.

The United States is capable of meeting this challenge with compassion by implementing a humanitarian response.

Sincerely,

My address is:

Nearly 1.5 million high school students nationwide experience physical abuse from a dating partner each year. Stepping Stones, a St. James Ministry, wants to end dating violence. This article, printed with permission from Loveisrespect.org, is part of a four-part series that will be featured in the bulletin during the month of February, Teen Dating Violence Awareness and Prevention Month. Please keep all young adults in your prayers.

Dating Basics

Relationships exist on a spectrum, from healthy to unhealthy to abusive — and everywhere in between. It can be hard to determine where your relationship falls, especially if you haven’t dated a lot. Explore this article to learn the basics of dating, healthy relationships and drawing the line before abuse starts.

Is My Relationship Healthy?

In a healthy relationship:
- Your boyfriend/girlfriend respects you and your individuality.
- You are both open and honest.
- Your boyfriend/girlfriend supports you and your choices even when they disagree with you.
- Both of you have equal say and respected boundaries.
- Your boyfriend/girlfriend understands that you need to study or hang out with friends or family.
- You can communicate your feelings without being afraid of negative consequences.
- Both of you feel safe being open and honest.

A good boyfriend/girlfriend is not excessively jealous and does not make you feel guilty when you spend time with family and friends. A good boyfriend/girlfriend also compliments you, encourages you to achieve your goals and does not resent your accomplishments.

My Boyfriend/girlfriend Doesn’t Physically Hurt Me

Just because there is no physical abuse in your relationship doesn’t mean it’s healthy. It’s not healthy if your boyfriend/girlfriend:
- Is inconsiderate, disrespectful or distrustful.
- Doesn’t communicate their feelings.
- Tries to emotionally or financially control you by placing your money in their banking account.
- Keeps you from getting a job or gets you fired.
- Humiliates you on Facebook or in front of your friends.

So, Is My Relationship Unhealthy?

Everybody deserves to be in a healthy relationship free from violence. Drawing the line between unhealthy and abusive can be hard. Remember, there are many types of abuse and while you may think some of them are normal — they are not. Even though teen and 20-something relationships may be different from adult ones, young people do experience the same types of physical, sexual, verbal and emotional abuse that adults do. You should take violence in your relationship seriously.

Everyone deserves a safe and healthy relationship. Remember, love has many definitions, but abuse isn’t one of them. If you or someone you know has a question about a relationship, healthy or unhealthy, visit loveisrespect.org or text “loveis” to 22522. Peer advocates are also available 24/7 at 866.331.9474.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This treasure is for everyone

We believe that Jesus’ teaching authority, which astonished his hearers, continues through apostolic succession to each new generation of believers. As Catholic writer Alice Camille put it, “I know that there’s little in my life of faith that doesn’t come to me directly or indirectly as a result of 20 centuries of magisterial collaboration between the church’s leadership and faithful membership.” The deposit of faith is our treasure. Let’s not bury it.

TODAY’S READINGS: Deuteronomy 18:15-20; 1 Corinthians 7:32-35; Mark 1:21-28 (21). “All were amazed and asked one another: ‘What is this? A new teaching with authority.’”

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2

FEST OF THE PRESEPTION OF THE LORD WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRIED LIFE

Tamale, anyone?

You may think the holiday season ended weeks ago but, at least in Mexico, one more exclamation point is added to the season today. Back on January 6, Feast of the Epiphany—known in Mexico as Día de los Reyes or “Three Kings Day”—Mexicans cut into cakes shaped like crowns. Small replicas of the infant child are baked into the cakes and those who receive a cut of cake with a baby Jesus are tasked with providing tamales and a corn-based drink called atole for a party today in honor of his presentation at the temple. Join the tamale tradition and offer one last farewell to the joyous season. You can also raise a toast today to World Day for Consecrated Life.

TODAY’S READINGS: Matthew 5:4; Hebrews 2:14-18; Luke 2:22-40 (23). “Mary and Joseph took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord.”

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3

FEAST OF BLAISE, BISHOP, MARTYR

Protect creatures great and small

This saint’s reputation is based on the story of his healing a boy choking on a fish bone. But Blaise also healed animals. Legend has it that wild animals came to him for his blessing. Catholics share a responsibility as stewards of creation, including for animals wild and domesticated. To celebrate today, after having your throat blessed, find out how you might support efforts to protect wildlife where you live. Remember that even a bird feeder can help God’s creatures survive a bitter winter.

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 12:1-4; Mark 5:21-43 (22). “The child is not dead but asleep.”

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4

My other friend is a tree

Joyce Kilmer taught many of us to see the poetry in trees. Robert Frost famously invited us to be “swingers of birches,” enjoying the same patient flexibility of tree branches bowing under a child’s weight. Old-growth redwoods and sequoias dwarf our human lifetimes by a millennium. A tree on your street may mark each season more accurately than any calendar. And who doesn’t love the year’s most celebrated tree, O Tannenbaum? Today is the Jewish “New Year for Trees,” Tu B’Shvat. Respect forests. Support the town green. Plant a tree.

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 12:4-7, 11-15; Mark 6:1-6 (25).

“When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished.”

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5

FAST OF AGATHA, VIRGIN, MARTYR

Be a witness to freedom from trafficking

When facing challenges, we can turn to the saints for help. The church raises up women and men who are in solidarity with us, including saints who have experienced some of the same horrors that people today do. As we fight for people enslaved by human trafficking, we can look to saints like Saint Agatha who knew personally the violence of sexual assault. We can also look to saints among us, such as Catholic sisters and others who are leaders in the struggle against human trafficking. Check out BakitaInitiative.com and see how you can join the saints and end human trafficking.

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 12:18-19; 21-24; Mark 6:7-13 (26).

“You have approached… God the judge of all, and the spirits of the just made perfect.”

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6

FAST OF PAUL MIKI, PRIEST, MARTYR, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Let goodness rain

Brother Paul Miki, a Jesuit and a native of Japan, is the best known among the 26 martyrs who died in Japan in 1597. As he died on a hill in Nagasaki he said, “After Christ’s example I forgive my persecutors. I do not hate them. I ask God to have pity on all, and I hope my blood will fall on my fellow men as a fruitful rain.” Indeed it did. Centuries later, missionaries returned to Japan to find thousands of Christians who had quietly preserved the faith underground until it was legalized. Let your life’s work also be a fruitful rain, nourishing all with whom you come into contact.

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 13:1-8; Mark 6:14-20 (27). “I must you to give me at once on a platter the head of John the Baptist.”

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7

SLOW DOWN, YOU’RE MOVING TOO FAST

Jesus would regularly withdraw from active ministry in order to be by himself in prayer. Jesus taking time off? Yes! This is one way in which ordinary people might imitate an important facet of Jesus’ spirituality: the choice to slow down, to become quiet and still, and in such moments—brief as they may be—to bask in the presence of God’s Spirit, which is always within to strengthen you. Jesus learned it from his mother, who is often remembered as “holding things in her heart”—contemplating, learning, deepening love.

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 13:15-17, 20-21; Mark 6:30-34 (28).

“He was moved with pity for them.”

I want you...to join me in some Spiritual Fitness exercise!

Who: All men and their sons, too.
What: Stations of the Cross
When: February 27th and March 13, 2015. 7:30 PM
Where: University of St. Mary of the Lake, Mundelein, IL
Why: Think about it...
Contact: Deacon Matthew

The particulars...
We will gather around the Dime Statue (21 on the map below...see the arrow!) at 7:30 PM on the second and fourth Fridays in Lent...regardless of the weather conditions. We will then pray the Stations of the Cross as we walk around St. Marys Lake...about 2 miles. The ‘fitness’ comes into play as we’ll be carrying large Crosses around the lake as we pray. These Crosses are quite heavy and will add a new dimension to our spiritual fitness as we experience a small part of what our Lord and Savior experienced as he walked the Way of the Cross for our salvation. Remember to dress for the weather!

Are you up for the challenge? This Lenten season, will you improve your spiritual fitness?

Digging Up Their Family Roots Yielded Joy, A Few Surprises and Lots of Inspiration (even a reflection on the Body of Christ)

Enlightenment, esteem, love, a stronger spiritual faith, more empathy, and an exhilarating sense of being linked somehow to everyone in the world. It's what several people in and around our St. James parish are saying they get from charting their Family Trees. "It's like reading a novel, a history and a mystery," one says. "It answers the question of why people are the way they are." Says another, "You might say I have become addicted to genealogy and family tree research." She has 1,600 ancestors, including the 4th king of Scotland and a passenger on the Mayflower.

Our Charity
Our Charity for the month of February will be the Annual Catholic Appeal. We are invited to reflect on the gifts God has given to us. He has given us all that we have. With these gifts, we are entrusted with responsibility. Our gifts to our parish, to the Archdiocese and to the work of the Church throughout the world should be given in gratitude for the continuing gifts that God gives us. Each pledge to the Annual Catholic Appeal makes a difference! All parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our Archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services. Thank you for your generous donations to the Annual Catholic Appeal.
