A Reflection…
from Fr. Gilbert Mashurano, Associate Pastor

February 28, 2016

On February 20th, Fr. Matt, Fr. Joji and I attended the Hearts of Gold Arlington Heights Annual Awards at Rolling Green Country Club. Almost three hundred people attended. Mayor Tom Hayes addressed the people, by saying, “These are normal people, our neighbors and our friends; we know them and we live with them, and these are people who are representing the spirit of our community, the spirit of Arlington Heights. And they have touched the hearts of Arlington Heights.” The mayor’s statement was so special, especially after I went through the names and bios of the recipients. One of them was the Glueckert family - life-long members of St. James.

It was so clear that the Hearts of Gold receivers exemplify unselfish and extraordinary personal participation in making Arlington Heights to be the city of good neighbors. We are the Catholic faith community of St. James and we live in Arlington Heights. The Hearts of Gold Awards represent our identity, the hearts of kindness, care, love, acceptance, willingness, openness, and the spirit of being there for others.

The Hearts of Gold Award is an explanation of the heart of Jesus which is seen through his followers. Take for example an explanation of the Mentor Heart of Gold. If you want to receive this award, you have to be an individual who has done an outstanding job working with a group of individuals in Arlington Heights. This person should inspire others to excel, serves as a role model and provides leadership and mentoring that helps improve behavior and performance. We have these criteria from our Lord Jesus Christ. And we Christians put these criteria into action by trying our best to help our neighbors.

At St. James we open our hands and our hearts not only for people from our community, but even those who live far from us. Four weeks ago, some of our St. James members from our Peace and Justice Ministry went to Arizona (The Kino Border Initiative) to experience some challenges which are facing immigrants who are coming to the United States. They came home with stories about immigrant detention, the separation of families, selling of drugs and killing on the border. When there is an opportunity, they will be able to share these stories with us.

- Fr. Gilbert

TODAY’S READINGS
(Cycle C)

First Reading -- The LORD God appears to Moses and directs him to go and deliver the Israelites from Egypt (Exodus 3:1-8, 13-15) or Exodus 17:3-7.

Psalm -- The Lord is kind and merciful (Psalm 103) or Psalm 95.

Second Reading -- We are not to grumble like the people with Moses in the desert (1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12) or Romans 5:1-2, 5-8.

Gospel -- If you do not repent, you will all perish (Luke 13:1-9) or John 4:5-42 [5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42].

At the 10am Mass (RCIA 1st Scrutiny) the Cycle A readings will be read.

St. James Kino Border Trip

Hugo’s Story
Hugo was deported 3 days prior to this photo after spending 12 days alone in the desert with a backpack containing only crackers, a water bottle, and a change of clothes. He was attempting to walk and hitchhike from Chiapas in southern Mexico all the way to the state of Mississippi hoping for a better life. He said the desert was incredibly dangerous; freezing at night, hot during the day, and his whole body was covered in cuts and scratches from the unforgiving vegetation. He will not try to cross the border again anytime soon and hopes to get a job in Cancun cleaning in order to earn money to help his mother and younger siblings. (reported by Amie Nustra, parishioner)

Immigration is Complicated, Mercy is Simple

The Response of the Gospel of Mercy

“We strongly urge that the administration end its deleterious practice of detaining immigrant women and children. There is simply no humane way to detain children. Additionally, it is imperative that the administration and Congress support humanitarian efforts in the region that will help to end the violence and stop conditions that force people to flee their homes.”

A Spiritual Director Who Answers Questions Like, Is It Really from God or …?

Fr. Paul Wachdorf hears people of all ages confess their sins, helps them discern if their plans are the will of God or of the Devil, and, on occasion might offer a helpful and practical suggestion to a domestic problem. He's sort of a Trail Guide for those on Life's Journey. He also will play his ukulele, sing with his children's choir, and do a juggling performance while giving a homily. He loves mystery novels, anything with chocolate, and roller coaster rides—he says he took 50 of them last year at Great America. Fr. Paul is the former Director of Spiritual Life and Prayer at Mundelein Seminary and nowadays, at age 66, he pastors St. Gregory the Great Church in Chicago, where he is also a noted spiritual director.

In an EXODUS TREKKER exclusive interview written by a St. James parish member, which begins Feb. 28, Fr. Paul answers some of the most common questions we have about spiritual direction and offers a few compelling reasons for having a spiritual director.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT • FIRST SCRUTINY OF THE ELECT
Scrubitize your intentions
Those wishing to join the Catholic Church go through a process that involves a great deal of reflection and self-examination. The rest of us get to join in on the middle Sundays of lent when the “scrutinies” are observed. These ancient rites are meant to help heal what is broken and strengthen what is upright. We can all join in, and if you don’t happen to be present at a Mass where scrutinies are observed, you can still take some quiet time today to reflect on aspects of your life that need some renewing. Lent is the season for renewal, so you are in the right time and place!

TODAY’S READINGS: Year A: Exodus 17:3-7; Romans 5:1-2, 5-8; John 4:5-42 (231). “The hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.”

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 29 • LENTEN WEEKDAY
Your faithful companion
God is with you (remember, Jesus said he is with you—and all of us—always). Sometimes you might forget that. But God’s presence is evident if you pay attention to the expected and unexpected details of your life. Perhaps you’re struggling with the appropriate response to a conflict and the answer comes from your best friend—expected, but surely a sign of the Spirit’s movement in your life. Perhaps you’re experiencing the pain of loss and you somehow manage to get up and keep going—unexpected, but a welcome sign of God’s grace. Think back over the past few days and consider the certain and surprising ways God has been at your side.

TUESDAY, MARCH 1 • LENTEN WEEKDAY
Stand tall in the midst of hardship
Nobody ever wants to suffer or experience hardship. Tough times can’t always be avoided, but we can choose how we react to them. We can turn to God and open ourselves to finding a way (however small or seemingly inadequate) to persevere. Sometimes it might be a friend or inspirational quote, a fond memory or sheer determination that carries us through. For Saint Teresa of Avila, for example, having courage meant a lot. “To have courage for whatever comes in life—everything lies in that.” How does God help you face hardships? What scripture verses, saints, virtues, or life-giving techniques do you draw upon for strength?

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2 • LENTEN WEEKDAY
Learn from the students
Right now, parishes are preparing to welcome new Catholics on Holy Saturday during the Easter Vigil, when adults are baptized into the church. Lent is the final stage of preparation for these candidates, and you are called upon to pray for them as they get ready to become full members and to welcome them into the community. Take time to reflect, too, on what the sacraments they are about to receive—Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist—mean to you. And recommit yourself to the path they are on—one of spiritual discovery and formation.

TODAY’S READINGS: Deuteronomy 6:1; 5:4; Matthew 5:17-19 (230). “... teach them to your children and to your children’s children.”

THURSDAY, MARCH 3 • FEAST OF KATHARINE DREXEL, VIRGIN, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER
Can money be sacred?
We call money “filthy lucre.” The love of it is the root of all evil, Paul tells us. Yet an American heiress and her sisters found a way to make their wealth a holy thing. The Drexels—Katharine, Elizabeth, and Louise—lost their mother early, and beloved stepmother and father while the sisters were in their 20s. With the Drexel fortune at their disposal, they vowed to provide sound educations and job training to forgotten communities in this country: post-Civil War black and Native Americans. Redeem some wealth to holy purposes.

TODAY’S READINGS: Jeremiah 7:23-28; Luke 11:14-23 (240). “Walk in all the ways that I command you, so that you may prosper.”

FRIDAY, MARCH 4 • FEAST OF CASIMIR
Gotta hand it to generous Casimir
Traditions sometimes spring from quirky sources. Casimir was renowned for his generosity toward the sick and poor, and it was probably in attending the ill during an outbreak that he died at the tender age of 25. An early painting of the saint depicted him with two right hands, and legend sprung up that the artist tried to redraw the hand in a different place but was unable to paint over the old hand. Well, perhaps the painter intentionally wanted to leave Casimir with two right hands to emphasize his generosity. We’ll never know, and it doesn’t really matter. Let the extra hand inspire you to follow Casimir’s example and be a handy giver!

TODAY’S READINGS: Hsuan 14:2-10; Mark 12:28-34 (241). “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

SATURDAY, MARCH 5 • LENTEN WEEKDAY
Pray, always
The humble prayer of the tax collector—“O God, be merciful to me a sinner”—in its utter simplicity is the basis of what is called “The Jesus Prayer”: “Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner,” a favorite in the spirituality of the Eastern Churches. This prayer, or words like it, is a way to “Pray always,” as Saint Paul says, since it repeats itself within, even when you don’t think you’re praying. What would be your own slowing-down word or phrase? Let God whisper such words to your heart. Listen. Pray.

What: High School 24 Hour Food Fast
When: March 11 & 12

A CHILD DIES EVERY 5 SECONDS BECAUSE OF HUNGER... THE QUESTION IS... ARE YOU WILLING TO GO HUNGRY FOR 24 HOURS TO HELP CHANGE THAT?
Hello, my name is Kyle Pearson. As a child, I was baptized in the Catholic Church at Our Lady of Humility, in the northern suburb of Wadsworth. I graduated from Loyola University Chicago, and remained in the city, where I met my fiancé, Lara. This past year, we decided to move to the suburbs, and landed in Arlington Heights! Once we moved, we began looking for churches in the area, and had a special feeling after attending mass at St. James. The reason I want to confirm my faith is to become closer to God, and to strengthen the relationship that Lara and I have together. We both were brought up in the Catholic faith (Lara a bit more than I- her grandfather was a Deacon at St. Walter’s Parish in Chicago). We both realize the value and importance of having religion in our lives. My RCIA experience has been truly wonderful. The core group of leaders and sponsors provide great insight and guidance into the catholic faith, and are truly enjoyable people to be around and learn from. I would like to thank my sponsor and fiancée, Lara Niersbach, as well as the rest of the sponsors and leaders at RCIA. Lara and I both look forward to the Easter Vigil where I will receive the sacrament of confirmation. We are also looking forward to being married at St. James.

My name is Graham Kent Pharr and I was born in Statesville, NC and moved to Illinois when I was a young boy. I served in the US Military in the early 80’s. I was stationed in California and Egypt. My wife Jean & I were married at St. James in 1985. I have been self-employed since 1992 in the transportation industry. We have lived in Prospect Heights for the last 20 years. We have two children; Faith & Graham.

Over the last couple of years our family has had some difficult challenges. Through them I have witnessed great faith and trust in something bigger than us. I have always felt that there must be more than what we see on earth. Maybe finally at 51 I have matured enough to open my heart to bigger things.

My RCIA experience was a complete surprise to me. My first thoughts of this whole idea were a bunch of people waving the bible around and screaming AMEN! For me it has been a very interesting and eye opening experience. From day one I was made to feel very welcomed without any pressure. Every week I look forward to going to class. They have opened my heart more than I could have imagined.

I would like to thank my sponsor, my wife Jean, who has supported me in this venture and many others. I look forward to continuing to seek faith and peace in my heart.

My name is Tiffany Kloeppel, and I am 22 years old. I didn’t really go to church or learn much about Christianity growing up. I met my fiancé Josh Shaver in 7th grade, October, 2005. He attended St. James School, Pre-K through 6th grade, until his family moved near me in Crystal Lake. I was his first girlfriend and from our first kiss we knew we were meant to be. We had been on and off as a couple over the years but always good friends until junior year of high school. We became very close after he lost his dad, Brian Shaver, to Crohn’s disease in 2009. On February 7th 2010, we made a commitment to each other to build a life together. In May of 2011 we were blessed with a beautiful baby girl, Jayla. We moved back to Mount Prospect in 2012 and live with his grandparents, John and Diane Shaver. He proposed to me in 2015 on our five year anniversary. I joined RCIA last fall because I want to be baptized with our daughter Jayla and become a Catholic. We want to get married at St. James Church in February, 2017. Attending RCIA has really been a great experience for me. I am still learning more each day. Lastly I want to thank my grandpa John Shaver for being my sponsor and going through this journey with me.
Greetings from Dr. Geetha and Tom Chitta, of the Foundation for Children in Need!

They have been very busy, with ten new sponsors in November and eight new sponsors in January!

Let the Children SMILE: Miracles at Santhiram Hospital, Nandyal. Kurnool, India

Dr. Geetha and Tom Chitta of Foundation for Children in Need (FCN), a not-for-profit organization based in Arlington Heights, IL have coordinated free Cleft Lip and Cleft Palate Surgeries in collaboration with Smile Network International, Minneapolis, MN, USA headed by Dr. Bob Friedhoff and Dr. Uldis Bite of Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota, USA. Santhiram Medical College and General Hospital, Nandyal, Kurnool District has generously hosted the surgeries from February 1 to 5, 2016. The surgeries are done totally free through the generosity of Smile Network and their Medical team of 25 volunteers, Santhiram Hospital and FCN. 68 children and adults from Telangana and Andhra Pradesh States are able to smile. For more information visit: www.fcn-usa.org

El Nino Rey
Changing Lives in Guerrero, Mexico

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?” “Here I am,” I said; “send me!”

~ Isaiah 6:8

El Nino Rey is a ministry of mercy and justice whose mission is to save the children of Guerrero, Mexico from indigence, to break the cycle of poverty through education and provide dental care. The scholarship program affords students the opportunity to receive an education. It provides financial assistance to students from pre-school to post high school.

There are currently 719 students enrolled in the scholarship program representing 23 different villages in Guerrero. The monies can be used to cover school supplies, tuition and other financial needs. For the 2015-16 school year, a total of $60,000 in scholarships have been awarded:

For two weeks every year, a group of dental professionals, translators and volunteers travel to remote mountain villages to provide much needed dental care. This year’s mission trips provided the following care:

“When I close my eyes, I am flooded with images from the trip. Seeing the awe and relief in a patient’s face when he is no longer experiencing dental pain. After walking many hours to the clinic, we saw the joy in a mom’s eyes when her child receives a much needed treatment. We experienced the sense of urgency between a dentist and a patient as they struggle to communicate. We felt a comforting hug following a difficult procedure. The peace and gratitude one experiences from serving in the humblest of settings. These moments remind me how a joyful heart of service can change a life...can change our own lives. With each trip, I realize that I am not the same person when I come home. I have experienced Christ’s love in the purest of ways; I have been given the opportunity to be His eyes, hands and feet.”
