St James at the SLS18 Focus Leadership Conference in Chicago
A Reflection...from Erin Corbett, FOCUS Parish Outreach

Dear friends,

January is a rough time of the year for me, and I imagine I’m not alone. Life settles back in and we forget the excitement of the holidays. The decorations have come down, kids have returned to school, and we get settled back in to our very ordinary routines. It’s sometimes a little sad - the house feels empty without decorations! Even the music we sing in church goes back to normal songs instead of our favorite Christmas carols! It happens that this return to ordinary daily life coincides with the return of the Church calendar to Ordinary time from Christmas. The Church returns to Ordinary time and our lives settle down and return to our ordinary - our sometimes mind-numbingly ordinary and boring - routines.

With the return of Ordinary time, I often like to reflect on what it is the Lord is asking of us in our very ordinary lives. When things are normal and even boring, do I still find my joy and my rest in Him? Do I still get excited about His Incarnation? Do I still allow my heart to be filled with His Spirit?

This week’s readings helped me a lot in my reflection. What caught my attention especially were the first reading and the Gospel. In the first reading, Samuel hears the voice of the Lord and learns to recognize it. Eli instructs Samuel to answer the Lord, “Speak, Lord, your servant is listening.” I love this passage because in it, God gives us the words to use to reply to Him. He gives us a prayer to pray when we don’t quite know how to respond to Him. In the words Eli teaches Samuel, we can hear the prayer of the Virgin: “Be it done unto me according to thy Word.” We must strive for this docility and obedience to enter our hearts and become our prayer.

This Gospel reading, however, is what really excites me. It gives us a basic blueprint for evangelization. First, John the Baptist announces, “Behold, it is the Messiah.” We, too, need someone to teach us to recognize the Messiah. To see in the midst of our everyday lives and our extremely ordinary routines where Christ, our Messiah, is present and working, we sometimes need others on our journey to point out Christ to us. After hearing this, Andrew and the other disciple stop what they are doing and follow Christ to spend the day with Him. This is an exact model for us - we must leave behind our ties to our old lives to follow the Lord. This one simple afternoon changes Andrew’s life forever. He becomes so convinced that Christ is the Messiah that he leaves behind everything to follow Him as a disciple - as we, too, should. St. Andrew, a simple fisherman, went on to spread the faith as far as Russia, and died a martyr...And his life was changed by this one afternoon with Christ. How much more can one Mass impact our lives if we let it?

The treasures in this Gospel reading continue. Andrew becomes the first missionary - the first follower of Christ to announce his Kingship to another. Andrew, so excited from having found the Messiah, immediately goes to his brother, Simon. St. Andrew couldn’t keep it to himself. He had to share his faith and he started with his family. This is the model we are given for evangelization. Once we encounter the Lord, we mustn’t wait. We must, as soon as the next day, bring our closest friends and family to the Messiah, as St. Andrew did. Simon became St. Peter, the first pope, and died as a martyr like his brother.

I am grateful for these readings. They cover some of the most basic parts of life in Christ - how to pray, how to be a disciple, and how to evangelize. I’m grateful that the Church gives us these models of the spiritual life at the very beginning of Ordinary time. It reminds me that it is precisely in the middle of our boring routine that Christ reaches in to change our hearts and lives; that love can penetrate us so deeply that we would be willing to follow in the footsteps of St. Andrew and St. Peter, even to death.

Happy second Sunday of Ordinary time!

God bless,

Erin

The president of the US Conference of Catholic Bishops, Cardinal Daniel DiNardo, characterized our nation as “more divided than ever.” At that same recent USCCB meeting our Cardinal, Blasé Cupich, condemned the poisonous rhetoric that has come to define today’s public discourse. Cardinal Cupich said, “The real issue and challenges that we are having today is that (we) are...living in our own camps. We have such a tribal approach to politics.” He urges us to do “anything we can do to bring people together and just encounter each other, adding that “this is what the Holy Father is asking us to do.”

Bringing people together to examine the forces of division and the path to solidarity is exactly what is planned for St. James. Please consider attending a presentation entitled Polarization in Religion and Culture: Naming the Wounds, Beginning to Heal, on Tuesday, January 23rd from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm in the St. James School Library. A discussion will follow. Our speaker is Michael Mcgillicuddy, LCSW, a social worker who will share his thoughts on the roots of polarization, and more importantly, the paths to healing and solidarity.

REFRAIN

Al-le-hu-ia, al-le-hu-ia, al-le-hu-ia.

Al-le-hu-ia, al-le-hu-ia, al-le-hu-ia.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (at words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

SLS18 was a leadership conference which strikes a balance between inspiration and practical application. With insights and tools from some of the Catholic Church’s top-notch leaders in evangelization, attendees gained confidence in their call as a leader by learning more about prayer, incarnational evangelization, teaching others to lead Bible studies, inviting others into discipleship, and sharing the gospel. SLS18 was an opportunity to go deeper in your relationship with Christ and the mission of evangelization -- to discover the plan the Lord has in store for you and be transformed in Him.
