The Epiphany of the Lord

Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, “Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.”

JANUARY 3, 2016
A Reflection…
from Sister Faustina Ferko, Director of Youth Ministry

January 3, 2016

"We three kings of orient are, bearing gifts we traverse afar..."

This weekend we celebrate the three wise men who traveled so far with precious gifts for Jesus. Each one of you are wise men or women bringing your precious gifts to Jesus! What do you bring?

This is also a wonderful opportunity to thank all of you who took the time to take a Christmas gift tag and search for a Christmas gift for a child at St. Malachy. One of the most amazing gifts I have been given has been going with 20 young people and adults to take the 433 Christmas gifts you all generously donated. It is remarkable to experience the joy you have brought to a child who doesn't have much, and that for them, this will be their only Christmas present! They were so grateful and so am I for your thoughtfulness and generosity!

THANK YOU!

We Remember,
We Celebrate,
We Believe.

(A podcast of this week’s reflection is available on the St. James website and mobile website.)

Year of Mercy – 2016

The Archdiocese of Chicago has a great website resource for the Year of Mercy.

www.jubileemercy.org When on this site:

CLICK the image which lists the Pilgrimage sites (HOLY DOORS) for the Archdiocese of Chicago, including Holy Name Cathedral, Marytown in Libertyville, Transfiguration in Wauconda, St. Francis in Lake Zurich, St. Peter in Volo, & St. John Vianney in Northlake are a few of the churches.

What to do:
"To receive the Jubilee Year indulgence, you must fulfill the usual conditions, (specified below) and perform the indulged act: PASSING THROUGH A DESIGNATED HOLY DOOR during the extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy (between Dec. 8, 2015, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, and Nov. 20, 2016, the Solemnity of Christ the King) or performing one of the corporal or spiritual works of mercy." (source: Pope Francis letter on the Holy Year of Mercy)

TO RECEIVE A PLENARY INDULGENCE  (source: www.thedivinemercy.org. Adapted from the decree on the plenary indulgence for the 2000 Jubilee Year)

The normal conditions for receiving a plenary indulgence:

* It is necessary that the faithful be in the state of grace at least at the time the indulgenced work is completed.

* A plenary indulgence can be gained only once a day. In order to obtain it, the faithful must, in addition to being in the state of grace:
  * have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin;
  * have sacramentally confessed their sins;
  * receive the Holy Eucharist (it is certainly better to receive it while participating in Holy Mass, but for the indulgence only Holy Communion is required); AND
  * pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff.

It is appropriate, but not necessary, that the sacramental Confession and especially Holy Communion and the prayer for the Pope's intentions take place on the same day that the indulgenced work is performed; but it is sufficient that these sacred rites and prayers be carried out within several days (about 20) before or after the indulgenced act. Prayer for the Pope's intentions is left to the choice of the faithful, but an Our Father and a Hail Mary are suggested. One sacramental Confession suffices for several plenary indulgences, but a separate Holy Communion and a separate prayer for the Holy Father's intentions are required for each plenary indulgence.

* For the sake of those legitimately impeded, confessors can commute both the work prescribed and the conditions required (except, obviously, detachment from even venial sin).

* Indulgences can always be applied either to oneself or to the souls of the deceased, but they cannot be applied to other persons living on earth.

or from the Catechism of the Catholic Church, Simplified) Plenary and Partial (1471) Indulgences are closely linked to the sacrament. An indulgence is the remission of the temporal punishment due to already forgiven sin. This remission comes from the action of the Church, which dispenses from its spiritual treasury. A plenary indulgence removes all temporal punishment due to sin. A partial indulgence removes part of the temporal punishment.

These are pictures from our monthly Ignite High School Youth Ministry gathering which came together for Adoration, praise and worship, and making Christmas gifts for the PADS guests! Over 60 young people and adults stayed for a short prayer experience with our adoration burning bush and then over 30 of them went downstairs for pizza and wrapping Christmas gifts for our PADS guests! It was an awesome night! Our next gathering is January 10 after 5 pm Sunday Mass.
Merry Christmas from SJS!

EXODUS TREKKERS

Retired Army General Is Healing "Moral" Wounds Of War, and Our Pastor Is Helping Him

"Moral injury is at the root of many psychological issues facing our returning troops and veterans," Gen. Jim Mukoyama (ret.) recently told the estimated 200 veterans at a breakfast in Arlington Heights at which our Fr. Matt Foley gave the invocation. Fr. Foley, himself a veteran U.S. Army chaplain, serves with Gen. Mukoyama on Military Outreach USA, a faith-based nonprofit ministry helping veterans and their families recover from those "moral" injuries.

Your January EXODUS TREKKER article goes into detail about what Gen. Mukoyama describes as "the dilemma that occurs when violating one's moral code and results in an invisible wound of war." The article, written by a parish member, presents a truly inspiring and unusual story of how Jim Mukoyama climbed from a lower-middle class Chicago family to become the then-youngest major U.S. Army general and later a man who says his goal today is "to serve God."

You'll also read details of a fire fight with the Vietcong in which Mukoyama, then a platoon leader, came face to face with his personal moral injury decision.

The January Speaker for our meeting on January 13th will be an officer from the Arlington Heights Police Department. This should make for an interesting meeting in light of what has happened in Chicago with all the demonstrations going on around the city, the firing of the Police Superintendent, and who knows what might transpire between now and our meeting. Also, I’m sure there might be some questions about the Fox Lake situation. It should make for an interesting meeting that I’m sure you will not want to miss.

P.S. Our Speaker might even speak about what is happening in Arlington Heights. All this information—I don’t know if my brain can handle it! Don’t miss our meeting!

The Epiphany of the Lord

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Epiphany celebrates God’s mercy shining on the magi from a guiding star. Their kingdoms were far from Jerusalem, their religions far from God’s covenant with Israel. At first the star led the magi to Jerusalem, where they could “re-calculate” their quest with the help of God’s own “GPS,” the Jewish scriptures. How challenging and humbling for the magi to discover that they would find the world’s Messiah not in a palace but with a poor couple in an insignificant village. That’s where God’s mercy, shining in the star, led the magi to worship Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Today the magi invite us to “re-calculate” our life’s journey during this Jubilee Year—to follow the star of God’s mercy along the way of humble love, to discover a renewed personal relationship with Jesus ourselves and so become “guiding stars” leading other seekers to find Jesus, too.
