Fulfilling Our Mission

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The mission of St. James is to walk in faith, live in hope, and act in love. By participating in the recent survey at Mass, online and in-person, you have fulfilled our parish mission once again. Thank you for taking the time to voice your opinions regarding our project plans. With great joy, I share with you an overview of the results we received. An overwhelming majority of parishioners support the Open Our Hearts in Welcome campaign plans.

The survey produced three key findings:

- Our parishioners have a deep love for this parish community.
- Participants overwhelmingly support the proposed campaign objectives.
- A large majority are willing to give generously to a campaign at St. James.

Parishioners stated clearly that these plans address relevant and important needs upon which we must act. However, while we received extremely generous gift indications, these indications did not support a $10-$11 million goal. Therefore, after careful consideration of your thoughts and priorities, we are excited to announce that we will proceed with a robust capital campaign focused on a scaled back version of our original proposals. To align with your comments and suggestions, a goal of, but not limited to, $7.5 million will accomplish the most pressing needs we have.

This approach will ensure we are pursuing the right goal for this community at this time. It will be a substantial fundraising initiative that will require the prayerful consideration and participation of our full parish community. We are eager to share more as we progress.

Over the coming months, every parish family will have the opportunity to support our initiative. We ask that when it is your turn to consider the right gift for you and your family, we hope you will approach this conversation with an open heart. Thank you all!

(Please note that the project plans are available for review, in the back of the Church and in the Parish Center Gathering Space.)

Your servant in Christ,

Fr. Matt Foley

Excuses, Excuses

As the saying goes, ignorance of the law is no excuse. That is what Moses is telling the people in the first reading. The laws of God are not difficult to understand. Anyone with a conscience should be able to live with them.

By the time of Jesus, the scribes and Pharisees had added many more laws. The scholar who questioned Jesus about eternal life knew what was important: loving God with all your being and loving your neighbor as yourself. If he had stopped there, he would have been all right. But by asking "Who is my neighbor?" he implied that there are limits to love.

Even today, we find people making excuses for not doing what God asks of us. We judge people who need help, saying they choose to be poor or homeless. We sign our kids up for so many sports that we don't even go to church on Sundays. Before you start beating yourself up with guilt, remember that God expects us to take care of our families, to spend time with our children, and even to take time to rest and relax. If we are willing to look at our lives and bring them to God, asking for guidance, we are making the first steps to keep God's law of love.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Text: ICEL © 2010
Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; Through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(at the following words, up to and including “and became man”, all bow)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Thinking About Becoming Catholic?

R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for all adults who:

- Are not baptized
- Were baptized in another Christian denomination or were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people from all ages and walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses or spiritual longing.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting on Wednesday nights this fall, beginning on September 28th. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptism.

Jubilee Year of Mercy
July 10, 2016—Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Could anyone object to Jesus’ supreme lesson in mercy, the parable of the Good Samaritan? Jesus’ devoutly religious audience certainly did! Scant sympathy for anyone foolish enough to travel crime-ridden “Jericho Highway” alone. Much sympathy for priest and Levite, hurrying to assigned temple ministry, unwilling to risk ritual impurity through hands-on mercy. No sympathy for Jesus’ scandalous hero. Samaritans were religious apostates and political enemies. Jesus challenges them—and us—to seek God’s presence not only in liturgical beauty but in a fellow traveler’s self-inflicted misfortunes. See God’s presence even in someone outside the law, whose hands-on mercy springs not from religious obligation but from the heart’s instinctive goodness. Since Jesus became our “Good Samaritan” despite our foolishness and sins, who are we to ration our mercy?

“Who is my neighbor?” (Luke 10:29). The next person we see who needs hands-on mercy!
No conditions, no limits, no exceptions. Especially in this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Jesus commands, “Go and do likewise” (10:37).

Fifth in a series of what our Faith Community can do to minister to those with mental illness and their families.

People with mental illness and their families often feel isolated from their faith community and thus isolated from God. Isolation is often caused by the stigma of the disease, or fear of being judged as inadequate or weak willed, or the misperception that God is punishing them because they did something wrong, or the communities misperception of what mental illness is and how it affects the individual and their families. As a healing community we can support people with mental illness and their families with unconditional non-judgmental love in the following ways: increase our awareness of mental illness and where to get help; offer prayers and support to individuals and families who are affected by mental illness; serve on parish committees for outreach to individuals and families, get involved in peer to peer ministry; and work on the justice issues affecting mental health care.

A THANK YOU from Fr. Joji

Dear Family of St. James,

I have no words to express my gratitude. I have been loved, cared for and welcomed as one of your family. What a blessing it has been! I am profoundly enriched by each and every one of you. Thank you again for the opportunity to serve and minister to you for seven wonderful years. You made me feel that I am part of your family.

I am sad to leave this beautiful community but I am happy and satisfied to have made a mark in your hearts. If you have come one step closer to Jesus because of my ministry, then I feel my mission has been accomplished. By the time you read this note, I will be with my Mom and family. I have so much to tell her about St. James and all the blessings. My farewell Mass was so uplifting, with all of you being there. The music was outstanding and I loved the red hearts being lifted during the Mass. I appreciate your wishes, gifts, cards, smiles and hugs, which made me feel like I need nothing more in my life.

So once again, THANK YOU, THANK YOU, and a BIG THANK YOU. I sincerely with all my heart love you all, and as always, there is nothing you can do about it!

Goodbye and good luck.

With peace and blessings,
Fr. Joji
