Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
A Reflection... from Deacon Jim Bannon

July 16, 2017

WOW...GOD!

Recently I was blessed with the opportunity to help out for two days at the Saint James Vacation Bible School. It was so impressive, from the great organization & curriculum to the loving, dedicated volunteers. But the thing that impressed me the most was the enthusiastic responses of the children. You see every day there was a new statement of faith, such as “God made me,” or “God will always love you.” And each time that statement of faith was said, the children would respond LOUDLY, saying, “WOW...GOD!”

The children’s enthusiastic responses reminded me of a presentation I attended regarding the Liturgy of the Word at Mass. The presenter pointed out how God speaks to us in the Liturgy of the Word…and that our role is to respond. You see, when we come to Mass we are an “assembly”, not just a “congregation”. Congregating just means that we come to the same place, but when we are assembled, each person has a role to perform, and one of those roles is for us to respond to the Word of God.

Our Roman Missal tells us, “When the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God himself speaks to his people, and Christ, present in his word, proclaims the Gospel.” Reflecting on this statement should give some pause to lectors, deacons & priests as they consider the gravity and sanctity of their roles!

And St. Pope John Paul II wrote this in Dies Domini:

“It should also be borne in mind that the liturgical proclamation of the word of God, especially in the Eucharistic assembly, is not so much a time for meditation and catechesis as a dialogue between God and his People, a dialogue in which the wonders of salvation are proclaimed and the demands of the Covenant are continually restated. On their part, the People of God are drawn to respond to this dialogue of love by giving thanks and praise, also by demonstrating their fidelity to the task of continual "conversion."

Or as the children say, “WOW...GOD!”

This summer, let’s make sure that our: “Thanks be to God”, “Glory to you, O Lord”, “Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ,” sung Alleluia, and psalm responses are part of an enthusiastic dialogue with God.

WOW...GOD!

Our Mission Statement

The St. James family is a welcoming Catholic community sent forth from our Celebration of the Eucharist to walk in faith, live in hope, and act in love.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are committed to justice and peace through Prayer, Education, Evangelization, and Stewardship.

We Remember,
We Celebrate,
We Believe.

Parish Children’s Choir – Grades 2 through 5

Come join our youngest parish Children’s Choir! Children perform twice a month at weekend masses, and at several other special events and concerts during the school year.

Rehearsals provide children with positive musical experiences as they learn to worship God through singing. Children also have a lot of playing musical games and meeting new friends.

Rehearsals are held on Wednesday afternoons from 4:00 to 5:00 pm, starting September 6th.

Contact: Mrs. Anita Haapapuro, email -- haapybride@aol.com for more information.
THINKING ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC?

R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for all adults who:
- are not baptized
- were baptized in another Christian denomination
- or were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people from all ages and walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses or spiritual longing.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting Wednesday nights this fall beginning on September 27th. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptisms.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — My word will achieve the end for which it was sent (Isaiah 55:10-11).

Psalm — The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest (Psalm 65).

Second Reading — We, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan within ourselves awaiting the redemption of our bodies (Romans 8:18-23).

Gospel — Some seed fell on rich soil and produced fruit (Matthew 13:1-23 [1-9]).

Marillac House

Donations

Marillac House, located on the West side of Chicago, was founded by the Daughters of Charity 100 years ago. The Sisters and Staff continue to provide child care for young children of working parents and single parent families. We are collecting for children from kindergarten through high school. Any supplies other than what is listed below for the older children, are always acceptable and appreciated, along with appropriate backpack sizes.

The Saint James Women’s Club is collecting school supplies or monetary donations for the children of Marillac House. Our goal is to donate as many filled backpacks as possible, but any donation will greatly be appreciated.

backpacks        pocket folders        pens        #2 pencils        crayons        rulers
glue stick       spiral notebooks     loose leaf paper        scissors        calculator        miscellaneous

Collections will be held after the Saturday Evening Mass on July 29 and Sunday Masses on July 30. Please bring donations directly to the designated cars in the parking lots behind the Church or the Parish Center. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Please call or e-mail Theresa Coglianese with any questions: (847) 259-4557, tcoglianese@comcast.net
To the Parents of Our Youngest Children

May we suggest:

- Relax! God put the wiggle in children; don’t feel you have to suppress it in God’s house. All are welcome!
- Sit toward the front where it is easier for your little one to see and hear what’s going on at the altar. They tire of seeing the backs of other’s heads.
- Quietly explain the parts of the Mass and actions of the priest, deacon, altar servers, choir, etc. Sing the hymns, pray and voice the responses. Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you.
- If you have to leave Mass with your child, feel free to do so, but please COME BACK. As Jesus said, “Let the children come to me.”
- Remember, the way we welcome children in church directly affects the way they respond to the Church, to God, and to one another. Let them know that they are at home in this house of worship.

To the Members of Our Parish

Please Remember:

- The presence of children is a gift to the Church and they are a reminder that our parish is growing.
- Welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.

St. James Parish

Congratulations!

You did it! You graduated from high school! If you’re heading off to college in the fall, here’s a list of RESPONSIBLE things to do:

- Memorize your Social Security number.
- Make a budget for the school year.
- Choose your meal plan.
- Know how your health insurance plan works.
- Visit campus at least once, if you can, to find your dorm and nearby amenities like supermarkets, pharmacies and restaurants.
- Find out where you can park or what public transportation options are available.
- See The Hunting Ground...Yes, this last item is a MUST!

The Hunting Ground is an award-winning documentary that sheds light on the issue of sexual assault on college campuses. Learn what you need to do to remain safe!

Please join us with your parents at any event:

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(at words that follow, up to and including \textit{and became man}, all bow.)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Parables, Anyone?

Jesus threw out parables like a farmer sowing seeds. Some of them fell on the ears of those who would be disciples. But most fell on the ears of people not ready to understand. The path, the rocky ground, and the thorns are all metaphors for how his teachings were received. So how do we receive his word?

Do we hear it without understanding, letting it go in one ear and out the other? Do we hear it joyfully, but then forget it when troubles or difficulties come along? Do we listen to the word but ignore it in the face of later temptation?

If we want the word to grow strong in us, we can take steps to help ourselves understand it. We can come to church early and spend a few minutes with the readings before Mass. After Mass we can talk about the readings or the homily with our family over breakfast. We can pick out one practical point to practice that week.

God’s word can be likened to a ball game. We can sit back and watch, not really involved or caring who wins. Or we can jump in and participate and make the game ours. Let us ask God how we can take the word and run with it.
Communion Hymn

Seed, Scattered and Sown

Refrain

Seed, scattered and sown, wheat, gathered and grown, bread, broken and shared as one, the Living Bread of God. Vine, fruit of the land, wine, work of our hands, one cup that is shared by all; the Living Cup, the Living Bread of God.

Verses

1. Is not the bread we break a sharing in our Lord?
2. The seed which falls on rock will wither and will die.
3. As wheat upon the hills was gathered and was grown, Is not the cup we bless the blood of Christ out-poured?
The seed within good ground will flower and have life.
So may the church of God be gathered into one.
Order of Worship

Closing Hymn

We Are Called

1. Come! Live in the light! Shine with the joy and the love of the Lord! We are called to be light for the kingdom, to live in the freedom of the city of God!

2. Come! Open your heart! Show your mercy to all those in fear! We are called to hope for the hopeless so all hatred and blindness will be no more!

3. Sing! Sing a new song! Sing of that great day when all will be one! God will reign, and we'll walk with each other as sisters and brothers united in love!

We are called to act with justice, we are called to love tenderly, we are called to serve one another; to walk humbly with God!
