YOUTH MINISTRY MISSION TRIP 2016

July 17, 2016  Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
A Reflection…

from Sr. Faustina Ferko, Director of Youth Ministry

July 17, 2016

“Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing.” Often I have heard the Lord speaking this to me. Especially when I let myself get overwhelmed and carried away by all the busyness of life! It is very easy to let the busyness run your life and keep you jumping from one thing to the next, not really being present in the moment. Sometimes I get so overwhelmed I have to stop and pray to regain what is truly important that Jesus speaks of, that “one thing”. I know I have missed that “one thing” which can be so beautiful because I was so caught up in preparing for an event that was coming down the road. I don’t think Jesus is telling Martha to be lazy or not do work; I think He is saying to live in the presence of God! God is always with us but it is super easy to forget God’s presence is always with us. Often we move about in our day not taking those moments to just breathe in God’s abiding presence!

I experienced this so profoundly on the recent Mission trip St. James Youth participated in at Hardeeville, SC. There is a ton of work that goes into preparing for a mission trip, from what to pack, to supplies to buy, to forms to bring and copy, to vans to rent, to first aid kits to pack, etc. Then, when you arrive, the day starts at 6 am and goes often until 11:30 pm (if you are lucky) and is just jammed packed with service, fun/games, and prayer. It can be really easy to get caught up in the “doing” of mission and miss the “being”. Actually I think “being” is what transforms us so we can continue the “doing”.

I had some really beautiful moments of “being” in the presence of God! One of those moments was “being” with one of our teens who ended up in the ER the first day we began our work! He was moving a door which had a mirror on it and the mirror fell and sliced into his ankle. It was scary to receive the phone call that one of St. James youth had to be taken to the ER, but once I arrived there I found God’s presence in the nurses, the doctor and most especially in the strength of this young man who was super brave as they stitched him up. In that moment we weren’t painting houses, we weren’t building decks, we were simply “being” and we were surrounded by the other 29 youth and adults from St. James who were at the exact same time praying the rosary with Fr. Gilbert for us! I later found out that this young man had pushed another youth out of the way of the falling mirror so he wouldn’t get hurt—how heroic! Another gift of God’s presence I found was in our youth and the inspiring stories they shared throughout the week! Our St. James group would meet briefly in the evening after our programming and a number of our youth and adults shared such profound moments of reflection with all of us gathered there! It was a true encounter with God’s presence and I would say one of my favorite times of the day when Fr. Gilbert would hold his hands up and wiggle his fingers, showing the Holy Spirit was going to come speak to us through these amazing youth and adults!

I would like to personally thank Fr. Gilbert, Dennis Barton, Michael Brown, Nikki Carso, Colleen Gaughan, John Lifka, and Rick Williams for taking time away from their families, jobs, and life to be God’s presence to the youth of St. James Parish! Lastly I would like to personally thank all of you parishioners for praying for us and supporting us financially! We could NOT attend such an amazing week of service without your support, so thank you! Please continue to pray for us as we prepare for the Local Mission Week, July 25-29, at the Back of the Tracks and St. Malachy School! We have 47 youth and 20 adults who will be bringing God’s Presence to the children there.

July 17th, 2016 Year of Mercy

Last Sunday’s "Good Samaritan" parable concluded with Jesus’ command: Go provide hands-on mercy to the next person you meet, no conditions, no limits, no exceptions. But today, Jesus seems to criticize Martha’s hands-on mercy of hospitality, while praising Mary’s "hands-off" as "choosing the better part" (Luke 10:42). Mary sat listening (10:39), leaving Martha "burdened with much serving by herself" (10:40). So, is the contemplative life of prayerful silence “superior,” but the active life of earning a living, raising a family, running parishes, schools, hospitals, and social service ministries "second-class" discipleship? No; Jesus’ example is not either/or but both/and: silent communion with God, boundless compassion for people. If we do not seek Jesus in silent prayer, how will we find Jesus in all others? If we do not serve Jesus in others, will our worship, despite its beauty, be anything but empty ritual? This Jubilee Year of Mercy offers us Jesus’ two-fold challenge: both “go and do” and "sit and listen."*

Thinking About Becoming Catholic?

R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for all adults who:

- Are not baptized
- Were baptized in another Christian denomination or were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

R.C.I.A. will start meeting on Wednesday nights this fall, beginning on September 28th. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring.

SUNDAY, JULY 17, 2016
SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Live dangerously; make friends

Saint Francis de Sales wrote that “friendship is the most dangerous of all love.” Why? “Because other loves can exist without communication, exchange, closeness.” Not friendship, though. To love a friend is to open yourself to them—warts and all—to communicate and to be a better person because of it. As the Book of Sirach says, “Faithful friends are a sturdy shelter; whoever finds one finds a treasure.”

A good friend is priceless, deepening your faith, calling you to see Christ in the world, and allowing you to be your best self. Martha, Mary, and their brother Lazarus had this kind of friendship with Jesus. Choose to live dangerously. Make friendships that matter.

Today’s readings: Genesis 18:1-10a; Colossians 1:24-28; Luke 10:38-42 (108). “You are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing.”

MONDAY, JULY 18
FEAST OF CAMILLUS DE LELIS, PRIEST
The original red cross

Imagine the sorrow Saint Camillus de Lellis’ mother felt when she dreamed her son would wear a red cross, which was the sign of a death sentence in 16th-century Italy. Her dream came true, but not in the way she feared. After a colorful life, Camillus felt called to serve the sick, founding the Order of Clerks Regular, Ministers of the Infirm, better known as the Camillians. With cassocks marked with a large red cross, they helped wounded soldiers on the battlefield, saving countless lives and transforming the red cross into a sign of charity and service for sick people everywhere.

Today’s readings: Micah 6:1-4, 6-8; Matthew 12:38-42 (396). “This is what the LORD requires of you: Only to do right and to love goodness, and to walk humbly with your God.”

TUESDAY, JULY 19
God on the run

Each day the prayer of the church contained in the breviary begins with the same words: “O God, come to my assistance. O Lord, make haste to help me.” This invocation from Psalm 70 is a surprising way to address God. It’s as if the church prays every morning: “Hey God, I’m in need here! So come help and be quick about it!” As scripture witnesses, God has come running to our aid as long as there have been people. And what’s more, God delights in being asked, like a doting parent of a favorite child. Go on, just ask.

Today’s readings: Micah 7:14-15, 18-20; Matthew 12:46-50 (396). “Who is there like you, the God who... does not persist in anger forever, but delights rather in clemency?”

WEDNESDAY, JULY 20
FEAST OF APOLLINARIUS, BISHOP, MARTYR
Keep the stories alive

Apollinaris lived in the first century, was the first bishop of Ravenna, Italy, and was a martyr as well. That’s all we really know for sure. So how to celebrate so obscure a person, and why? Some say that as long as someone remembers your name, you are not really gone. Perhaps that is why we put names on gravestones. Pray for your dearly departed and visit their graves—and take children along if you can. Pass on the stories of your ancestors, especially stories of their faith. If you don’t know any stories, is there still someone alive you may ask?

Today’s readings: Jeremiah 1:1, 4-10; Matthew 13:1-9 (397). “But none seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold.”

THURSDAY, JULY 21
First steps

On this day in 1969, Neil Armstrong became the first person to step on the moon. After stepping on the surface of the moon, he spoke the famous words: “That’s one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind.” Everything we achieve begins with one small step, a step of faith. Today is a good day to begin.

Today’s readings: Jeremiah 2:1-3, 7-8, 12-13; Matthew 13:10-17 (399). “But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear.”

FRIDAY, JULY 22
FEAST OF MARY MAGDALEN
Respond to the Resurrection like a true apostle

Mary Magdalene, who the church now officially calls “Apostle to the Apostles,” has often been confused with other women of the New Testament, including a woman of ill repute. But fortunately, Jesus knew who she was and called her by name. That act changed the course of her life and salvation history. Mary was one of Jesus’ most devoted followers and the first witness to the Resurrection. God calls each of us by name. Let’s hope our response will be, as was Mary Magdalene’s, to spread the Good News of God’s love.

Today’s readings: Song 5:1-4b or 2 Corinthians 5:14-17; John 20:1-2, 11-18 (603). “Jesus said to her; ‘Mary!’ She turned and said to him in Hebrew, ‘Rabbouni,’ which means Teacher.”

SATURDAY, JULY 23
FEAST OF BRIDGET, RELIGIOUS
Share your abundance—and your poverty

When you read that 14th-century Bridget of Sweden married at the age of 14, it is easy to disregard her life because it is so different from your own. How could her life speak to yours? But the driving force in Bridget’s life was not marriage at 14 but her wish to give all she had to the poor. From her family home to the monastery she founded to the streets of Rome where she eventually lived, she was consumed by the desire to share the little she had with those in need. Her life reminds us that whether we are giving or receiving, Christ is present in our poverty. Look for an opportunity to be generous today.

Today’s readings: Jeremiah 7:1-11; Matthew 13:24-30 (400). “If one of you deals justly with your neighbor... I will remain with you.”

Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Sprit, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther.
Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; Through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (at the following words, up to and including “and became man”, all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
