St. James Presents...CRAZY for You!

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
A Reflection…from FOCUS Parish Missionary, Matt Marcheschi

July 23, 2017

“I dream of a ‘missionary option’, that is, a missionary impulse capable of transforming everything...for the evangelization of today’s world...” Pope Francis Evangeli Gaudium para. 27

Is this your dream as well? Would you like to see your parish, apostolate or family flourishing? Do you desire to have a culture of missionary disciples who serve with great generosity and joy? Are you prepared to welcome thousands of lost and broken souls into the merciful embrace of the Church? There is an awakening among Catholics that we ought to become a Church of missionary disciples.

“By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be my disciples.” (Jn 15:8)

Curtis Martin, Founder of FOCUS, says “evangelization is to share the good news, the bad news and the even better news and to invite people to join the adventure” in finding our true identity as a son or daughter of God. Our life with God is meant to be a love affair that leads us into covenant. But our faith can sometimes feel more like rules than relationship. There is a saying in parenting: “Rules without relationship lead to rebellion.” Do we see our relationship with God as essentially a love story? Because He does, and He wants you to see it that way, too.

The good news: You were created to be amazing! As St. Catherine of Siena put it, “If you are what you were meant to be, you would set the world on fire.” You were actually conceived twice — first in the mind of God, as Scripture tells us: “…he [the Father] chose us in him [the Son] before the foundation of the world…” (Eph. 1:4) God loved the idea of you so much that, at the chosen time, you were to be conceived a second time, just under your mother’s heart when your life was to begin.

The bad news: You are not who you were meant to be. Sin has wounded you and separated you from God. Our problem is actually far worse than we might have imagined. At first glance, we may think that, with some effort toward self-improvement, we could close the gap between who we are and who we ought to be. But the Church teaches us that the gap is so great that we are incapable of closing it with our own effort: “All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.” (Rom 3:23) And, “For the wages of sin is death.” (Rom 6:23)

The even better news: While we were unable to save ourselves, “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life” (Jn 3:16). Jesus lives, dies and rises from the dead for you so that you can become who you were meant to be. When we see what Jesus went through for each of us, we can see two fundamental truths. One: If that is what it took to save us, we must have been in bad shape. And two: If that is what it took to save us, Jesus must think we are worth the effort.

Salvation is a gift, freely offered to each of us by God. Before a gift can be owned, though, it must be accepted. The decision to accept God’s saving gift means making the fundamental choice to become a disciple of Jesus. God’s gift is a complete gift of Himself to you and for you; the only appropriate response is a complete gift of ourselves in return.

When we accept God’s gift of salvation, we begin to listen to what He says and do what He asks. As we do so, we experience renewal. Our culture will be renewed when there are sufficient people in the culture who have been renewed. Following Jesus means to begin seeking to “love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might” (Deut 6:4).

Summer Mission Appeal—Archdiocese of Chicago

On the weekend of July 29th & 30th, we welcome FR. JAMES NWAIMO, who will visit our parish through the 2017 Missionary Cooperation Plan of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Hello,

I am Fr. James Chikezie Nwaimo, a priest for Buea Diocese – Cameroon, West Africa.

I am in the US on vacation, and I was asked by Fr. Augustin Vondou, to help him do Mission appeals for his diocese back in Cameroon. His diocese is Garoua Archdiocese, in the North of Cameroon. Fr. Augustin and I were in the Seminary together.

North Cameroon is a very hot and impoverished area, mostly affected by natural disasters such as earthquakes, floods, diseases and epidemics. The Archdiocese is in need of classrooms in a school which is under construction. The best way to check poverty is through education. Please help God’s people in this part of Africa both spiritually and financially.

Fr. James Nwaimo
St. James Youth Ministry teens and adults volunteers, offering support to the families living on the backstretch of Arlington Park Race Track!

The students were reverent and joyful during Mass and enjoyed each other’s company in a social setting afterward. Did you know Catholic Charities was founded by business leaders? In 1917, Cardinal Mundelein went to corporate philanthropic leaders with the desire to create a consolidated resource for charitable support to parishes and the needy. Since then, we have supported all who turn to us for help through services touching almost human service need.

As an integral part of the fabric of Cook and Lake Counties, we remain committed to the communities and people we serve. Help us celebrate Catholic Charities “Century of Hope” by sharing your stories and photos on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram with the hashtag: #ccofchicago100 and be sure to tag @CCofChicago.

St. James School celebrated its 90th anniversary on Saturday, June 10th bringing together almost 450 alumni, former and current faculty and staff, and friends of St. James. Alumni traveled from as far away as California, Texas, Florida, Georgia and Maine to be part of the festivities. It was a great evening as alumni, faculty and staff reconnected with one another and celebrated the 90th anniversary of the first graduating class of 1927.

The evening started with Mass in the church where Fr. Matt welcomed all those who had come for the reunion. St. James School alumni Gina Davy Zebron and Julie Davy Cohen were the cantors. Following Mass everyone was invited to tour the old school building. Classrooms, offices and the lunchroom were open for touring while alumni reminisced about their days at St. James. A life size cut-out of Mr. McCafferty was available for photo ops. Following the tour of the old school, attendees gathered in the Parish Center for dinner and a slide presentation on the history of St. James prepared by St. James alum Becky Howell Dufern.

Those attending represented almost every graduating class from 1944 to 2011, many of whom had not seen each other in more than 30 years. During the evening, Fr. Matt recognized the oldest St. James School graduate attending, John Abbs from the Class of 1944, and the longest serving teacher attending, Karen Driscoll, who has taught at St. James for more than 40 years.

Our thanks to the 90th Anniversary Committee who helped plan the evening including Jennifer Anderson, Beth Cloud, Kathleen Corrigan Lynde, Patti Denten, Anne Drew, Becky Dufern, Pat Farrell, John Ford, Karen Geary, Jennifer Hartman, Meghan Kay, Tom Loch, Linda Mackey, Linda McGrath, Kayo Nakagome, Katie Papanicholas, Mary Reddin, and Mary Thune.

Gospel Acclamation

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,

and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Thank You!

Dear Fr. Foley,

We would like to express our gratitude to you and the families and staff of St. James Parish for participating in the 2017 Baby Bottle Project for the Women’s Center. The total collected during this year’s campaign came to a total of $6,136.53. This is a fantastic effort and we are truly grateful for everyone’s generous support.

The Baby Bottle Project is our primary fundraiser and has enabled us to continue our efforts of saving moms and their babies from the tragedy of abortion. We are able to provide women with counseling, material goods assistance, and other services. All of our services are free of charge!

Thanks to you, we will continue in our efforts to promote a culture of life! God bless you.
