A Reflection…
from Sr. Faustina Ferko, Director of Youth Ministry

July 19, 2015

Mission 2015 “Finding Jesus in Disguise!”

I had the honor of working with over 95 youth and adults this summer doing some amazing Mission work over a two-week period. The first Mission trip took place in Colorado Springs, CO, where 3 years ago they suffered two major forest fires that claimed over 300,000 acres of forest, 348 homes and 3 people lost their lives. Even though these fires were several years ago the damage they caused is still being cleaned up, so a good number of our youth and adults were hauling burnt piles of trees, branches and other damaged items. We were asked to wear long pants, long sleeved shirts, and gloves; still, those working there came back with black soot all over them. The people that lost their homes had insurance to cover the rebuilding of their homes but their property did not have insurance so they depend on people like St. James to come in and offer their time and energy to clean up the damage. Our youth and adults did a wonderful job cleaning up and the tearful words of gratitude offered by the Black Forest homeowners’ was so powerful to witness. Another experience that left its mark was when part of our group went into one of the burned areas and planted 800 Ponderosa Pine trees. We were told to plant these trees next to burnt tree stumps because they would offer the sapling a bit of shade and the nutrients from the roots would nourish the tree’s growth. It was powerful to know one day there would be a new forest where we planted those 800 trees. We also did some painting of homes that house homeless individuals so they can have a place to live to get back on their feet. The 230 youth and adults that participated in Catholic Heart Work camp did a lot of good.

Then, this past week we had 57 youth in grades 7-12 who participated in our Local Mission week at the Back of the Tracks in Arlington Heights and St. Malachy School. At the back of the tracks we did a Vacation Bible school for over 150 children and at the end of the week we passed out over 100 backpacks full of school supplies that many St. James parishioners donated. Thank you for your generosity. Then, from Wednesday to Friday we were at St. Malachy School cleaning out their attic, helping prepare the school for the upcoming school year and laying pavers in their grotto garden. On Thursday we had a great picnic day with all the kids at St. Malachy, with games and tasty cookout food! We also honored Sr. Jane with flowers and a gift. She is retiring from St. Malachy’s this August and will be missed. We were able to put a lot of hard work into the grotto, and were able to clean out the whole attic. We filled 2 ½ large dumpsters full and the attic looks amazing!

Lastly, and I have to brag—we have the best teenagers around! At each mission trip I was so blown away at how servant-hearted our youth are to everyone they encounter. We are so very blessed to have such caring, compassionate and helpful young people who give 100% in all they do! Our theme was “Finding Jesus in Disguise” and I found Jesus in all the youth and adults who participated in the Mission weeks!

Summer Backyard Masses—Celebrated June-August, 2015
Bread of Life Discourse

The Bread of Life discourse occurs every three years and is contained in Cycle B. The writings of Mark the Evangelist are the foundation of Cycle B but during this cycle we are offered the opportunity to spend five weeks during Summer Ordinary Time (July 26 through August 23) to center ourselves in extended study, on Jesus, the Bread of Life. The First Readings and psalms, particularly on four Sundays, provide strong Eucharistic overtones. The Gospel readings focus on Eucharist and offer a setting for what has been called the Bread of Life Discourse that opens in Chapter 6 of John’s gospel account.

Beginning on the 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time, we hear the story of the Multiplication of the Loaves and Fishes, the miraculous feeding of thousands with a few loaves and fishes. The providential power of God flows through the action of Jesus. As the multitude has been fed, it is that same power that feeds us through the gift of Eucharist. On the following Sundays, Jesus announces through multiple teachings and conversations that He is the Bread of Life and promises salvation to all who believe and feed on Him.

The Bread of Life discourse provides us an opportunity to meditate on Eucharist. The Vatican Council named Eucharist as “the source and summit of Christian life.” Each time we celebrate Eucharist we are called upon to proclaim the death of Christ who gave His life for us and who looks to us to do the same. Hopefully these summer days and these powerful readings afford us some quiet time for reflection that God’s unconditional love and care has been completed in the person of Jesus, the Bread of Life.

St. James Stewardship in Action!
Are You Thinking About Becoming A Catholic?

R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. This process is for all adults who:
- are not baptized
- were baptized in another Christian denomination
- or were baptized Catholic but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people from all ages and walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses or spiritual longing. But whatever the reason, they come to the program because they are listening to God’s call.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting Wednesday nights this fall beginning on September 24th. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptisms.

For more information contact Fr. Joji at the Parish Office or Jim Hamman at 847-506-1368 or email:jhamman@rcgdirect.com

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Satisfy the hungry heart
The crowd could not leave him. They had witnessed his miracles as he healed the sick, and they seemed to forget whatever else they had to do in order to be near him. This was risky business in a desert culture where food could be scarce to come by. But compassionate beyond measure, Jesus fed them. The meal that day on the grassy plain near the Sea of Galilee was its own kind of eucharistic celebration, an event that foreshadowed those that now are the “source and summit of our faith” as the Catechism of the Catholic Church puts it. Then and now, Jesus satisfies the hungry. Give thanks for the gift of being fed.
TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Kings 4:42-44; Ephesians 4:1-6; John 6:1-15 (110). “Jesus then took the loaves of bread, gave thanks, and passed them around.”

MONDAY, JULY 27
Show, don’t tell
One of the cardinal rules of good storytelling is not to “tell” at all, but to “show.” Jesus had that technique down pat, and he often used parables so his teachings would be more understandable. He related lessons to everyday things like mustard seeds and yeast, good Samaritans and prodigal sons. His stories evoke the senses and emotions, making them come alive and hit home. The “show, don’t tell” rule applies to the way you live your life as well. Hod Saint Francis of Assisi’s good advice: “Preach the gospel always. If necessary, use words.”
TODAY’S READINGS: Exodus 32:15-24, 36-34; Matthew 13:31-35 (461). “I will open my mouth in parables, I will announce what has lain hidden from the foundation of the world.”

TUESDAY, JULY 28
Smoke signals
Fire is a powerful force. It destroys and creates simultaneously, refining what’s good and eliminating what is unnecessary. God’s love has the power to do that in our lives with the same mesmerizing effect. But how do you know that fire’s burning? God makes smoke signals. Where you resist, the holy smoke of change emerges—a sign that God is here and working. Like smoldering incense, the Burning Bush where Moses encountered the divine, or the Pillar of Cloud that guided the Israelites during the Exodus, smoke signals God’s presence in our midst. Remember: Where there’s smoke, there’s fire—the fire of God in you!
TODAY’S READINGS: Exodus 33:7-11, 14:1-9, 15:1, 34:5b-6, 28, Matthew 13:31-35 (462). “Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom.”

WEDNESDAY, JULY 29
FEAST OF MARTHA
Strong woman, take heart!
Women and power: never an easy relationship. If women are strong and bold at wielding authority, they’re called domineering names. If they’re soft and compassionate, it’s used as proof-positive they’re not qualified for leadership roles. Martha, the elder of two sisters, was a take-charge woman willing to face down Jesus a time or two. Of course, men must make choices regarding power too: to be aggressive or collaborative with it. Jesus admires Martha’s spirit and agrees with her assertions enough to restore her brother to life. Shared authority works!
TODAY’S READINGS: Exodus 34:29-35 (483); John 11:17-27 or Luke 10:46-50. “Martha said to Jesus, ‘Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.’”

THURSDAY, JULY 30
FEAST OF PETER CHRYSOLOGUS, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
Save this for feel-bad days
Keep an antidote in your wallet or on the bathroom mirror for those hang-dog days when you can’t face the world. We all have those days: I lost the job, the relationship blew up in my face, I wish I hadn’t said/did that, I really screwed up this time. Here’s the antidote, courtesy of Saint Peter Chrysologus: “Why then, are you so worthless in your own eyes and yet so precious to God?” The creation and the redemption of the world are twin gifts God lays at our feet. Believe it!

FRIDAY, JULY 31
FEAST OF IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA, PRIEST
Seek and you will find
The life of Ignatius of Loyola, the mid-16th-century Spaniard who founded the Society of Jesus (Jesuits), is something akin to a soap opera. One can imagine the details, but the point is that Ignatius learned to pay attention to the presence of God in his life—each and every day—and to seek God’s will in all things. Now the church has a Jesuit pope, Francis, who encourages the faithful to recognize the presence of God in the world and who speaks of finding God everywhere, especially in the poor and vulnerable. On this Ignatian feast, be mindful of the presence of God in the events of your day.
TODAY’S READINGS: Leviticus 23:1, 4-11, 15-16, 27, 34b-37, Matthew 13:54-58 (465). “Where did this man get such wisdom and mighty deeds?”

SATURDAY, AUGUST 1
FEAST OF ALPHONSE LIGUORI, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
What do I do now?
Many Catholics have been subscribers to The Liguorian, a popular magazine known for its concrete advice to readers seeking answers about how to live as good Christians. But remember that a question phrased as, “What am I supposed to do?” can imply that there exists a definitive “supposed to” answer, and that often leads to narrow, doctrinaire opinions, whereas Alphonse had “an optimistic view of the human person.” Better to ask, “What kind of compassionate and responsible follower of Christ am I in this situation?” Is there room in you for grace, generosity, and mercy, or do you tend to be rigid and absolute? If the latter, there is plenty of room for you to sit often at the feet of Jesus and ask for his Spirit.
TODAY’S READINGS: Leviticus 25:1-8, 17; Matthew 14:1-12 (466). “Do not deal unjustly, then, but stand in fear of your God.”

Are you looking to revitalize your walk with God? Want to feel more of His presence and guidance in your life? Join Artist Tamara Peterson and Life Coach Liz Lassa as they teach women two fresh and fun new ways to connect with God (as heard on Moody Radio’s Midday Connection).

In the morning session Liz will share her shorthand approach to seeking God through Spiritual Circle Journaling. This format helps you get deep quickly, using bullet points and circles. It’s simplicity helps even non-journalers keep track of their prayer life. The result is a closer walk with God, a more focused quiet time, and a life more clearly guided by the Spirit as you see God moving in the circles! There is a quiet time session built in to give it a try.

After a break for lunch we will take what God placed on your heart from the morning session a step further as Tamara teaches Spiritual Art Journaling. We will capture on a canvas the word, verse, or phrase from your quiet time with papers, clipped images, textures, and paints. In the end you will leave with your very own “one-of-a-kind” canvas to remind you of His message for this season in your life. The only experience required is kindergarten! All materials are supplied.

Thank You!

On behalf of the Board of the Faith and Family Foundation and the clients we serve, I would like to thank you most sincerely for the monies you collected during my visit to your parish in May. The generosity of your people is most appreciated. The Faith and Family Foundation continues its great plans for this year. As we continue to bring our Christian family evangelization plan across the country, we are also serving in many other areas. Our therapeutic riding program, hospital outreach program, and medical equipment exchange program continue to develop and grow. Thank you again for your thoughtfulness. God bless you.

Sincerely, Mark Forrest, President
