Our Mission Statement

The St. James family is a welcoming Catholic community sent forth from our Celebration of the Eucharist to walk in faith, live in hope, and act in love.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are committed to justice and peace through Prayer, Education, Evangelization, and Stewardship.

We Remember, We Celebrate, We Believe.
A Reflection….from Carrie Conley & Rebecca Linscott

July 30, 2017

Have you ever thought about teaching Religious Education??? What a wonderful experience to come into our children’s classrooms and teach them about our Catholic faith.

Did you know we offer Religious Education classes on Tuesday evenings for 1st–6th grade during the school year (September – May)? We serve about 700 children! We need about 65 Catechists to successfully run our program each year.

We are looking for people who are joyful and spirit filled. Don’t be intimidated if you are not a teacher or don’t think you know our faith well. The provided materials will help you to gain a better understanding of the lesson you are teaching. The Holy Spirit comes alive in class and as a Catechist, you will unexpectedly deepen your relationship with Jesus.

Lesson plans are provided and there is minimal prep required each week. Our goal is to have 2 Catechists in each Classroom so you can Co-Teach. If you have children in the program your family’s tuition is FREE!

There are MANY opportunities at St. James to teach our in our Religious Education program. All of our openings are for our 4:30PM-5:45PM Tuesday night sessions. We meet only meet 20 times during the school year:

- 1 need for 2nd grade
- 2 needs for 3rd grade
- 3 needs for 4th grade
- 1 need for 6th grade

How do we keep our faith alive? We must teach the young children of the church in a loving community. The mission of the St. James Religious Education program is to Ignite in our children a spark that will lead them to deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ. Many of you do this daily as parents in your domestic church. Please prayerfully consider becoming a St. James Catechist to serve the children of our Parish.

For more information please contact Carrie Conley or Rebecca Linscott, Co-Directors of Religious Education. Email: stjamesRE@stjamesah.org

If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, My servant will be also; If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him. John 12:26

THINKING ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC?

R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for all adults who:
• are not baptized
• were baptized in another Christian denomination
or were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people from all ages and walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses or spiritual longing.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting Wednesday nights this fall beginning on September 27th. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptisms.

A Truly Wise Person

The ending of today’s Gospel speaks about “the new and the old.” Jesus is saying that a person “instructed in the kingdom” has wisdom both old and new; in other words, that person learns from the past as well as from the present. Let’s look at each of those.

We learn from the past by studying it. So the wisdom of the kingdom comes first from the scriptures. The more familiar we are with the word of God, the more wisdom we possess. We can also learn from the lives of the saints and writings of the Church. If you only have time to go to Mass on Sunday, just listening to the homily can help to apply the scriptures to your life.

One way we can learn from “the new” is to learn from our mistakes. That includes learning from our sins. When we are truly sorry, we make an effort to change our ways. We can also learn from the mistakes and the successes of our friends. As we share our faith with them, we share the stories of our lives, both good and bad. God can speak to us through a friend or relative whose advice we seek. A truly wise person is one who has received a lifetime of good advice.

United Power for Action and Justice

July 2017

This month, United Power for Action and Justice, with members, St. James and Our Saviour's Lutheran, joined with other churches in the Arlington Heights Faith in Action Team, to successfully move the Village Board to approve [unanimously] the request to build Heart's Place, a 16-unit for persons with mental illness or other disability, in our city. This comes years after an earlier attempt to meet a significant and growing need in our area. Other recent successes by our allies include Myers Place in Mount Prospect, PhilHaven in Wheeling, and soon Spruce Village in Palatine.

The team is now working with Village officials and staff to identify another site; the need is greater than is addressed by the 16 units of Heart's Place. Permanent supportive housing is one leg of a three-pronged United Power effort to address the needs of persons with mental illness among our neighbors. The other two parts are training for first responders to de-escalate serious situations and a site where first responders can take persons for immediate care and appropriate referral. We are now requesting funds from the Illinois Housing Development Authority from federal (not State) funds approved for such projects; this project already receives a high preliminary score.

A continuing effort, but another successful step has been taken.

For further information and to provide support, contact Richard Fung at 847-392-2804.
Marillac House, located on the West side of Chicago, was founded by the Daughters of Charity 100 years ago. The Sisters and Staff continue to provide child care for young children of working parents and single parent families. We are collecting for children from kindergarten through high school. Any supplies other than what is listed below for the older children, are always acceptable and appreciated, along with appropriate backpack sizes.

The Saint James Women’s Club is collecting school supplies or monetary donations for the children of Marillac House. Our goal is to donate as many filled backpacks as possible, but any donation will greatly be appreciated.

St. James Respect Life Ministry

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you…” Jeremiah 1:5

CONSCIENCE PROTECTION IN HEALTH CARE

A well-formed conscience is upright and truthful. It formulates its judgments according to reason, in conformity with the true good willed by the wisdom of the Creator. Everyone must avail himself of the means to form his conscience.

Catechism of the Catholic Church #1798

“The moment we allow our conscience to be replaced by a “government conscience,” we begin to lose our freedom.”

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB)

All are bound to follow their conscience faithfully in every sphere of activity so that they may come to God, who is their last end. Therefore, the individual must not be forced to act against conscience nor be prevented from acting according to conscience, especially in religious matters. The reason is because the practice of religion of its very nature consists primarily of those voluntary and free internal acts by which human beings direct themselves to God. Acts of this kind cannot be commanded or forbidden by any merely human authority.

Dignitatis Humanae (Declaration on Religious Liberty)

Let us preserve freedom. Let us cherish freedom. Freedom of conscience, religious freedom, the freedom of each person, each family, each people.

Gospel Acclamation

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(at words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Hymn

Take and Eat

Refrain

Take and eat; take and eat: this is my body
given up for you. Take and drink; take and drink:
this is my blood given up for you.

Verses

1. I am the Word that spoke and light was made;
2. I am the way that leads the exile home;
3. I am the Lamb that takes away your sin;
4. I am the corner stone that God has laid;
5. I am the light that came into the world;
6. I am the first and last, the Living One;

I am the seed that died to be reborn;
I am the truth that sets the captive free;
I am the gate that guards you night and day;
A chosen stone and precious in his eyes;
I am the light that darkness cannot hide;
I am the Lord who died that you might live;

I am the bread that comes from heav’n above;
I am the life that raises up the dead;
You are my flock: you know the shepherd’s voice;
You are God’s dwelling place, on me you rest;
I am the morning star that never sets;
I am the bride-groom, this my wedding song;

D.C.

I am the vine that fills your cup with joy.
I am your peace, true peace my gift to you.
Like living stones, a temple for God’s praise.
Lift up your face, in you my light will shine.
You are my bride, come to the marriage feast.

LIFT UP YOUR HEARTS

Roc O’Connor, SJ

Refrain

Lift up your hearts to the Lord, praise God’s gracious mercy!

Sing out your joy to the Lord, whose love is enduring.

Verses

1. Shout with joy to the Lord, all the earth!
2. Let the earth worship, singing your praise.
3. God’s right hand made a path through the night,
4. Listen now, all you servants of God,

1. Praise the name above all names! Say to God, “How
