Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
A Reflection... from our St. James Religious Education Co-Coordinators

July 31, 2016

Have you ever thought about teaching Religious Education??? What a wonderful experience to come into our children’s classrooms and teach them about our Catholic faith.

Did you know we offer Religious Education classes on Tuesday evenings for 1st – 8th grade during the school year (September – May). We serve about 600 children! We need about 65 Catechists to successfully run our program each year.

We are looking for people who are joyful and spirit filled. Don’t be intimidated if you are not a teacher or don’t think you know our faith well. The provided materials will help you to gain a better understanding of the lesson you are teaching. The Holy Spirit comes alive in class and being a Catechist you will unexpectedly deepen your relationship with Jesus.

Lesson plans are provided and there is minimal prep required each week. Many of our classrooms have 2 Catechists and we encourage Co-Teaching. If you have children in the program your family’s tuition is FREE!

There are MANY opportunities at St. James to teach our children in our Religious Education program:

- 3 needs for 1st grade (3 at 6:30pm)
- 3 needs for 3rd grade (3 at 6:30pm)
- 6 needs for 4th grade (2 at 4:30pm and 4 at 6:30pm)
- 8 needs for 5th grade (5 at 4:30pm and 3 at 6:30pm)
- 1 need for 6th grade (1 at 4:30pm)
- 2 needs for 7th grade (1 at 4:30pm and 1 at 6:30pm)
- 2 needs for 8th grade (1 at 4:30pm and 1 at 6:30pm)

How do we keep our faith alive? ..by teaching the young children of the church in a loving community. The mission of the St. James Religious Education program is to ignite in our children a spark that will lead them to deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ. Many of you do this daily as parents in your domestic church. Please prayerfully consider becoming a St. James Catechist to serve the children of our Parish.

For more information please contact Carrie Conley or Rebecca Linscott, Co-Coordinators of Religious Education. Email: stjamesRE@stjamesah.org

If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, My servant will be also; If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him. John 12:26

Thinking About Becoming Catholic?

R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for all adults who:

- Are not baptized
- Were baptized in another Christian denomination or were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people from all ages and walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses or spiritual longing.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting on Wednesday nights this fall, beginning on September 28th. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptisms.

St. James in Mission

Join your fellow parishioners on St. James’ third annual trip to the Dominican Republic Orphanage of Nuestros Pequeños Hermanos (NPH) November 6th - 13th, 2016

NPH houses and teaches over 225 children in this facility and also provides outreach services to some of the poorest neighborhoods in the Dominican Republic. In past years St. James volunteers have helped construct two entire houses in nearby communities. This year we are performing some badly needed maintenance at the orphanage itself.

Volunteer opportunities:
- Painting, replacing faucets, making screens, other light maintenance
- Working with special needs children
- Assisting teachers

After each day of service we will pray and reflect on the day with fellow volunteers. We will be taking side trips to local areas as well as going to the beach with some of the children.

Cost, including airfare, meals and accommodations, is about $900 per person. Please let me know as soon as possible if you are interested, as we have to “hold” the fare.

Several parishioners who have gone on previous trips will be joining us again. Have a great time doing good work - join us!

It was, she would say later, "the crowning moment of my spiritual life." Nervously confident, Julia DesRochers waited for one of our three priests to lay his hands of blessing upon her head. She stood at the altar with 12 other adults, and behind each of them stood their "sponsor", the one who had patiently waited for this sacrament ever since he or she had brought Julia and the others to the Rite of Catholic Initiation for Adults (RCIA) eight months ago.

Today was the Easter Vigil, and the church was alive with music befitting the joy felt by Julia. Sitting in pews were friends and family with smiles that had lingered since this solemn Mass had begun. For Julia, a woman with a PhD in grain science and who now sings in the St. James 8:30 a.m. choir, these smiles came from her aunt, a cousin and her cousin's boyfriend, and a friend whom later Julia herself would sponsor.

It was the climax of a long spiritual journey that challenged Julia with its many twists and turns...

There's much more to read about Julia, beginning July 31 on the EXODUS TREKKER blog, along with several other inspiring interviews with people you might know. Go to: http://www.exodustrekkers.blogspot.com or to the St. James web site and click on "resources" then "blogs."

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with
the Father;
Through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (at the following words, up to and including
“and became man”, all bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored
and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
We Are Called

1. Come! Live in the light! Shine with the joy and the love of the Lord! We are called to be light for the kingdom, to live in the freedom of the city of God!

2. Come! Open your heart! Show your mercy to all those in fear! We are called to be hope for the hopeless so all hated and blindness will be no more! sisters and brothers united in love!

3. Sing! Sing a new song! Sing of that great day when all will be one! God will reign, and we’ll walk with each other as we are called to act with justice, we are called to love tenderly, we are called to serve one another; to walk humbly with God!

I Am the Bread of Life

1. I am the Bread of life. You who come to me shall not hunger; and who believe in me shall not thirst. No one can come to eat of this bread, and you shall live for ever, unless the Father beckons.

2. The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you believe in me, you shall live for ever. You shall live for ever.

3. Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and believe that I am the life, if you believe you are the Christ, the Son of God, Who has come into the world.

4. I am the Resurrection, unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and believe that I am the Resurrection, you shall not have life with in you. And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

5. Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Resurrection, unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and believe that I am the Resurrection, you shall not have life with in you. And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

Your donations are very much appreciated.
“You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you” (Luke 12:20). Hardly sounds like mercy! Unlike some contemporary rich folks, there is no indication of lying, stealing, or cheating in Jesus’ parable. The rich man made a living, not a killing. Why does Jesus name him “fool”? First, because of presumption. Five times in nine verses, the rich man declares, “I shall.” God’s not in charge here, I am! Second, selfishness—four times, “my/myself.” No God, no neighbor; he talks to himself, about himself: my possessions, my productivity, my plans! So, instead of chasing “treasure for ourselves,” Jesus and Pope Francis’ Jubilee Year of Mercy bid us grow “rich in what matters to God” (12:21), namely, the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Give food, drink, clothing, and healing; visit the imprisoned; bury the dead. Heal with Jesus’ own gentleness the doubt, ignorance, and sins of others; comfort, forgive, be patient; and pray for the living and dead.
