A Reflection…

from Fr. Derek Ho, Associate Pastor

July 3, 2016

I grew up in Buffalo Grove and went to Sunday Mass at St. Edna’s in Arlington Heights. I attended Joyce Kilmer Elementary School, Cooper Middle School, Buffalo Grove High School and then studied Accounting and Finance at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign. After graduation in 2005, I worked as an IT/Strategy consultant with hopes of becoming rich and dreams of early retirement. Feeling unfulfilled though, I left my job and became a lay missionary with the Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS) at the University of Maryland in College Park. It was during this time with FOCUS that I felt God initially inviting me to discern a call to the priesthood.

During my 6 years at Mundelein Seminary, my most formative experiences were ministering to troubled youth at a juvenile detention center, working with people suffering from HIV and AIDS, and travelling on pilgrimage to the Holy Land. I was ordained a priest in 2014 and my first assignment was at St. Celestine’s in Elmwood Park.

My favorite Scripture passage changes often but Matthew 11:28-30 has continued to sustain me. It’s a continual reminder for me that I’m not alone; that Jesus desires to free me from the worries of life and calls me to deeper friendship with Him.

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves.”

I look forward to sharing our faith together and continuing to grow in love with God and the Church!

Fr. Derek

PEACE

The greeting of peace at Mass adds substance to a message of today’s readings: peace is relational. When we greet in peace the person near us at Mass, we share the touch of a handshake or embrace, sincere eye contact, and friendly words.

The scriptures speak of a similar peace. The first reading from Isaiah describes the peace of the holy city, Jerusalem, a place of prosperity and comfort where the "LORD's power shall be known to his servants" (Isaiah 66:14c).

The Christian understanding of peace changes slightly. Paul writes of the "peace and mercy" on all who are created anew. Jesus describes a feeling of peace that will rest on those who accept his disciples and their message.

Peace is both an absence of strife and a personal blessing. May we always and sincerely bring peace to our own lives as we share it with others.

Just an Ordinary Man at the Pulpit, He Says?

Rick didn't want this St. James member to write his biography. He shook his head and said, "I'm too ordinary". After all, he had no celebrity status. But those who know him in Arlington Heights give him five stars as a pastor.

Men like the Rev. Eldor Richter you won't see on the 5 O'clock news or the cover of "People" magazine just because they have for 60 years been giving their heart to a church; or making hospital calls or missing a night's sleep to comfort a widow at 3 a.m. or giving body and mind to defending his book ("Comparing the Qur'an and the Bible") to hundreds of skeptical Muslims and Christians; nor do we normally lionize someone for simply being a loyal husband and devoted father, 24-7, with a reputation of never uttering a profanity or telling an off-color joke—an attribute he says he inherited from his father. Today, at 84, Rick is still treating human sorrow and proclaiming to souls a heart-felt "God loves you, you know."

You can read all about Rick's life, beginning July 3 in the Exodus Trekkers blog at HTTP://WWW.EXODUSTREKKERS.BLOGSPOT.COM or go to the St. James web site and click on "BLOGS", then "MEDIA".

St. James Parish accepts online gifts through GiveCentral. The summer is a great time to set up automatic donations and not worry about remembering to bring envelopes to mass!! You can donate by using your credit/debit card OR checking account, making either one-time or recurring donations. Since January 1st we’ve had 325 parishioners donate to St. James Sunday Collections thru GiveCentral. Please consider joining this trend! SO easy to enroll, (go to Stjamesah.org and click “Online Giving”) but call the business office for help if you wish. You can visit GiveCentral at any time to make changes to your donations or personal information.

A reminder to current users: Please take a moment to verify your information (address, card expiration date, etc.). It would also be helpful if you were to review your scheduled donations, as we are learning that some have chosen an end date when they didn’t mean to and their donations have ceased.

Thank you for your generosity and support of St. James Parish!!
Human Concerns Commission

Fourth in a series of what our Faith Community can do to minister to those with mental illness and their families.

The dignity of the individual is paramount in our belief that we are all created in the image and likeness of God. Our language should reflect that belief. Saying “a person who has a mental illness” rather than “the mentally ill” reminds us that personhood is first and that disease is not definition. We avoid referring to people using terms like “the mentally ill”, or “the depressed.” As people of compassion and justice, we should never use stigmatizing language or demeaning terms.

Careful use of language is more than being “politically correct.” It is a way of communicating that people with mental illness, as Pope John Paul II said, “have the inalienable right not only to be considered as an image of God and therefore a person, but also to be treated as such.”

NAMI—National Alliance on Mental Illness—Family support group, meets at 7:00pm, the third Wednesday of the month at Alexian Brothers Center for Mental Health, 3436 N. Kennicott, Arl. Hts. 847-899-0195

DivorceCare at St. James

Divorce Care wrapped up this week at St. James, sponsored by the Divorce Support & Recovery Ministry. Here are a few comments from various people:

“DVD’s were good. Great group of people. Great communication.” --“well organized and very warm and friendly for people to come and not feel alone and hopeless”--“My daughter told me that this class is really helping because I smile more than before”--“I am looking forward to Divorce & Beyond”.

Catholic Formation Commission

Thank you!

Dear St. James Parishioners,

Thank you so much for supporting Youth Ministry here at St. James!

During Bucket weekend, we raised $4,000 to help defray the costs of the Mission trips during the summer.

Here are a couple pictures from the Catholic Heart Work Camp Mission week this past week!
Thinking About Becoming Catholic?

R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for all adults who:

- Are not baptized
- Were baptized in another Christian denomination or were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people from all ages and walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses or spiritual longing.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting on Wednesday nights this fall, beginning on September 28th. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptisms.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mass of Joy and Peace
Glory to God

Refrain

Glo-ry to God, glo-ry to God, glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace, on earth peace to peo-ple of good will.

Verse 1
1. We praise you, we bless you, we a-dore you, we glo-ri fy you, we give you thanks for your great glo-ry.

Verse 2
2. Lord Je-sus Christ, On-ly Be-got-ten Son,

Verse 3
3. For you a- lone are the Ho-ly One,
you a- lone are the Lord, you a- lone are the Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spirit, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther.

Psalm Response
Psalm 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20

R: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Heaven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na in the high-est, ho-san-na in the high-est, Bless-ed is he, bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est, ho-san-na in the high-est.
Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
Through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(at the following words, up to and including "and became man", all bow)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
Gathering Song

For the Life of the World

Refrain

For the life of the world, we will stand to-gether, we will serve the Lord. For the life of the world, we will cry for jus-tice, and ev’ry heart will sing that Je-sus Christ is Lord!

Verses

1. We walk to-gath-er to be chil-dren of light,
2. We are em-pow-ered by the love of Christ,
3. We are the cho-sen peo-ple God has called,
4. The lost and bro-ken will be healed from their shame.

1. Nos da la fuer-za y el a-mor de Dios.
2. Hoy lu-chae-re-mos por jus-ti-cia, Se-nor.

Praise God who calls each of us by name!
The life we live is not our own!
The poor will see the face of God!
Su-vida qui-ta nues-tras mal.
Te-ser-vi-re-mos y sin fin.
Can-tan-do le-van-te mo-nos,

1-4. We live no long-er for our-selves!
1-3. ¡So-mos el pue-blo de Dios!

Communion Song

Let Us Be Bread

Refrain

Let us be bread, blessed by the Lord, broken and shared, life for the world. Let us be wine, love freely poured.

Verse 1

Let us be one in the Lord.

1. I am the bread of life, broken for all. D.C.

Eat now and hunger no more.

Verse 2

2. You are my friends if you keep my commands, no longer servants but friends. D.C.

Verse 3

3. See how my people have nothing to eat.

Give them the bread that is you. D.C.

Verse 4

4. As God has loved me so I have loved you.

Go and live on in my love.

SUNDAY, JULY 3, 2016  FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
We all need somebody to lean on

Independence resonates deeply for Americans, dependence, even interdependence, not so much. Yet, nations, political parties, and people need to trust and rely on one another to survive. The song “Lean on me” reminds us: “Swallow your pride . . . For no one can fill those of your needs / That you won’t let snow.” Pride is stubborn, but remember: You depend totally on God for everything from your next breath to eternal salvation, and mutually with others for joy and hope. Pray for our nation, and pray for those you lean on. Oh, and look around for those who may need to lean on you.

Today’s readings: Isaiah 66:10-14; Galatians 6:14-18; Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 (102); “Rejoice because your names are written in heaven.”

MONDAY, JULY 4
Helping hands

The laying on of hands is a blessing tradition that goes all the way back to Israel (Jacob) blessing his grandsons and Moses naming Joshua his successor, a tradition that continued on up to Jesus bringing a young girl back to life. Later, Peter and John laid on hands to call down the Holy Spirit on the Samaritans. And today, it is part of the sacraments and liturgy of the Catholic Church. It may appear to be a mere gesture, but it’s meant to confer and invoke and transform—if you’re open to being changed by the power of your faith, that is.

Today’s readings: Hosea 2:16, 17b-18, 21-22; Matthew 9:18-26 (313); “...lay your hand on her, and she will live.”

TUESDAY, JULY 5
FEAST OF ELIZABETH OF PORTUGAL
Marriage reform starts at home

Fourteenth-century Portugal was not for the faint of heart. In this wild and turbulent setting, Elizabeth quietly went about helping the poor and even managed to reform her wild and turbulent husband, King Denis of Portugal, to whom she had been pledged at the tender age of 10. Whatever situation you find yourself in, even one not of your own choosing, look for opportunities to help others grow and in doing so, to serve the gospel. No matter what, you are always free to act in faith. Cherish and practice that freedom.

Today’s readings: Hosea 8:4-7, 11-13; Matthew 9:32-38 (314); “At the sight of the crowds, his heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd.”

WEDNESDAY, JULY 6
FEAST OF MARIA GORETTI, VIRGIN, MARTYR
Let mercy and forgiveness be your testament

Canonized in 1950, Maria Goretti was held up in the past as a model of purity, clinging to virginity rather than to life. Today we see her as a victim of sexual assault, horrifyingly common in our world. But sing her praises not only for her bravery, but also for a mercy as stunning as her courage: As she lay dying, she forgave the man who assaulted her. When he was released from prison, he went to Maria’s mother to beg forgiveness, and it was granted. Her attacker ended up devoting his life to a religious order. Mercy had passed from daughter to mother to abuser. What mercy and forgiveness will you pass on as your legacy?

Today’s readings: Hosea 10:1-3, 7-8, 12; Matthew 10:1-7 (315); “Sow for yourselves justice, reap the fruit of piety.”

THURSDAY, JULY 7
The medicine of mercy

For too long, it was easy to envision the church as a sacramental filling station, where grace was the fuel that got us up and running for another week of routine responsibility. This utilitarian approach to parish life has been replaced by an image from Pope Francis of the church as a field hospital, pitching its tent on the battlefield of a wounded world. Pope Saint John XXIII also preferred to imagine the “medicine of mercy” as the particular service Christ’s Church provides to a society in need of healing. We come to serve, not to judge!

Today’s readings: Hosea 11:1-4, 8a-9; Matthew 10:7-15 (316); “I drew them with human cords, with bands of love.”

FRIDAY, JULY 8
Love is patient, not abstract

Sonnets of love describe with passionate detail the merits of the beloved that draw such devotion: eyes, hair, lips, hips. Who would declare a burning love in vague or abstract terms? Would such a theoretical declaration ever be convincing? In the same way, Pope Francis reminds us that our love must never be less than concrete if it is to be believable. Our love must be shaped first by our intentions, then revealed in our attitudes, and finally demonstrated in our behaviors. Intentions, attitudes, behaviors—the three-fold way to ensure our love is the real and tangible thing.

Today’s readings: Hosea 14:2-10; Matthew 10:16-23 (317); “Let [the one] who is wise understand these things; let [the one] who is prudent know them.”

SATURDAY, JULY 9
FEAST OF AUGUSTINE ZHAO RONG, PRIEST, MARTYR, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS BVM
Greet your companions in faith

The name of Father Augustine tops the list of 120 martyrs who died in China between 1648 and 1930. The phrase “and companions” is often used for groups of martyrs, but are they given short-shrift in light of their courage? One doubts that these women, men, and—young children would feel ignored, but why not spend a few moments today acknowledging with gratitude your sisters and brothers in faith whose names no one but God may know, your ancestors in the communion of saints?

Today’s readings: Isaiah 6:1-8, Matthew 10:24-33 (318); “Whom shall I send?” “Here I am, I mid, ‘send me!’”
