July 6, 2014 Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We Celebrate our Faith and Freedom!
A Reflection…
from Fr. Gilbert Mashurano, Associate Pastor

July 6, 2014

In a famous book called “Thoughts in Solitude” Thomas Merton wrote: “My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end”. Anytime I bring this quotation into discussion with others, especially my friends, I always have different views. Some agree one hundred percent, for some it is ok, and some disagree entirely. We live in a world where everything in one way or another is well organized. We keep our schedules, we are on time at any events, we have a plan for our future, money in our accounts, and life insurance. Well and good - life goes on.

I like the Thomas Merton quotation; it is a reminder of our day-to-day life, especially for me personally. I remember growing up in my home village called Bwanjai, surrounded by my relatives, my friends and my neighbors. I did not think that one day I would be outside my village (Bwanjai), or outside my county (Tanzania), or outside my continent (Africa). I had no idea that there was a place called Arlington Heights. I didn’t know that there was a language other than my tribal language called Haya, and my national language, Swahili.

Here I am living in Arlington Heights, 8,159 miles from my home village. My life completely changed; I had to learn a new culture, a new language; I have new friends, new neighbors and a new way of seeing the world. I was used to speaking in Haya and Swahili, and now I have to learn how to articulate words in American English.

This change makes sense only if I see it in the eyes of God; other than that, it would be chaos. I receive a lot of encouragement from St. James parishioners. The same support and encouragement I am receiving should also be provided to our daughters and sons, our relatives and neighbors who in one way or another have walked away from faith or from church. We all undergo some changes in our lives. During those changes we need to encourage one another, and a community of faith like St. James should move into the front line to do so. We are connected not only with one another, but with Christ. We define ourselves as a community of faith who remember, celebrate and believe in Christ.

It is not easy to agree with Thomas Merton because we think we have the power to control our lives. For example, using scientific methodology such as; eating better, sleeping eight hours, drinking more water, keeping our body in shape and other healthy suggestions. Most of us follow these closely, and these are great things to do.

From my own experience, I agree with Thomas Merton - our control in our day to day life is very small, and sometimes it is not there at all. That’s why we need Christ to be a part of our daily lives. We carry our body everywhere but most of the time we don’t know what is happening inside our body. Let’s get inspired by Christ, and ask him to open our way every day!

Peace,

Fr. Gilbert

Our Annual Picnic: A Beautiful Day of Fun and Worship

Once again, cheerful shouts were heard from fun-loving, hot-dog loving, and taco-loving families (notably their children), both inside and outside of the Parish Center at our annual picnic on June 22nd, with our friends from Misión San Juan Diego.

The event was orchestrated skillfully by scores of volunteers from St. James and its sister parish, Misión San Juan Diego in Palatine. It began at 11:45am with a standing-room-only bilingual Mass in the Church. St. James Pastor, Fr. Matt Foley, presided at the liturgy in both English and Spanish, a language he keeps polished by annual mission trips to Mexico. He was assisted by Misión Juan Diego’s Deacon, Alberto Contreras, who later commented that Fr. Matt’s Spanish was “perfect.” He added that the English Fr. Matt spoke was understood even by those in the pews who did not know English, because Fr. Matt “spoke from the heart” and was, of course, assisted by the Holy Spirit.

It was the Deacon’s first bilingual Mass, and he said the English portion was an “invaluable lesson” for him.

After Mass, picnic-goers moved across the street to the Parish Center for a feast of Chicago-style hot dogs and Mexican cuisine, aptly arranged and served by a cadre of volunteers. Misión San Juan Diego also had several grill chefs at work in the parking lot, where kids had a carnival of fun, especially at the dunk tank—never at a loss for volunteer dunkees!

Exodus Trekkers

The Trek of a Man with a Traumatic Brain Injury

“I knew the Lord was there. I just didn’t know where to find him.”

Note: The following introduction to an interview with our Lewie Beck was posted originally on the November, 2012 Exodus Trekker blog. During the week of July 6th it will again be posted—and with an inspiring update.

It was a good life for eight-year old Lewie Beck: his family loved him, and he enjoyed the amenities of a solid middleclass suburb, the status of being a gifted student, and his athletic prowess on the soccer field. Then came the day when he and his ten-year old sister Maria were crossing the street at school. A car hit them, so hard that Lewie’s head cracked the windshield.

That was 22 years ago. Today Lewie’s body and mind need a lot of spare parts—which, his mother Maureen says, “are not on the horizon.” But her son’s Christian heart, people will tell you, is brand new...

So begins another inspiring interview of a unique ‘Exodus Trekker.’ To go directly to the Exodus Trekker blog and several other interviews of parish members you might know, type in your computer’s address bar: http://exodustrekkers.blogspot.com/ Or, you can reach it by first going to “stjames.org” and then typing “Exodus Trekkers” in the “search” window. Clicking on that will take you to “Blogs.” Click on that and you’ll be on the launch page. The regular Trekker schedule will resume at the end of September.

The Exodus Trekker blog has so far been visited by almost 60,000 readers, many in Europe and Africa. It is written regularly by parish member Bob Schwarz.

Fr. Matt’s Monday Family Prayer and Adoration

4pm in the Church on Monday, July 14th. All are welcome!
Dear St. James family,

Thank you for showing our youth that you support them! We had such a fantastic response to bucket weekend this year. You generously donated over $3300. THANK YOU!

You didn't stop there...over 50 cars came through our car wash on June 29th. $1401.30 was donated to help defray our mission team expenses. THANK YOU!

Our final request is that you pray for our 90+ teens and adults who will spend July 19-25 at our mission sites in Detroit Lakes, MN and at St. Malachy on the West side of Chicago. Please also pray for the people in those communities whose lives will enrich ours.

We truly are one community sent forth in mission. St.James....pray for us!
R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for adults who:
- are not baptized
- were baptized in another Christian denomination
- or were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people of all ages and from all walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses or spiritual longing. But whatever the reason, they come to the program because they are listening to God’s call.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting on Wednesday nights this fall, beginning on September 24th. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptisms.

For more information, contact Fr. Joji in the Parish Office or Jim Hamman at 847-506-1368 or email jhamman@rcgdirect.com
