A Reflection... on the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 9, 2017

My Yoke is Easy, and My Burden Light

July 9, 2017 • Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

How we long for peace in our world! It seems we are surrounded by constant news of death and destruction, whether in our own country or abroad. We hear and we grieve, we try to give shelter to those fleeing war and crime in their own countries. We pray for them and for ourselves, that fear may not overtake us and make us do foolish things or abuse innocent people. For “[God] shall proclaim peace to the nations” (Zechariah 9:10). We can rely on this promise of peace, if we become peaceful people ourselves and do not give in to revenge or deep anger. “You are not in the flesh . . . you are in the spirit” (Romans 8:9).

COME TO ME

Some of the most comforting words in the Gospels appear in today’s reading. “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest . . . For my yoke is easy and my burden light” (Matthew 11:28, 30). Sometimes we carry what seem to be impossible burdens; we carry our cross. But we might be carrying the wrong cross. Our cross, we are promised, will be easy and our burden light. This might not seem to be true when we suffer the loss of a loved one, a job, our home, or our livelihood. But if we turn to Jesus, we will always find the comfort and loving kindness of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The children look to us adults for comfort and support, for “although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones” (Matthew 11:25). We can learn from children about our dependence on God.

So Jesus says to us, “Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart” (Matthew 11:29). Again, the Lord’s humility reveals neither bragging nor false denial of his power, but an acknowledgement of his love for us.

Today’s Readings:
Zec 9:9-10; Ps 145:1-2,8-11,13-14; Rom 8:9, 11-13; Mt 11:25-30
Pray the Rosary both before and after daily Mass:

Monday: Human Life
Tuesday: Military
Wednesday: Marriage
Thursday: Priests and Religious
Friday: Sick
Saturday: Souls of the faithful departed

Our Mission Statement

The St. James family is a welcoming Catholic community sent forth from our Celebration of the Eucharist to walk in faith, live in hope, and act in love.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are committed to justice and peace through Prayer, Education, Evangelization, and Stewardship.

We Remember,
We Celebrate,
We Believe.

Help Needed!

We are in need of some help to clean certain areas in our CHURCH. The date is Saturday, July 15th, at 12:00 Noon, “rain or shine”. Please enter the Church using Door C4, which is the northeast door off the back parking lot. Here are some of the tasks for which help is needed: washing pews and windowsills, dusting statues and Stations of the Cross, polishing the marble and stained wood furniture, spot-cleaning scuffs and marks off walls, removing wax and vacuuming.

We will also sweep the floors under the pews. Volunteers should bring a bucket, clean rags (no sponges) and a pair of rubber gloves. We will provide the cleansers (soap, polish, etc.).

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Kathy Borresen at kborresen@hotmail.com

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (at words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Opening Hymn

For the Life of the World

Refrain

For the life of the world, we will stand together, we will serve the Lord.

Verse

1. We walk together to be children of light,
   whose God calls each of us by name!
2. We are empowered by the love of Christ,
   the life we live is not our own!
3. We are the chosen people,
   the poor will see the face of God!
4. The lost and broken will be healed from their shame,
   Christ moves with us, we are God’s work of art!

Te ser - vi - re - mos y sin fin,

Por - que el vie - ne pa - te - gré - mo - nos?

1.4. We live no longer for ourselves!
1.3. ¿So - mos el pue - blo de Dios?
Let Us Be Bread

Let us be bread, blessed by the Lord, broken and shared, life for the world. Let us be wine, love freely poured.

Let us be one in the Lord.

Verse 1
1. I am the bread of life, broken for all.

Eat now and hunger no more.

Verse 2
2. You are my friends if you keep my commands, no longer servants but friends.

Verse 3
3. See how my people have nothing to eat.
Give them the bread that is you.

Verse 4
4. As God has loved me so I have loved you.
Go and live on in my love.

Weekly Intentions

Our Charity

Our charity for the month of July is the Summer Mission Appeal of the Archdiocese of Chicago, which supports the work of various missions throughout the world.

We thank you for your generous donations to our parish’s weekly collections.

A HUMBLE KING

Like a tonal center in music, the note to which we keep returning in today’s readings is humility. We wait in joyful expectation for the coming of our Lord as King. But what we are told to expect and rejoice over is a meek and humble king, riding on an ass. Not horses or chariots of the great and mighty, but a humble beast carries the Ruler whose dominion stretches “from the River to the ends of the earth” (Zechariah 9:10). This King comes to banish the tools of the warrior and bring peace. No wonder that a weary world rejoices and gives thanks to God!
