He was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight.

— Acts 1:9
Ascension, 2014

There is a delightful character in the original Dr. Dolittle Tales called the “Pushmi-Pullyu.” It is a beast with two identical halves, with a head at each end. No matter which direction the beast walks, one end is the “push me” and the other is the “pull you.” Today’s feast is a bit like that in the life of the Church. In the book of Acts, it is the Ascension of Christ that calls for the Holy Spirit, which consequently sends or “pushes” the Church out on its mission. It is this message we hear from the angels today as they tell the friends of Jesus not to look up into the clouds, but to get busy. It is the message of Jesus himself in Matthew’s Gospel, as he sends them out to baptize. He also tells them, “I am with you, until the end of time.” And it is this message, confident in faith that Jesus has ascended to shouts of joy, that “pulls” us along to our final destiny. The life of the faithful disciple, sent into the world on mission, will one day know the same risen, ascended glory.

BACK TO THE BEGINNING

It is doubtful that most of us, this late in the Easter season, with the approach of summer upon us, are thinking back to Matthew’s Gospel stories of the Christmas season. Yet, the trajectory begun there arcs to its completion here today in the conclusion the Resurrection account from Matthew. Roman soldiers have been instructed to attempt to thwart the truth of the empty tomb, as Herod’s forces tried to slaughter the newborn king—but God’s will cannot be countered. The Eleven fall prostrate before their Lord Jesus, as had the Magi earlier on. And the promised Emmanuel, “God-with-us,” here promises his followers, “I am with you always, until the end of the age.” These things serve not merely to prove that Matthew was a careful author. Each is a central and crucial tenet of our faith.

A MISSION FROM THE MOUNTAIN

Matthew is the only one of the evangelists who does not speak explicitly of or recount the departure of Jesus from his followers. Mark and Luke recount the Ascension, each in his own way; and John consistently has Jesus speak of the necessity of his departure so the Paraclete might come. Matthew situates his final scene for Jesus on top of a mountain in Galilee (not outside Jerusalem, as Luke does). This is the region where his mission originated, and throughout his Gospel the mountain top has been the place for him to teach his followers. (We are familiar with the “Sermon on the Mount” from Matthew.) And here Jesus re-echoes those Ascension themes we hear from the other evangelists: it is Jesus himself, risen and glorified, charged with power from the Father, who sends us out; it is Jesus himself who gives us our mission to baptize, heal, teach, and proclaim the Good News of salvation; it is Jesus himself who will be with us always, as we continue to be his presence alive in the world.

Today’s Readings: Acts 1:1–11; Ps 47:2–3, 6–9; Eph 1:17–23; Mt 28:16–20
Jesus ascended into heaven, blessing His disciples and promising that they would soon receive the power of the Holy Spirit. We who have received that promised gift of the Spirit are now empowered to be His witnesses to the ends of the earth—to use our time and talents to spread the good news of salvation.

St. James Sunday School

Registration for 2014/2015: April 1 – June 30, 2014
St. James Sunday School introduces 3-6 year-olds to our Catholic faith through Bible stories, prayers, songs, and crafts. If your child attends Preschool or Kindergarten, this is a great way to continue the learning process. Classes meet during the 10:00 am Mass from September through April. Children must be potty-trained and 3-years-old by 9/1/14 to register.

Register online on St. James website. www.stjamesah.org

This program is also a great opportunity for those who enjoy being with children and sharing their faith. We need volunteers to keep the program running! You can volunteer even without a child in the program. Volunteer information is also on the website. High school age parishioners are also welcome!
“School is a building that has four walls---with tomorrow inside.”
~Lon Watters

Signs of spring are everywhere in St. James Preschool. The children have been busy learning about God’s wonderful world all during the spring season. Father Matt visited the preschool classes to share stories about the Easter season and teach an Easter song to the children.

The Pre-k four classes went on a nature walk in the neighborhood accompanied by their sixth grade “Friends in Faith” partners. The students looked and listened for the signs and sounds of spring. Along the way they spotted flowers, trees, birds, nests, and squirrels. They heard the wind whistling and birds chirping and singing.

In the classroom the children recounted their experiences as they engage in conversation and wrote about their nature walk. The children’s conversations were enhanced as their teachers tap into their prior knowledge about animals and their natural habitats during non-fiction read alouds.

The children actively learned about numbers and rhyming through the song Five Little Monkeys Swinging from a Tree. They wound up their unit creating monkey string paintings. It certainly was an action packed spring in preschool!
Great Catholic Families Carry Out Faith-Based Service

In last week’s bulletin, we addressed the faith-building element of “faith rituals.” This week, we’ll explore faith-based service. As Catholics, our experiences of providing service to others generally benefit us equally as much as (or more than) those we are serving. Teens in Youth Ministry have said that working hard for a week on a “mission trip” is a life-changing experience. How can we make serving others a pattern in our families? Here are some suggestions!

- Tell a story about how Jesus fed the hungry. Teach stewardship and charity to your children by involving them in the purchase and delivery of food to a food pantry for those who are hungry.
- As children grow older, help them to know the Corporal Works of Mercy and ask them to think of ways to live out these works.
- Talk about the money you donate to charitable organizations and how that organization fits into our Catholic traditions: Habitat for Humanity shelters the homeless, Kolbe House visits the imprisoned, a coat drive clothes the naked, etc.
- When there is a family member or neighbor who is ill, have your child make a get-well card and deliver it to their home. Talk about all the ways that Jesus healed people.
- Show gratitude to every family member when they provide a service for the family (shoveling snow, making dinner, washing dishes). Let them know you appreciate their “service to your family” and that it follows the teachings of our faith.
- As children grow, invite them to be part of our parish community by helping with Sunday Liturgies (altar servers, choir, etc.), or choose a ministry that your family can participate in together.

Parents, we support your efforts in leading your family’s spiritual formation, as you consider your family’s use of faith conversations, faith rituals, and service activities. We hope you found this series of articles helpful and encouraging!

(Excerpts from “Living Your Faith @ Home” at www.archchicago.org)
R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for adults who:
- are not baptized
- were baptized in another Christian denomination
- or were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people of all ages and from all walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses or spiritual longing. But whatever the reason, they come to the program because they are listening to God’s call.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting on Wednesday nights this fall, beginning on September 24th. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptisms.

FAIR TRADE SALE ~ June 7th and 8th
Church: 7am and 8:30am
Parish Center: Sat 5pm, Sun 10am and 11:45am

Just Haiti Coffee & Your Favorite:
Chocolate Bars from Around the World

Just Haiti, Inc. is dedicated to an alternative way of doing business in which the wealth that is generated through Haitian resource development or the sale of Haitian products is retained by the producers in Haiti.

Just Haiti is a faith based organization that focuses on the poorest communities of Haiti, transforming both the consumer and producer through just and dignified relationships.

What is the difference between Fair Trade and the Fair Trade Plus model used by Just Haiti?
- The coffee producers receive a fair price for their coffee when JH buys it from them, just like other fair trade organizations such as Equal Exchange or Oxfam. (About $2/lb of green coffee.)
- However, the roasting, packaging & shipping is done at cost in the US and the selling is done by volunteers across the country. No profit is kept for administration fees, etc.
- After all is sold, the profit is sent back to the Haitian producer. So, with the fair trade price paid up front, in the end, they make close to $5/lb for their coffee!!

What do they do with all that profit?
Just Haiti requires that they form an association which sends monthly financial reports. St. James parishioners visited in 2012 and heard about the many ways they are using their profit:
- They use the money to pay for education, clothing and food for their children. (We can build schools, but if they can pay for the education they have dignity in providing for their children.)
- They plant more trees to shade the coffee and protect their land from erosion.
- 45% of the $5/lb they make is kept in the association and used as a death benefit or health care funds for the growers and their families.
- The association is preparing to make low interest loans to their neighbors. "A credit bank in the mountains of Haiti!!" exclaimed a parishioner.

Always the finest shade grown Arabica coffee, chemical-free, and packaged and shipped using recycled materials!

DRINK COFFEE! GROW JUSTICE!!

Anointing of the Sick at Mass
Saturday, June 7, 2014 at 8:30am Mass

A communal service of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will take place on Saturday, June 7th. Please mark your calendar and join us at the 8:30am Mass.

Whether you want to receive the sacrament yourself or pray with and for those who are being anointed, you are invited to participate.
The sacrament’s name, “Anointing of the Sick” emphasizes the important point that this is a sacrament for the living. It is the Church’s ordinary rite for the strengthening of those whose health is weakened by illness or age.

Who might choose to be anointed? The sacrament is for anyone with serious illness. For some it is an ongoing struggle in need of God’s healing strength. For others, it is a new and perhaps soon cured condition with surgery or other treatment. All illness brings anxiety and often, serious worry. Some persons who might choose to receive the sacrament are: Those facing surgery, subject to chronic disease, wrestling with depression, anxiety or addictions; those aware of growing weakness; those seeking the healing of loss or grief. Children as well as adults of all ages may be anointed. Caregivers who are seriously affected by the illness of a spouse, parent or child can also be anointed. In the Anointing of the Sick, not only are the sick ministered to, but they also minister to us by their witness of faithfulness to Christ and hope, even in the midst of their suffering.

If you know someone who might like to receive anointing, please invite them to come with you to the regularly scheduled 8:30am Mass on June 7th and assure them of our prayers.
If you have questions, please contact Marianne Dilsner, Pastoral Associate, at 224-345-7203 or email mdilsner@stjamesah.org
Exodus Trekkers
Our Priest from Africa is a Genuine “People” Person

One of the first things you should know about Fr. Gilbert is what makes him happy. It’s “people in a good relationship,” he says. “I like to be with people. That’s my thing.”

You should also know that Fr. Gilbert was born and raised in a small village (population 1,000) in Tanzania, near Lake Victoria, where the adult daily income is less than a dollar. He hails from the Haya tribe, 80 per cent of which is Catholic; their first parish was established in 1905 and now has five churches. “Before the missionaries came to my village,” Fr. Gilbert said, “people would sacrifice goats under a tree, believing this would connect the unsacred earth to what was sacred above the tree.” Up to ten years ago, his village had grass-roof homes which were without plumbing or electricity.

…..To read the entire story of Fr. Gilbert (originally posted May 13, 2012), go to your computer’s address bar and type: “http://exodustrekkers.blogspot.com/” or go to our parish webpage at: www.stjamesah.org and type “Exodus Trekkers” in the “search” window. Clicking on that will take you to “Blogs”. Scroll down to “Launch Exodus Trekkers” and click. This EXODUS TREKker interview will run the week of June 1st.

For information, call Mary Jo at 224-345-7200, ext. 8512 and leave a message.
