The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
You Are What You Eat

In John’s Gospel, Jesus gives a long discourse on the Bread of Life. The first part talks of bread as a sign of God’s loving care for the people. Like the manna in the desert, Jesus represents God caring for the people in a new way. But the part we hear in today’s Gospel is more specific. He says the bread he will give is his flesh. The leaders of the Jews don’t understand. Hopefully, we can do better.

In the pagan world at the time of Christ and before, a sacrifice was also a meal. An animal was ritually killed and burnt (i.e., cooked) to be shared at a meal with the people. The sacrifice was a gift to the god(s) that joined the people to their deity and also to each other. So Jesus used that understanding of sacrifice to explain his gift of self. He would die on the cross as a sacrifice to the Father and we would share in the meal by consuming bread and wine, which are his Body and Blood. That meal is shared today in the Eucharist.

Better than the pagan sacrifice, the Eucharist unites us with God because Jesus is both human and divine. His humanity allowed him to represent us to the Father, as a lawyer represents a client to the court. Jesus’ divinity allowed his sacrifice to be worthy of the Father, as no merely human gift could be. So giving his life on the cross was the best and only way that he could offer a true sacrifice to the Father.

The Eucharist also unites us to one another. We share this meal with other Christians as a sign of our common faith. Christ who gave himself to the Father on the cross also gives himself to us in the Eucharist. And because the food we share is the Body and Blood of Christ, we in a sense become what we eat. So we are all members of the Body of Christ. We show this by our love, by sharing our faith, by forgiving each other, and by our service to each other. If we believe that Jesus is divine, we must believe his word that the Eucharist is truly his Body and Blood, given for us.

* Procession after 8:30am Sunday Mass, with Blessed Sacrament. After procession, there will be Silent Adoration in the Church until 10:30am.

* Eucharistic Miracle panels will be available for viewing in both the Church and Parish Center this weekend.

REQUEST FOR A NEW MASS COORDINATOR

We are in need for a Mass Coordinator for the 11:30am Liturgy every other weekend. This is not an enormous commitment.

Only every other weekend you would need to come a half hour early before the 11:30 Liturgy to set up and a few minutes after Mass to clean up.

I will show you the routine. No special training is required. Only needed is your love for God and a desire to serve. It truly makes you feel part of the Liturgy more than ever before.

Pray over it and ask yourself if you are the one that God is calling to serve.

Please contact Bonnie Minaglia 847.372.0960 bminaglia@gmail.com

TRUST IN JESUS

Today’s feast celebrates another central mystery of our faith—the mystery of the Eucharist. Like the mystery of the Trinity, the real presence of the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist can never be fully understood, but can only be believed. Just as the Israelites in the desert were invited to put their trust in God’s word to them, we are invited to trust wholly in the word of Jesus. In today’s Gospel Jesus promises to give us a share in his very own flesh and blood, and a share in eternal life besides. We are called to take him at his word and open our hearts to receive true nourishment and life from our participation in the Eucharist.
THINKING ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC?

R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for all adults who:

• are not baptized
• were baptized in another Christian denomination
or were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people from all ages and walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses or spiritual longing.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting Wednesday nights this fall beginning on September 27th. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptisms.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

At the heart of today’s solemnity is a Eucharistic procession, held in many parishes, that calls to mind the procession of Holy Thursday, yet has a purpose different from the somber adoration in the night watch. In the late Middle Ages, a procession through the city with the Blessed Sacrament was an occasion of heartfelt joy and great emotion. In a time when people seldom approached the altar to receive Holy Communion, the procession through the streets, past homes and workplaces, was a vibrant reminder that Christ was with them as a dear companion and guide.

Every year on this day, a joyful procession winds through the streets of Rome from the Lateran cathedral. A few years ago, Pope John Paul II, deeply moved at the sight of the throng accompanying the sacred host, said that we ought to feel profoundly united with the faithful everywhere in the world at such a moment. “Before our mind’s eye all the Churches of the world, from East to West, from North to South, are present.” Originally this feast was on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday, but after the calendar reform of 1970, its title was expanded from “Corpus Christi” to “The Body and Blood of Christ” and in the United States it was moved to the Sunday after Trinity Sunday. Even though Easter season ended two weeks ago, this beautiful feast is aglow with Easter light.

Congratulations!

Six members of the community of the Sisters of the Living Word are preparing to celebrate Jubilee Anniversaries. A special Mass honoring the Jubilarians will be held at St. Thomas of Villanova Parish on Saturday, July 1st.

Congratulations to:

Sr. Genevieve Shea, SLW  80th Anniversary
Sr. Joanne Fedewa, SLW  70th Anniversary
Sr. John Boegeman, SLW  70th Anniversary
Sr. Elaine Tworek, SLW  60th Anniversary
Sr. Julia Stump, SLW  60th Anniversary
Sr. Carrie Miller, SLW  50th Anniversary

Congratulations to all, from St. James Parish
Please consider offering your talents and giving of your time to serve by helping with 2017 Jubilation at James. Jubilation is a wonderful tradition of sharing our blessings with those in need. Proceeds from Jubilation provide for the less fortunate among us through PADS and St. Vincent dePaul, and for our students through tuition assistance for our school and religious education programs. It also allows us to fund grants for causes that benefit children and families as far away as India and Tanzania. This year Jubilation at James is blessed to be led by Sheryl & John Lifka and Erin & Paul McAndrews. Below is a link to a Sign Up Genius with various committees in need of volunteers. Please consider signing up and if all slots are filled, simply contact Sheryl or Erin or email jubilation@stjamesah.org and they will be happy to find a place for you to volunteer. Feel free to share this link with others you think would be interested in volunteering. Know that there are also many jobs the week before the event and the night of Jubilation. The chairs will send information on those volunteer opportunities closer to the date. Thank you for your support in making this year’s Jubilation an evening to remember.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Blest Art will be visiting your parish on behalf of the Christian families in Bethlehem, Palestine. Our mission is to support those families in the Holy Land.

For centuries, the Christians in and around Bethlehem have earned a living by carving religious olive wood items to sell to visiting pilgrims. Fewer pilgrims are journeying to the Holy Land today, making it difficult for these Christians to support their families. As a result, there has been a dramatic rise in Christian migration from the Holy Land. Now, less than 1% of the population in the Holy Land is Christian.

Blest Art Inc helps the struggling Christian families of Bethlehem by marketing their artwork in the United States. Due to this work we help many Christian families to maintain their livelihood and their ancestral homes in the land of our Lord.

When Blest Art visits your parish, we will have hand-carved nativity sets, statues, crosses, rosaries, and many other pieces of beautiful olive wood art. We kindly invite you to visit our display and to consider purchasing a piece of art from the Holy Land. In doing so, you will help support the many families who depend on this form of art for their living. Your purchase will make a difference in the lives of many Christian families.

We gladly accept cash, checks, and all major credit cards. Please note that we do not ask for, nor do we accept, any donations.

Thank you in advance for your purchase when we come to visit.

Apostle’s Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

At the words that follow, up to and including “the Virgin Mary”, all bow.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

All Who Hunger

1. All who hunger, gather gladly; holy manna is our bread. Come from wilderness and wandering.
   Here, in truth, we will be fed. You that yearn for days of fullness, all around us is our food.
   Taste and see the grace eternal. Taste and see that God is good.

2. All who hunger, never strangers, seeker, be a welcome guest. Come from restlessness and roaming.
   Here, in joy, we keep the feast. We that once were lost and scattered in communion’s love have stood.
   Taste and see the grace eternal. Taste and see that God is good.

3. All who hunger, sing together; Jesus Christ is living bread. Come from loneliness and longing.
   Here, in peace, we have been led. Blest are those who from this table live their lives in gratitude.
   Taste and see the grace eternal. Taste and see that God is good.

Communion Hymn

1. I am the Bread of life. You who come to me shall not hunger; and who believe in me shall not thirst. No one can come to eat of this bread, you shall live for me unless the Father beckons.

2. The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you believe in me, even though you believe in me, you shall live for ever, you shall have life with in you.

3. Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and you are the Christ, you shall live for ever. You shall not have life with in you.

4. I am the Resurrection, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

5. Yes, Lord, I believe that

---

Refrain

And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.
Closing Hymn

REFRAIN
O taste, taste and see the goodness of God, the blessings of God.

1. I will sing God’s praises all the days that I shall live.
   My soul will glory in my God,
   the lowly will hear and be glad.
   O glorify God’s name with me,
   together let us rejoice.

2. For God has heard my anguished cries,
   and delivered me from all my foes.
   O look to God that you might shine,
   your faces be radiant with joy.

3. When the poor cry out, God hears and saves them,
   rescues them from their distress.
   God’s angel watches near to those who look to their God to save them.

4. O taste and see that God is good,
   how happy the ones who find refuge.
   The mighty shall grow weak and hungry,
   those who seek God lack nothing.

5. Come, my children, hear me,
   I will teach you the fear of God.
   Come, all of you who thirst for life
   and seek joy in all of your days.

6. For God is close to the brokenhearted, near to those crushed in spirit.
   The hand of God redeems your life,
   a refuge for all those who seek.

Our Charity
During this month of June, our charities will be the Archdiocesan collection for Retired Priests, and the Peter’s Pence Initiative.

The Collection for Retired Priests helps to support our elderly and retired priests, who have faithfully served our Church for many years. (Funding often assists with healthcare, prescription drugs, and nursing home care.)

The Peter’s Pence Initiative supports the work of Pope Francis. Donations are a witness of charity and help the Holy See reach out compassionately to those who are marginalized. Contributions provide assistance to victims of natural disaster, war, oppression, and disease. Thank you for your generosity to both of these June initiatives.

Maryville Crisis Nursery, Chicago

Maryville Crisis Nursery (MCN) is a temporary emergency Child Care Center serving children, birth to six years of age. Located in the northwest side of Chicago, MCN provides safe, nurturing overnight child care as well as services to families which include education, resource referral, counseling, and peer support. The program actively addresses the physical, emotional, social, and intellectual needs of children as it also works to strengthen the skills of the parents. This year I have had the good fortune to serve in several capacities. I join the child care staff in providing nurturing care and enriched stimulation of children during daytime programming. Utilizing my professional skills, I coach, encourage, and facilitate the professional development of child care workers and family care counselors. This work is a continuous opportunity to respond to the socio-emotional needs of less advantaged children and families in ways that build their individual and family skills, stability, and resilience. It is an opportunity to live the corporal works of mercy and the two greatest commandments while contributing to a safer, more loving world community. The experience enriches all of us.
