A Reflection…
from Father Joji Thanugundla, Associate Pastor

June 26, 2016

Dear Family of St. James.

As I say goodbye and take leave of St. James, I thank you sincerely for your love, support and appreciation. I have been overwhelmed by the number of people who came to me with kind and profound words to tell me what I and my ministry meant to them during my Seven Golden Years here at St. James. I hope to carry the memories forever in my mind and heart and thank God for this great opportunity to work and serve you. As I look back I realize the greatness of God working in each of us. Each time I saw you and talked to you I sincerely felt you were my family. Thank you for this beautiful gift. I will never forget it.

I also thank Frs. Matt, Gilbert, Bill and all the Staff of the parish and the Faculty of the school for all that they have done for me. Keep me in your prayers that I may have a safe trip to see my mom and family. I hope to minister and serve the people of St. Anne in Barrington with lots of love, zeal, and joy. Take care and enjoy the summer and may God bless each of you and keep you in His care and protection. I will be going to India from June 29th until July 16th and then be back at St. Anne. Hope to see you now and then.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Laws of Love
St. Paul has a unique vision of freedom. We often think that freedom means I can do what I want without interference from an outside source, such as a bureaucracy or a dictator. For Paul, freedom is not so much being free from oppression as being free to love and serve those around us.

What would stop us from loving others? It could be fear: "I'm not sure I would be able to do any good. I'm afraid of going into a bad neighborhood to help the homeless." Or it could be attachment to possessions or even to our family—the man in the Gospel wasn't free to follow Jesus because he thought it meant leaving his family behind.

Paul talks about another kind of freedom when he says that following the Spirit means freedom from the Law (Galatians 5:18). He meant people who were obsessed with keeping all the laws and customs that were part of the Jewish tradition. Taken to an extreme, you would have to memorize every law on the books to be sure you did not break one. The freedom of the Spirit is a life lived out of love. As long as we love one another, we wouldn't have to worry about breaking the law, for God's laws are all examples of how to love one another.

Thinking About Becoming Catholic?

R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for all adults who:

- Are not baptized
- Were baptized in another Christian denomination or were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people from all ages and walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses or spiritual longing.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting on Wednesday nights this fall, beginning on September 28th. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptisms.

Human Concerns Commission

Third in a series of what our Faith Community can do to minister to those with mental illness and their families.

In 1963 President John Kennedy signed into law the Community Mental Health Centers Act which mandated the de-institutionalization of mental institutions, asylums, and hospitals. It seemed evident to the joint commission who recommended de-institutionalization of these facilities that the institutions were little more than warehouses or custodial care facilities. The tragedy of this de-institutionalization is that the local communities who were to provide services never received the necessary and promised funding. As the hundreds of thousands of patients were released, they had no place to go.

Now, more than 50 years later, we are faced with an alarming dilemma which is felt nationwide. Many of those with a mental illness are now living at home with their families who are not equipped to handle the illness, or are residing in nursing homes, county homes etc. in a small scale “re-institutionalization” with the same conditions that were decried 50 years ago, or are living by themselves uninsured and not connected to services, or are homeless, (greater than 30% of all homeless have a mental illness), or in prisons and jails where more than 50% of the prison population need mental health care. In justice, our advocacy is needed for better systems of care that serve people with mental illness and their families.

NAMI—National Alliance on Mental Illness—Family support group, meets at 7:00pm, the third Wednesday of the month at Alexian Brothers Center for Mental Health, 3436 N. Kennicott, Arl. Hts. 847-899-0195

Join with your neighbors from the Rotary Club of Arlington Heights Sunset in stocking the Wheeling Township Food Pantry this summer!

It’s really easy to help…here’s how:
1. Bring donations* to the best July Fourth Parade around…the Arlington Heights Frontier Days Festival Parade.
2. Watch for the Wheeling Township Food pantry truck and the “roving” shopping carts.
3. We’ll collect the donations* in the shopping carts from the curb along the parade route.
4. We’ll put them in the truck and take them to the Wheeling Township Food Pantry.
5. Your neighbors in need will thank you!

* Items needed most listed below…but all non-expired/non-perishables will be gratefully accepted.

*It happens every summer: Decreased donations combine with increased usage to make for a perfect storm. The Wheeling Township Food Pantry shelves are bare! We could really use the following items:
  • Soup
  • Tomato products (diced, paste, sauce, stewed, etc.)
  • Toilet paper
  • Tuna
  • PB & J

Happy Independence Day to you! We couldn’t feed our neighbors without you. Thank you!

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with
the Father;
Through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (at the following words, up to and including
“and became man”, all bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored
and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

touch and sound In you and you in me?
live and grow In you and you in me.

Christmas is official!

It wasn’t until 1870 that Christmas was officially declared a federal holiday in the United States. Before that, some condemned the celebration of Christmas as an invention of the Catholic Church. In fact in 1647, England’s Puritan rulers banned Christmas! The Puritan influence was brought to the Americas and a ban was in place in the Boston area until 1681. Nowadays Christmas Day is a public holiday in the U.S. and many countries around the world. Even though Christmas is six months away, take some time today to give thanks for the gift of Christmas and the gift of religious freedom.

Today’s readings: 1 Kings 19:14-16, 19-21; Galatians 5:1, 13-18; Luke 9:51-62 (v59). “Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and proclaim the kingdom of God.”

Monday, June 27

Celebrate hard work and achievement

Today we officially celebrate the life and achievements of Helen Keller, who, even though deaf and blind, grew to be a renowned activist and author. We are reminded that people can overcome challenges and achieve anything they put their hearts into. Despite her challenges, Keller became the first deaf and blind person to earn a college degree cum laude in the U.S. In 1980, during Keller’s birthday centennial, President Jimmy Carter proclaimed today—her birthday—as Helen Keller Day. This is also a good time to celebrate the patience and resilience of Keller’s teacher, Anne Sullivan. Today, encourage those in challenging conditions and celebrate the achievements of the most vulnerable among us.

Today’s readings: Amos 2:6-10, 13-16; Matthew 8:18-22 (v57). “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.”

Tuesday, June 28

Feast of Irenaeus, Bishop, Martyr

In the late second century, groups of Christians called Gnostics claimed to have “secret knowledge” directly from Jesus. Saint Irenaeus rejected their divisiveness: Authentic teachers lead the whole church, not a closed or secret society. Still, religious division and mistrust are with us today, for example between many Christians and Muslims. Pope Francis says, “Christians, Muslims . . . ought to remain united in working to defeat what disfigures the Face of God by seeking only their own interests.” Whom do you consider outsiders? Do you really know much about them? Take time to learn rather than reject, to share rather than practice secrecy or division.

Today’s readings: Amos 3:1-8; 4:11-12; Matthew 8:23-27 (v58). “If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love.”

Wednesday, June 29

Solemnity of Peter and Paul, Apostles

Hail to the chiefs!

Peter and Paul are often called the “chief apostles” because of the way their witness helped spread the gospel far and wide in the early Christian community. Each is an example of what faith can look like. For Peter, it meant spreading his experience of Jesus to everyone he met, to be the “rock” on which the church was built. For Paul, it meant building relationships and speaking to the power of the word to transform lives. Each was a giant in his own right, but together, on this feast, they remind us that disciples never go it alone.

Today’s readings: Acts 12:1-11; 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18; Matthew 16:13-19 (v59). “Put on your cloak and follow me.”

Thursday, June 30

Feast of the First Martyrs of the Church in Rome

Love and courage

In the year 64 a fire broke out in Rome and raged for seven days, destroying more than half of the city. Historians suggest that the emperor Nero actually set the fire in order to blame it on the Christians, whom he persecuted throughout his 14-year reign. And blame them he did. But this time, Nero’s methods of torture were so horrific that the public turned against him. He took his own life in 68, but not before he had made martyrs of many early Christians. People still face unjust persecution in parts of our world. But most of us forget the price the early Christians paid. When we remember them today we ask for the grace to imitate their faith in God.

Today’s readings: Amos 7:10-17; Matthew 9:1-8 (v59). “Such things are bound to happen, but that is not yet the end.”

Friday, July 1

Feast of Junípero Serra, Priest

It starts in the eyes

Conquest begins in the eyes. We see, we want, and we plot to take. Spanish explorers saw the New World as a land worth possessing to the fullest. That it was inhabited seemed no obstacle. Native peoples—slaved, overpowered, or enslaved—made conquest all the richer. Missionaries like Franciscan Junípero Serra, founding father of California, offered “salvation and civilization” ahead of the conquistadors, but also the mantle of church protection. We view all these historical actors more critically now. How can we make up for the injustices of history today?

Today’s readings: Amos 8:4-6, 9-12; Matthew 9:9-13 (v51). “We will buy the lowly man for silver, and the poor man for a pair of sandals.”

Saturday, July 2

Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary

These scars say I am alive

One of Mary’s titles is Mother of Sorrows, but her sorrow can seem remote. During Breast Cancer Awareness Month, a group of eight British women posed for a photograph. Topless. The shock makes you want to look away, but you cannot, and they don’t want you to. They are scarred but strong and smiling, as if to say, “We’re survivors. Don’t feel sorry for us. Help others caught in sorrow.” Mary doesn’t need us to weep for her pain, but is there a woman you know who needs your support? You may not be able to remove her sorrows, but at least don’t turn away. Can you let her know she is loved.

Today’s readings: Amos 9:11-15; Matthew 9:14-17 (v52). “Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss.”

Weekly Intentions

Our Charity

Thank you for your generous donations to our weekly collection.

During the month of June, we will support the Fund for Retired Priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago, as well as Peter’s Pence, the Holy Father’s Initiative.

Just as our elderly priests need more health care, they may outlive their retirement funds and require help.

Thank you for your sacrifice and generosity, which is so very much appreciated!
