Congratulations, 2016 St. James Graduates!

St. James

Class of 2016

June 5, 2016  Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
A Reflection…
from Mrs. Judy Pappas, Principal, St. James School

June 5, 2016

We find ourselves in the season of graduations! People of all ages are reaching significant milestone in their lives. But no matter where we are heading as we achieve these milestones, be they graduations, birthdays, or starting a new career, one thing remains true about us throughout our lives. We are all called upon to be witnesses to Jesus Christ. While we do this first and foremost in our families and our homes, it goes far beyond that, into a world that desperately needs to hear the message of hope and love that only the Gospel can provide.

Being a witness requires that we step out into the world—-or at least a larger public—it may be high school, college, or the workplace. And I have no doubt that there are times that the world is not very welcoming to our testimony. Many of us can see that now is a time in our history for heroic efforts and great deeds to boldly proclaim the Kingdom of God.

So, what does this mean for us?

When we widen our world—-in high school, college, or a new workplace—-we will be challenged. Our Catholic faith is a gift of great value that has been handed down to us, and we cannot be afraid to pass it along to others. Just like Jesus and the early Apostles, we have a very radical goal. We must be brave and courageous in protecting and extending this gift of faith. It cannot be checked at the door. Faith is not convenient. It has life-changing consequences.

Graduates of Catholic schools in particular, have had a unique experience in daily exposure and purposeful training in strengthening personal faith through prayer and reception of the Sacraments. We have regularly participated in intentional service to others with reflection on its effects, and taught to be the face of Jesus to all we meet. Education has been delivered within the context of faith and moral responsibility.

The world recognized the early Christians by saying to themselves, “Look at these Christians, see how they love one another”. We have to be ready to conquer the world with love, even if the world rejects this very concept. We must be witnesses of love in our daily lives.

Our Catholic education has prepared us well to be witnesses. God has gifted us with that which is needed for the task. Catholics of all ages have a common mission. The world is in crisis. It seems it’s always in crisis. Now is the time to be bold and courageous, like the first Apostles. Those who are weak and powerless and hopeless need somebody to stand up for them, to work with them, to serve them. The Holy Spirit is at our side, making us eager and joyful, to step out of the safety of the upper room, stand before the world, and give witness to the Gospel of Jesus.

Now is the time for us to be heroes. Now is the time for us to be saints. Now is the time for all of us to be the witnesses!

Mrs. Judy Pappas

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; Through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (at the following words, up to and including “and became man”, all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gathering Song
We Are Called

1. Come! Live in the light! Shine with the joy and the love of the Lord! We are called to be light for the kingdom, so all live in the freedom of the city of God! Hated and blind will be no more!

2. Come! Open your heart! Show your mercy to all those in fear! We are called to be hope for the hopeless as we'll walk with each other as sisters and brothers united in love.

3. Sing! Sing a new song! Sing of that great day when all will be one! God will reign, come to me shall not hunger; and who believes in me shall not thirst. No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.

Communion Song
I am the Bread of Life

1. I am the Bread of life. You who come to me shall not hunger, and who believes in me shall not thirst.

2. The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you believe in me, you are the Son of God. Who has given his all for you.

3. Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood, you have no life in you. Come in to the world.

4. I am the Resurrection, and if you believe in me, you shall have life with you. Ever, ever shall you live for ever.

5. Yes, Lord, I believe that.

We are called to act with justice, we are called to love tenderly, we are called to serve one another, to walk humbly with God.

And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

RETIREd MEN’S MEETING

Gentlemen:

We will be holding our annual Mass and Luncheon on June 8th (Bob McDermott’s Birthday) and as always, it will be held in the basement of the old school at 10:00. Fr. Joji will be the Presider, which will give you a chance to say goodbye to this wonderful priest as he embarks on this new adventure in his life.

If you know of any man in our parish who you would like to invite, please do. I would ask that you e-mail me if you are coming and if you are bringing a guest. This will give me a general idea on how much food to buy. My e-mail address is: psheehan807@aol.com.

Thank you,
Deacon Pierce

Senior Citizen Summer School - A Technology Tutorial

(This event is offered to all members of St. James over 50! You need to register with Gerry Stec at 847-398-2097 and pre-registration is important!)

When? Monday, June 20th
Where? School Library (enter through the Parish Center doors)
What time? 1pm to 3pm (Parish Center doors will open at 12:30pm.)
What for? For all seniors to get a better grip on what our I-Phones and I-Pads can do, and how to start Facebook.

Pre-registration is important because you are also invited to ask Gerry questions you might have about these communication tools beforehand. Our presenter for this technology tutorial will be Jack Fredian, a junior at Hersey High School, assisted by his Dad, Jim Fredian.

Pre-registration is important because the School Library can accommodate a maximum of 30 people and the wi-fi reception is very good in the library. We will take registration on a first-come, first-served basis. There will be no charge for this summer seminar and all over 50 are invited. Sponsored by the Over 50 Senior Club.
