Pentecost Sunday

“Peace be with you! Receive the Holy Spirit.”
A Reflection…
from Marianne Dilsner, Pastoral Associate

June 8, 2014  Pentecost

Greetings – Today is the great celebration of Pentecost – 50 days after Easter when Jesus returns to the Disciples, who were hiding in a locked room for fear of the Jews. Initially, Jesus simply offers them Peace… peace to take away their fears, peace to reassure them and peace to help them to prepare for the mission ahead of them. That sense of Peace was needed desperately after all that had happened in the previous weeks to Jesus, their leader, mentor and friend. The disciples rejoiced and Jesus delivered it with a calm serenity. However, as the message continues, and according to John’s Gospel, they were then mandated to go forward, to be sent, to continue the mission - the work of Jesus among the people. Jesus then breathes on them and says “Receive the Holy Spirit!” The Holy Spirit will accompany them in all their undertakings, this Advocate will grace their efforts, and journey with them – they are commissioned to bring Good News and do the work of Jesus. Notice the word – commissioned, broken down it is “co-missioned” – to be in ministry “together”, “with” – what a great blessing! In John’s Gospel they are breathed upon and told to forgive others, surely a focus, that to forgive ourselves and others will lead to the Peace Jesus offers us at the beginning of this Gospel.

This a day of great drama in our Church year – it is often referred to as the birth of our Church, as these disciples go forth to work and witness and evangelize – undertakings that require great energy, integrity and commitment. Today we are all a part of this moment – to acknowledge that the Spirit is alive and well within us and to be open to that Spirit, to be led where God is calling us, to work for peace and justice as Jesus did and to be open to all that God has created and all the different peoples of our world. We are to be filled with gratitude for this breath that we take in each day, knowing that if we let it, it will liberate us to be true disciples!!

Pentecost can be seen as the completed revelation of the three in one GOD… Father, Son and Spirit among us… This is mystery indeed, and yet, a part of our faith that sustains us and blesses us on different levels. Enjoy this Pentecost today – take time in reflecting about God’s Presence with us – how do we honor that Presence? How do we take the empowerment of this day and go forward doing the work of God, as the disciples did? I wish you all a great day – Breathe in deeply!

Peace,
Marianne

(A podcast of this week’s reflection is available on the St. James website and mobile website.)
In the second reading today, St. Paul reminds the Corinthians, “There are different gifts, but the same Spirit; there are different ministries but the same Lord.” How am I using my gifts for the common good?

THE IMPORTANCE OF EUCHARISTIC ADORATION AND PRAYER
The worship given to the Trinity of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit... must fill our churches also outside the timetable of Masses... This worship must be prominent in all our encounters with the Blessed Sacrament... Adoration of Christ in this sacrament of love must also find expression in various forms of Eucharistic devotion: personal prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, hours of adoration, periods of exposition - short, prolonged, and annual (Forty Hours) - Eucharistic benediction, Eucharistic processions, Eucharistic Congresses... Let us be generous with our time in going to meet him in adoration and in contemplation that is full of faith and ready to make reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world. May our adoration never cease.”
- Pope John Paul II

WHAT IS EUCHARISTIC ADORATION?
It has been the consistent belief of the Catholic Church from the very beginning that the bread and wine consecrated at Mass truly become the Body and Blood of Christ, and that, furthermore, as the Catholic Catechism states, this “Eucharistic presence of Christ [which] begins at the moment of the consecration...endures as long as the Eucharistic species subsist.” (CC #1377). In other words, the Eucharistic Christ then continues to be present in our midst beyond the Eucharistic liturgy when the consecrated host is either reposed in a tabernacle or exposed on the altar.

The Blessed Sacrament is exposed for Adoration in the Church at St. James every Thursday following morning Masses until 5:00 pm closing with the Benediction service.

St. James Sunday School introduces 3-6 year-olds to our Catholic faith through Bible stories, prayers, songs, and crafts. If your child attends Preschool or Kindergarten, this is a great way to continue the learning process. Classes meet during the 10:00 am Mass from September through April. Children must be potty-trained and 3-years-old by 9/1/14 to register.

Register online on St. James website. www.stjamesah.org

This program is also a great opportunity for those who enjoy being with children and sharing their faith. We need volunteers to keep the program running! You can volunteer even without a child in the program. Volunteer information is also on the website. High school age parishioners are also welcome!
Doesn’t that have a nice ring to it? For most of us, this checklist comes as a welcome change from the mundane morning ritual of making sure our kids have clean uniforms to wear, their school lunches have been packed, and all homework assignments have been completed. Perhaps the best part of this change however, is knowing that we don’t have to be out the door by 8:20 am. Aaaahhh... School is out for the summer. A time to relax, regroup, and regenerate. Sometimes a break is just what the doctor ordered!

As we all know, it’s easy to get distracted from what’s really important during the school year. Between the studying and all the extra-curricular activities our kids get involved with, even the simple act of sharing a meal together at the dinner table is a rare occurrence. This is why summer time is the perfect time to reconnect with our family. It allows us the indulgence of spending quality time with our children, of not having other things in the way of Sunday Mass.

Please take the opportunity this summer to have a conversation with your child... conversation in which intimate thoughts and feelings can be expressed and any concerns or worries can be addressed. This is a great tool to reevaluate where your child is mentally, physically, academically, and even spiritually!

As parents, there are countless wishes and dreams we have for our children; a solid feeling of self-worth, the love of family and friends, a strong set of values and morals, a life that is both rich and rewarding, and the solid presence of God in their lives. We hope and pray that they have the ability to make good decisions, have compassion and tolerance for others, and can cope objectively with their problems as they occur.

Ultimately, raising a good child takes a lot of hard work and dedication on the part of the parent as well as the child. Let’s do it together this summer. It’s our job to teach it, and their job to preach it!

Remember, Child...
It’s not how much you accomplish in life that really counts, but how much you give to others.
It’s not how high you build your dreams that makes a difference,
but how high your faith can climb.
It’s not how many goals you reach,
but how many lives you touch.
It’s not who you know that matters,
but who you are inside.

RCIA— Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. This process is for adults who: are not baptized, were baptized in another Christian denomination, or were baptized Catholic but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation. Every year we have people of all ages and from all walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses or spiritual longing. But whatever the reason, they come to the program because they are listening to God’s call.

R.C.I.A. will begin meeting Wednesday nights this fall, beginning on Sept. 24th. The first two months of the program are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptisms.

Great Catholic Families Carry Out Faith-Based Service

In last week’s bulletin, we addressed the faith-building element of “faith rituals.” This week, we’ll explore faith-based service. As Catholics, our experiences of providing service to others generally benefits us equally as much as (or more than) those we are serving. Teens in Youth Ministry have said that working hard for a week on a “mission trip” is a life-changing experience. How can we make serving others a pattern in our families? Here are some suggestions!

- Tell a story about how Jesus fed the hungry. Teach stewardship and charity to your children by involving them in the purchase and delivery of food to a food pantry for those who are hungry.
- As children grow older, help them to know the Corporal Works of Mercy and ask them to think of ways to live out these works.
- Talk about the money you donate to charitable organizations and how that organization fits into our Catholic traditions: Habitat for Humanity shelters the homeless, Kolbe House visits the imprisoned, a coat drive clothes the naked, etc.
- When there is a family member or neighbor who is ill, have your child make a get-well card and deliver it to their home. Talk about all the ways that Jesus healed people.
- Show gratitude to every family member when they provide a service for the family (shoveling snow, making dinner, washing dishes). Let them know you appreciate their “service to your family” and that it follows the teachings of our faith.
- As children grow, invite them to be part of our parish community by helping with Sunday Liturgies (altar servers, choir, etc.), or choose a ministry that your family can participate in together.

Parents, we support your efforts in leading your family’s spiritual formation, as you consider your family’s use of faith conversations, faith rituals, and service activities. We hope you found this series of articles helpful and encouraging! ☺

Exodus Trekkers
A Eucharistic Minister Who Walked Gently into Her Night

“Let’s pray together,” the surgeon told Mrs. Kathy Muhr, a St. James Eucharistic minister whom the Lord called home on Sept. 1, 2013. In May, 2012 her surgeon had just told Kathy that she had stage four cancer in her lungs, lymph nodes, and spine and that she had six months to a year to live.

But this grim scene was played out with an abundance of God’s grace as Kathy continued to carry out her ministry here. As St. James worshippers grasped the chalice or host from her hand, they never failed to see that same welcoming, good-to-be-alive smile on her face that they had for the last 22 years.

“I know what God wants me to do and that makes me happy,” she said.

… To read the entire interview of Kathy Muhr, go to your computer’s address bar and type “http://exodustrekkers.blogspot.com/” or go to our parish webpages at “stjamesah.org” and type “Exodus Trekkers” in the “search” window. Help Needed:
JourneyCare, the leading nonprofit community hospice in the area, has the largest pediatric hospice and palliative care program in the state of Illinois. The pediatric team is currently supporting a 12-year old Arlington Hts. resident diagnosed with a rare cerebral degeneration disease. This young boy’s family is in need of some extra help and is seeking a volunteer who can look after him on Monday and Tuesday afternoons from about 3-6 pm. He is wonderful little boy and JourneyCare would love to find 4 volunteers who can rotate to help meet this family’s need. JourneyCare will provide the necessary training; please contact Brian Rothas, Volunteer Coordinator, at 224-770-2488 if you are interested.
Please pray for our sick...
