Jesus said,

LET THE ONE AMONG YOU WITHOUT SIN,
be the first to throw a stone at her.

A Reflection…
from Sister Faustina Ferko, Director of Youth Ministry

March 13, 2016

This line from the first reading in Isaiah echoes in my heart. “Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new! Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?” I don’t know about you but often I find myself glancing back into my past. There are times I do this to recall a moment of deep love with my family or I remember a sad moment from my past. I just did this today, as I was recalling the moment my father told me my grandma Silva had died. My eyes still well up with tears at the thought of this memory. I was about to head out with 25 youth to attend a retreat and I got out of the car to take the call from my dad. I remember the flash of deep sadness that waved over me when I heard the words “Your grandma Silva has passed away.” It shook my world deeply. I know I thought of this because my grandma Silva’s death anniversary is April 13th. I don’t believe this passage is saying to not remember that moment of deep loss or ever think about the past. It seems to me to be saying don’t only live from your past. If you do you will miss what great gifts God has waiting for you right now! Reverence your past but live in the now! God is a God of this present moment. A couple of weeks ago we heard God say His name, “I AM”, which in the way it is spoken defines that God is in this present moment. Lately because of this beautiful season of Lent, I have taken the time to stop and open my eyes to how God is doing something NEW in me. When we stop to reflect on what God is doing in our lives we are able to exclaim like the Psalmist, “The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy!”

Isn’t this what the woman caught in adultery experienced as well? Her past was in danger of getting her stoned to death. Her actions were so freshly sinful in the eyes of everyone present there that they were ready to deal out punishment swiftly. Jesus on the other hand did not respond to their condemnation of her, but rather patiently waited them out after he brought to their minds how alike they were to this woman caught in sin. Jesus was the only person who could rightfully condemn her but He doesn’t. He loves her and that love transforms her life! She can truly say the Lord has done great things for her and she is filled with joy! He saved her life and also gave her something worth living for, HIM!

There are faults and shortcomings in our lives that we often condemn ourselves for without any option for mercy. We tend to be our greatest critic and very hard on ourselves. Jesus is offering us the same love He gave to the woman caught in adultery. We are all, “the woman that was caught in adultery” and He wants to take away our guilt and shame. In this year of Mercy, take some time to look deep into your heart to let God love you. He wants to transform us by His love into something NEW, so we can proclaim with St. Paul, “I consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord.”

March 13, 2016 Fifth Sunday of Lent

How fitting that the first Sunday Angelus of Pope Francis, who has made mercy his papacy's theme, took place the last time today's Gospel about Jesus' encounter with the adulterous woman was proclaimed. "Jesus' attitude is striking," Francis declared. "We do not hear words of scorn or condemnation, only words of love, of mercy, an invitation to conversion: 'Neither do I condemn you' " (John 8:11). Francis continued: "God's face is the face of a merciful father who is always patient. Have you thought about God's patience, the patience [God] has with each one of us? That is [God]'s mercy. [God] always has patience, patience with us . . . understands us . . . waits for us . . . does not tire of forgiving us" if we return "with a contrite heart" - (Pope Francis, Angelus address, March 17, 2013). R.C.I.A. 2016 Catechumens and Candidates...

My name is Manveer Singh, a.k.a Manny. I grew up in New Delhi, India, moved to the United States in 2005 and settled down in Arlington Heights in 2012. Growing up, I went through various stages of religious beliefs but it’s only until recently that I feel spiritually complete.

The missing piece of the puzzle in my journey was RCIA, which paved the path to Jesus. I am eager to become Catholic and happy to live a life that I am proud of. I thank my wife, Carolina. She is the one who encouraged me to join RCIA. I want to thank RCIA for all the effort they put into running the ministry and St. James for welcoming me to their Parish.

My name is Mike Schneider. I have lived in the Chicagoland area since I was 5 years old. I was baptized and went to a private Lutheran school. My family belonged to a non-denominational church that we attended regularly. Faith was an important part of my upbringing. I believed in God, yet I was struggling to feel “at home” at my church. My wife Kelly grew up Catholic and attended St. Anne Church in Barrington, where we were married. Before we start a family, we want to share one faith and church. We attended services at several churches in the area, but felt the most comfortable at St. James. I love the strong sense of community here. My wife (who is also my sponsor) never pressured me to make this decision and I am thankful for that. I reached out to Jim Hamman inquiring when the RCIA program started. This journey of faith with Jim, his team and my wife has been an incredible experience and I’m blessed to have the support of so many people. I look forward to being a member of the St. James community and I look forward to continuing to grow in my relationship with God.

Hello, my name is Jakob Andrzejkowicz. I was born and raised in Arlington Heights. I was baptized at St. James Catholic Church, where I also went to school until second grade. Recently I graduated from Prospect High School. The reason why I am getting confirmed now instead of a few years back is because I went through some family problems and my confirmation got pushed back. My RCIA experience has been truly awesome and very fun! I’d like to thank my sponsor, Peter Godlewski, for joining me on this journey. I look forward to confirming my faith and continuing my Catholic journey.

Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship

As Pope Francis, quoting Pope Benedict XVI reaffirmed in Evangelii Gaudium, “We need to be convinced that charity is the principle not only of micro-relationships (with friends, with family members or within small groups) but also of macro-relationships (social, economic, and political ones.) (EG, no. 205). The Presidential and House elections are upon us; state and local elections as well. The principle of charity guides our focus.

It is appropriate now to review some of the norms of political responsibility that have been laid out for us by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Catholic Conference of Illinois. Some directives from our own Archdiocesan policy regarding political activity and voter education, found on the Political Activity and Voter Education page, found at: http://policy.archchicago.org/LinkClick.aspx?fileticket=PqBsB9b4IOW%3D&tabid=10164 . Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship is available at www.usccb.org As Archbishop Cupich recently was quoted as saying, the purpose of “Faithful Citizenship” is not to tell Catholics what party or what candidate to vote for, but to offer them a chance to reflect on the teaching of the Church. “For every person who goes into the voting booth, it’s like going into the confessional. They have to own the decisions they make in going into those two boxes.”

In this upcoming election, as in all elections, the Church maintains a nonpartisan position and does not endorse political parties or individual candidates. Parishes, schools and priests are not to endorse candidates or political parties, and church facilities should not be used for partisan events.

In the time leading up to the election, parishes are often requested to distribute voter education material and voter guidelines from various groups. While many of the materials may be very good, parishes are asked to comply with our policy to distribute only materials that come from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, or the Catholic Conference of Illinois, www.ilcatholic.org.

Finally, you are encouraged to read and reflect on a recent article published by Bishop McElroy of San Diego, entitled “The Greatness of a Nation” which can be found at: http://americamagazine.org/issue/greatness-nation These challenging times merit prayerful discernment and thoughtful engagement, as well as openness to conversion.

- Very Reverend Ronald Hicks, Vicar General

Ester’s Story
Ester had been staying in Nogales for 3 months after being deported. She was trying to earn money to get back to her son in the United States. She had been working cleaning houses in North Carolina and was deported on a week day while her 8 year old son, Miguel Angelito, was in school. She did not get a chance to say goodbye to him. Ester’s son’s father was no longer in the picture so he went to stay with other relatives in the area. Miguel Angelito was born in the United States and Ester wanted him to stay there. Shortly after Ester’s deportation, her son was uprooted from North Carolina to Missouri to live with Ester’s sister. Ester also had 3 older children living in Chiapas in southern Mexico. Her older children lived with their grandparents and near their father there. Ester was in contact with them, but had no plans to return to Chiapas because there was no work for her there. Ultimately, Ester does plan to try to get to the U.S. again where she can provide for all her children and be with her youngest son.

Walking Together, Sharing Stories

Elizabet’s Story
Here Elizabet shows a picture of her two boys. She lived and worked in the U.S. for over 8 years. She was arrested in South Carolina and deported three days ago. Her boys are U.S. Citizens. Michael is 7 yrs old and Steven is 4. Their father is no longer in touch with them, so the boys are living with their Aunt, Elizabet’s sister, and their cousins. She can talk to them on the phone. She can look at their pictures on the phone. But she can not hold them in her arms. He hopes to return to them...soon. I hope she does too. I believe that is where God wants her to be.

Marcos’ Story
Marcos, 37, has lived in Santa Barbara, California for 19 years. He is married and has three children, ages 11 to 18. His two sons plan to join the United States Army and Navy. He worked as a supervisor in a paint company. Income taxes, social security and Medicare were withheld from his pay. This is accomplished by an ITIN number assigned by the IRS. (He will not be allowed to ever collect Social Security.) He owns a home, but is concerned that his wife will not be able to keep up the mortgage payments. He would like to find a way to enter the U.S. again. He says that no one in Mexico City will hire him at his age, because he is considered too old.

Lectors have a critical role in the celebration of the Mass. Since lectors proclaim not just any word, but the Word of God, it is essential that they develop the skills required to communicate God’s message competently.

Through the use of voice, eye contact and personal presence, lectors help God’s Word come alive for the assembly.

This training will provide the skills and self-confidence needed for those who wish to become lectors in their own parish or for any lector who would like a “refresher” course.

TO REGISTER: please contact Marie Paul at 847-358-7760, ext. 119.
