Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

We are so very blessed to pause and remember those who have fallen in service of our country on Memorial Day. St. James will have many participants in the Arlington Heights Memorial Day parade. Our wonderful St. James School Band will be playing patriotic songs as they call us all, to remember and never forget.

Memorial Day serves as the unofficial day that initiates our summer season. One can feel the excitement of the children waiting to be released from school to enjoy their summer break. After one of the toughest winters on record, adults are looking forward to the days when a jacket is not required to venture outside. Personally, I look forward to visiting with my family and friends in the outdoors on a hot and sunny summer day. Prayers from St. James families will go out to all who will travel this summer for safe passage and safe return.

In the midst of planning and preparing to celebrate summer I ask you to pause and reflect on this Memorial Day. Let us remember the families and friends who have lost loved ones who have died in service of our country. I invite you to say a prayer for the following Missing in Action Military Members who never were found in our lifetime:

- 73,624 MIA’s World War II
- 7,883 MIA’s Korean War
- 1,642 MIA’s Viet Nam War

I invite you to say a prayer for those who were Killed in Action in our most recent Wars:

- 4,486 KIA’s Iraq War
- 2,321 KIA’s Afghanistan War

As a grateful nation, I pray that we take a moment to remember those who sacrificed for our freedom and safety on this Memorial Day.

Thank you,

Fr. Matt

Our Charity

Our Charity this month is the Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

GIVE to keep a family together….

Mary was a single mother with six children. A series of events caused her to lose her home and she was scared she would lose her children, too. Thanks to the Catholic Charities Samaritan House Shelter for women and children, Mary kept her family together. She now has a full-time job and is saving for a down payment on her own home.

Each day Catholic Charities’ shelters are home to 240 formerly homeless families.
Catholic Charities helps get children off to a good start. Last year, 1,111 children ages 6 weeks to 5 years old attended one of their nine Child Development Centers. A Family Services Program works to keep families together while addressing the safety and well-being of children.
More than 20 million meals are provided each year through community nutrition programs to avoid hunger for children, seniors and families. A youth employment program partnered with Chicago Public Schools to relocate books, furniture and supplies from 50 closing schools while providing jobs for young people.
Catholic Charities Housing Services provides safe and affordable housing for individuals and families. It includes emergency shelters, twenty-one senior residences, a supportive living residence, residences for persons will disabilities and a nursing home. Special programs are dedicated to veterans.
Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Chicago assists people in a variety of ways, addressing many needs of the local community.

We thank you for your generous donations to our charity this month!
You may have seen some new signs around our parish recently!

They are due to the efforts of the Communication Committee, and a direct reflection of “Stewardship in Action!”

Several SJS Bulldog Chorus members hug our new chanticleer pear tree. The tree was planted last week and serves as a gift from the Village of Arlington Heights for the Chorus’s participation in Arbor Day Festivities last month.

Anointing of the Sick at Mass
Saturday, June 7, 2014 at 8:30am Mass

A communal service of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will take place on Saturday, June 7th. Please mark your calendar and join us at the 8:30am Mass.

Whether you want to receive the sacrament yourself or pray with and for those who are being anointed, you are invited to participate.

The sacrament’s name, “Anointing of the Sick” emphasizes the important point that this is a sacrament for the living. It is the Church’s ordinary rite for the strengthening of those whose health is weakened by illness or age.

Who might choose to be anointed? The sacrament is for anyone with serious illness. For some it is an ongoing struggle in need of God’s healing strength. For others, it is a new and perhaps soon cured condition with surgery or other treatment. All illness brings anxiety and often, serious worry. Some persons who might choose to receive the sacrament are: Those facing surgery, subject to chronic disease, wrestling with depression, anxiety or addictions; those aware of growing weakness; those seeking the healing of loss or grief.

Children as well as adults of all ages may be anointed. Caregivers who are seriously affected by the illness of a spouse, parent or child can also be anointed. In the Anointing of the Sick, not only are the sick ministered to, but they also minister to us by their witness of faithfulness to Christ and hope, even in the midst of their suffering.

If you know someone who might like to receive anointing, please invite them to come with you to the regularly scheduled 8:30am Mass on June 7th and assure them of our prayers.

If you have questions, please contact Marianne Dilsner, Pastoral Associate, at 224-345-7203 or email mdilsner@stjamesah.org

St. James Sunday School

REGISTRATION for 2014/2015: April 1 - June 30, 2014
St. James Sunday School introduces 3-6 year-olds to our Catholic faith through Bible stories, prayers, songs, and crafts. If your child attends Preschool or Kindergarten, this is a great way to continue the learning process. Classes meet during the 10:00 am Mass from September through April. Children must be potty-trained and 3-years-old by 9/1/14 to register.

Register online on St. James website. www.stjamesah.org

This program is also a great opportunity for those who enjoy being with children and sharing their faith. We need volunteers to keep the program running! You can volunteer even without a child in the program. Volunteer information is also on the website. High school age parishioners are also welcome!
Strong Catholic Parents Initiate Faith Conversations

As mentioned in last week’s bulletin, an element of faith building that Strong Catholic Parents draw on is regular faith conversations at home. Here are some examples of faith conversation topics, many of which you may already regularly initiate in your home, and others that just might inspire new dialogue!

- Read to your child daily and talk about how the characters in the story make good or bad decisions and connect that with our Catholic faith.
- While on vacation look up a local Catholic Church so you can attend Mass in a different place while traveling and talk about how it is the same or different from the Mass at your home parish.
- Talk freely about the presence of God in the joys and sorrows of your life.
- When there are times of difficulty in the family tell others that you are praying for them and ask your children to join you.
- Use current event stories on the news or in the paper to explain how a person of Catholic faith might act similarly or differently.
- Participate in the lay ministries and activities of our parish community. Be active and engaged in your faith.
- Put the baptismal certificate in a pretty frame so you will have it forever and talk about your child’s Baptism each year on the anniversary.
- Display religious art and a crucifix in a prominent place in the home and talk about it with children.
- Demonstrate love for your spouse, your children, your neighbors, and the world, reminding children that they are loved by God.
- When a child demonstrates a skill or talent, talk about how they have been given gifts to serve others – point out how the priests, teachers, ushers, cantors, and lectors at Mass use their gifts.
- Eat dinner together as a family as often as possible and invite children to ask questions about Catholic traditions, if Pope Francis came to dinner, what would you ask him?” If no one knows the answer this provides a great opportunity to search through Catholic websites.

Exodus Trekkers

Interviews with Our St. James Parishioners Begin June 1st

Here’s an opportunity to know—and perhaps better understand—the man or woman you see or sit next to at Mass. Beginning June 1, you’ll have another opportunity to read one of the 17 EXODUS TREKKERS in-depth interviews you might have missed during the past 31/2 years on the St. James website.

Exodus Trekkers are about people whose life journey is not altogether unlike that of the ancient Hebrews who, by God’s Grace, trekked 40 years across a desert; they fled the bondage of a cruel ruler and risked all for the freedom that lay beyond the River Jordan. Though these ancient Hebrews often stumbled along the way and wandered onto trails leading nowhere, they were guided—frequently inexplicably—by our Lord. All learned—many the hard way—the saving truth of Jesus’ words (2Corinthians 12:9): My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.

Beginning with our Fr. Gilbert, a different Trekker interview will run each week during the summer months.

...To read these interviews, go to your computer’s address bar and type “http://exodustrekkers.blogspot.com/” or go to our parish website at “stjamesah.org” and type Exodus Trekkers” in the “search” window. Clicking on that will take you to “Blogs. Scroll down to “Launch Exodus Trekkers and click again.

Human trafficking is a horrific crime against the fundamental rights and dignity of the human person. The United Nations Protocol on Human Trafficking defines it as “the recruitment, transportation, harboring or receipt of persons by means of force, fraud or coercion.” Every country in the world is affected by trafficking. The United States is no exception, serving as a source, transit and destination country for men, women and children - both U.S. citizens and foreign nationals.

The Church’s vehement opposition to human trafficking is rooted in principles of Catholic social teaching, central to which is the sacredness and dignity of human life, and in the Catechism of the Catholic Church which “forbids acts or enterprises that, for any reason, lead to the enslavement of human beings – to their being bought, sold, and exchanged like merchandise, in disregard for their personal dignity.”

For over a decade the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has been a leader in the U.S. and global response to human trafficking, and has even established an Anti-Trafficking Program within the Migration and Refugee Services Department to coordinate the response of the U.S. Church. Be Part of the Solution. Learn more about the Church's Response to Human Trafficking. Go to www.usccb.org/about/anti-trafficking-program.

Weekly Intentions

Rose for Life
This week’s Rose for Life is donated by Rae Vincent
In loving memory of her mother, Ann Guarraci.

Manna at St. James!
There are LOTS of reasons to buy a Manna Card - from special occasions to weekly gas and groceries!
Gift Certificates are available for purchase at the parish office Monday thru Friday 9am-3pm
Don’t see your favorite store on the order form? - check out mannagroup.net for LOTS more vendors and just write in your order!
St. James gets a profit of each sale which helps pay down the building debt!

Would you like to be a Manna Volunteer? Call Debbie Bolash 224-345-7212 for more information.
Thank you for your support!
