The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

As often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:26
May 29, 2016

“It is good to have an end to the journey, but it is the journey that matters in the end”.
(anonymous)

Dear Family of St. James,

It has been a great privilege and honor for me to be part of this community. To say GOODBYE is never easy but change is inevitable and we learn to move on. I am thankful for the many experiences that you have shared with me. As I look forward to meeting new families and a new community to minister to, I wish you all FAREWELL. We heard this rhythm of moving from community to community a lot in the Acts of the Apostles during the Easter season readings. I sincerely acknowledge and appreciate the profound love you have shown me. Being with you and serving you has enriched my priestly ministry. You have touched my heart in a loving way and filled me with rich blessings. You will never be forgotten. A big THANK YOU to all.

There are many experiences and stories to tell forever to describe my seven wonderful years of stay here. Celebrating the sacraments and being part of the families and children have been the highlight of my life. In fact when I first came I was not sure if I could do my job well. Somehow God’s grace has guided me all through the years so I can love and serve you all. I give great credit to my parents especially to my mom who taught me two things: How to live and how to love, and in the process she inspired me with her faith and determination. I am really lost to put into words my life here at St. James. One thing is for sure, I will never forget my life here with all of you.

I will be moving on from St. James June 30th and start my ministry at St. Anne in Barrington, IL (11.6 MILES 19 MIN). Please keep me in your prayers as I do the same for each and every one of you. You are always welcome to visit.

Please do come to my Farewell/Thank you Mass on Sunday, June 26th 11:30 am and to the reception following the mass. I will be going home to see my Mom for two weeks and will be back at St. Anne’s on July 16th.

My new address: Fr.Joji Thanugundla, 120 N.Ela Street, Barrington, IL 60010. Phone: (847)382-5300 Email: balajoji68@gmail.com Heart to heart though miles apart my love for St. James will never depart.

With Love and Gratitude,

Fr. Joji Thanugundla.

(A podcast of this week’s reflection is available on the St. James website and mobile website.)

Mass of Inclusion

Sunday, June 12th, 11:30am Mass in the Parish Center

Individuals with special needs and their families are invited to attend this Mass.
Spiritual Life at Saint James School

Prayer
Prayer and weekly liturgy are integral and purposeful parts of the Saint James School experience. Students from a designated grade prepare and lead all-school Masses. Daily religion classes teach the tenets and social teachings of the Catholic church. Discussions of God and faith are present in EVERY subject and pervade class discussions, projects, and events. Prayer buddies unite younger and older students at school activities. Students are fully prepared for the sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. Students participate in Catholic traditions such as Rosary, Stations of the Cross, Eucharistic Adoration, May Crowning, and Reconciliation. Grades 6-8 are invited to attend weekly Bible study before school; a wonderful start to their day!

Service
Service is an essential dimension of the mission of our school. We work to instill a lifelong desire and commitment to helping others. All of our students participate in community service projects and the upper grade levels have required service hours each year. Through direct service and reflection, students respond compassionately to the needs of the community and realize the importance of their roles in a global society.

Retreats
Retreats are a crucial part of faith formation. Students reflect on components of grade level curricula and deepen their sense of spirituality, faith, and relationships with their fellow classmates.
Please pray for those participating in

Mary Brick, Camille Carso, Daniel Sarah Ferko, Abby Fleig, Hannah Patrick Hickey, Erin Hogaboom, Samantha Kupitz, Patrick Lafka, McMahon, Mike Munao, Rachel Erin Radermacher, Henry Rose, Smolinske, Eric Solberg, Matthew Eustice, Sr. Faustina Ferko, Mashurano, Steven Patzke,

St. Vincent de Paul/GCFD Produce Distribution

Volunteers are needed to help the St. James Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul distribute fresh fruits and vegetables supplied by the Greater Chicago Food Depository on Thursday, June 9th. This distribution will be held in the St. Edna parking lot at 2525 N. Arlington Heights Rd.

Attention Parishioners

On the morning of Thursday, June 9th, we need about 40 VOLUNTEERS to help the St. James SVDP distribute about 12,500 pounds of free fresh fruit and vegetables to the needy. We can use anyone’s help – teens, young adults, adults, and seniors.

We will meet at St. Edna’s parking lot at 8:30 a.m. The distribution is from 9:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. We will help unload the truck, repackage the produce, and assist those who attend to select their produce. Everything, including clean up, will be done by noon.

We also need 2 people with pickup trucks to pick up 15 – 20 grocery carts from the Jewel on Rand Road and to return them when we are done. We could also use a volunteer to help the driver load and unload the carts.

To volunteer, please call Marybeth or Mike at (847) 392-5506, or email them at mschoney@wowway.com

Food for Families

Free fresh fruit

and vegetables

The Greater Chicago Food Depository Producemobile will be in the Northwest Suburbs to distribute FREE fresh fruits and vegetables.

The distribution will be held in ST. EDNA’s parking lot and will be coordinated by the St. James Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

Thursday, June 9th
9:30 – 11:30 a.m.

Please note that the date may change due to emergencies and the ending time may vary based on food allocations

Exodus Trekkers

Most Call This Priest 'Joe' and Love Him for His 50 Years of Loving the 'Least of Them.'

He's not your typical priest (if there is one). He lives in his own home in the beautiful countryside of southern Pennsylvania, and his two-page, single spaced resume reflects a non-stop life of caring for those whom Jesus called "the least of them."

For the past 38 years the Rev. Dr. Joseph C. Carolin ("Joe" to most) has been chaplain and counselor at the South Mountain Restoration Center. It is not an assignment that appears in the wish-filled dreams of most priests, deacons, nuns, nurses and other medical staff. There Fr. Joe hugs brain-damaged and other severely disabled victims, counsels very old, penniless people without friends or family, and says Mass for those with terminal dementia and who can not communicate anything to Fr. Joe, including their pain.

When asked where the fortitude comes from which keeps Fr. Joe going, a close friend and colleague replied: "I think he has an unusual feeling for the common man. He doesn't come across as theological. He doesn't give you a sermon when he talks to you. He adjusts to the person. He always seems like a friend—to anyone, whether educated or not. His great gift is to implement his deep religious philosophy with common people."

To read much more about this priest and catch the flavor of his recent 50th anniversary as a priest held in a small country church jammed with 170 people, read the Exodus Trekker interview of Joey conducted by the St. James parish member who attended it. It appears May 29 in the St. James website, along with many other interviews which have appeared during the past several years.

St. James Parish Ambassadors... Welcoming new parishioners to His Supper and His Service!

Archbishop Cupich to preside at Anniversary Mass in Palatine
Chicago Catholic Archbishop Blase Cupich will preside at the 40th Anniversary Mass of the Sisters of the Living Word (SLW) at 2 p.m. on Sat., June 25 at St. Thomas of Villanova Church, 1201 E. Anderson Dr., Palatine. Reservations are requested (www.slw.org) to attend the free reception.

The Archbishop will celebrate this milestone event with SLW, a trailblazing Arlington Heights-headquartered community of women religious. The community formed in 1975 after Vatican II. In response to contemporary issues, 90 nuns decided to leave their order and form a new order centered on leadership from within.

"Back then, we ranged in age from 20 to 63," said Sharon Glumb, SLW, one of three current leaders of the community. "We knew that we wanted to serve God in a 20th century way. We wanted to serve the needs of the day."

As 21st century sisters, the women - many of whom were teachers – will celebrate their four decades of service to the poor, the homeless, and the voiceless. The sisters focus on social justice issues such as aiding detained immigrants, supporting anti-human trafficking efforts, helping homeless families, and preserving the planet.

"We're active in schools, churches, and social service agencies in the Midwest and South," said Glumb. "We help special needs children. We teach computer classes at libraries. We help at PADS and Catholic Charities. Our mission takes us to places of need. We invite everyone to join us as we celebrate our 40th anniversary."

FED BY THE LORD
Jesus' words "This is my body" and "This cup is the new covenant in my blood" were only part of his table blessing. Jesus twice said: "Do this in remembrance of me" (1 Corinthians 11:24, 25).

This is the good news of today's solemnity. Like the five thousand hungry souls, we are fed by our Lord. This is not food that satisfies for only a short time, until the next meal. It is food that lasts and changes us. It is food for sharing in much the same way as Melchizedek did when he brought bread and wine to the returning Abraham.

As children of God's reign, we are blessed to be able to receive and share God's gift. And we do so in the way most appropriate to our state in life— as parents, children, husbands, wives, or religious.

Congratulations to the Sisters of the Living Word, from St. James Parish!

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

The power of a single voice

The feast of Corpus Christi is popular and moving because it is simple and direct—it's all about the Eucharist, one of the greatest treasures of Catholicism. Yet the feast would not exist were it not for the efforts of Juliana of Liège, a Norbertine canoness born in 1191 in Liège, Belgium, a city where there were groups of women dedicated to eucharistic worship. She had a vision of a full moon with one dark spot signifying the lack of a feast day solely dedicated to the Eucharist. She shared her vision and eventually vision became reality. What gift can you envision giving to your community?

Monday, May 30

Heal the wounds of war

On this Memorial Day, as you remember those who gave their lives serving their country, also keep in your heart those who have lost loved ones, those struggling with physical and emotional wounds, and all other victims of war. Pray and work for the reconciliation of divided peoples and for peace in your community and around the world. The United States bishops urge all to pray on this day: “Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.”

Today’s readings: 2 Peter 1:1-2-7; Mark 12:1-12 (353). “May grace and peace be yours in abundance through knowledge of God and of our Lord.”

Tuesday, May 31

Feast of the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Look who’s here!

A friend comes to visit. Just the thought can redeem the darkest day! Whether we’re confined by illness, grieving a loss, in need of practical assistance, or just pleasantly surprised by a familiar face at the door, the time of visitation is a bright hour of consolation. The encounter between Mary and Elizabeth was more than the welcome arrival of help for an aged mother’s third trimester. God’s saving power intersected these two lives and gave them to each other, to share the joy. Bring good news to someone today.

Today’s readings: Zephaniah 3:14-18a or Romans 12:9-16; Luke 1:39-56 (522). “Mary set out... in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.”

Wednesday, June 1

Feast of Justin, martyr

What’s the good Word?

Christian theology owes a debt to the pre-Christian philosophies of Plato and Aristotle. Early church theologian Justin was able to see connections between the great philosophers of Greek antiquity and the wisdom revealed by Jesus. The prologue of John’s Gospel speaks of Jesus as “Logos,” the preexisting Word. Justin believed that the “seeds of Christianity” found in thinkers such as Plato or Aristotle were evidence of the Logos acting in history before Christ’s incarnation. Whether or not Plato and Aristotle were “unknowing Christians,” we are knowing Christians. Spend some time with the Word today.

Today’s readings: 2 Timothy 1:1-3, 6-12; Mark 12:18-27 (355). “Are you not misled because you do not know the scriptures or the power of God?”

Thursday, June 2

Feast of Marcellinus and Peter, martyrs

Exercise with caution

We don’t know a lot about Marcellinus and Peter, martyred in 304, but we know Peter was an exorcist, an often misunderstood or over-dramatized office of church ministry. The rite itself was revised in 1999 for the first time since 1614, and modern practice counsels priests empowered to perform an exorcism to first make sure they are dealing with genuine possession rather than mental illness. The Code of Canon Law states that the bishop is to give permission to perform the rite to a priest “who has piety, knowledge, prudence, and integrity of life.” We rely on Jesus to protect us from the power of evil, and the church stands by our side should we need assistance in doing so.

Today’s readings: 2 Timothy 2:8-15; Mark 12:28-34 (356). “You are not far from the kingdom of God.”

Friday, June 3

Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

Have a heart that never stops

To do something “without heart” means to live without passion or purpose. “In the Heart of Christ,” Saint John Paul II wrote, a person’s heart “learns to know the genuine and unique meaning” of life and destiny: “to unite the filial love for God and the love of neighbor.” The Sacred Heart reminds us that Jesus had a heart just like ours; that his acts of love aren't beyond us, but are already in us, in every loving gesture, relationship, and experience. This is the heart of what gives us life—a heart whose love never stops beating in us.

Today’s readings: Ezekiel 34:11-16; Romans 5:5b-11; Luke 15:3-7 (172). “The love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.”

Saturday, June 4

Memorial of the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary

See with a mother’s heart

“In a unique way the face of the Son belongs to Mary.” Saint John Paul II wrote in Amauris Virginum Marian (“The Rosary of the Virgin Mary”). Jesus was the child she gazed upon in the manger, the one she pondered in her heart throughout her life. Her heart was filled with a love for him that embraced the pain of the Passion and the joy of the Resurrection. Such love, held in her Immaculate Heart, is an example to us all of a love that gives life, that’s meant to be cherished, adored, and that ultimately longs to lead us back to her Son over and over again.

Today’s readings: 2 Timothy 4:1-8 (358); Luke 2:41-51 (523). “And his mother kept all these things in her heart.”

Grief Support Group
The St. James Grief Support Group meets on every Tuesday (during session times) from 7pm-8:15pm in Conference Room 1 at the Parish Office. The group offers support through sharing, listening, and learning from each other’s story of grief and loss. You do not need to commit to all of the sessions, but may attend as many as you find helpful. The next session will run from June 14th until July 19th. For information, call MaryJo at 224-345-7200, ext. 8512 and leave a message.

From the Office of the Archbishop....

Dear Fr. Foley,

This letter comes with my thanks and hearty congratulations to you, your parish staff and the entire St. James—Arlington Heights community for raising pledges exceeding your 2016 Annual Catholic Appeal parish goal of $135,024.18. You have my deep appreciation and respect, and I wish you continued success.

Please convey to your community my admiration for their willingness to sacrifice in a way that benefits others and transforms the world through Christ’s loving presence.

Please let the people of St. James know that I am looking forward to continuing this important work with them, and will remember them in prayer at the Lord’s Table.

- Archbishop Blase J. Cupich
