THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

O God, you are my God whom I seek;
for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water.

Psalm 63:2
November 12, 2017

Dear friends in Christ,

It seems unreal to me that I've now been a missionary at St. James for three full months. My time here has been blessed in so many ways. Our priests have been so kind and welcoming, as have the parish staff and parishioners here. I am so joyful to be working with my teammate, Matt Marcheschi, to further the mission of the Church at this parish.

When I was asked to write this week's reflection in the bulletin, I wanted to write a bit about our gospel reading this Sunday. I’ve always found it to be confusing, actually, and decided to take the opportunity to look into it and read commentaries of Church Father's to decipher what this parable means and how it applies to our daily life.

Our gospel today is the parable of the five wise virgins and the five foolish virgins. To glean it’s meaning, I’ve read excerpts of commentaries and gospels written by Origen, St. Augustine, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Gregory. The ten virgins represent all of humanity meeting Christ, the Bridegroom, who is "long delayed" to the marriage. Our Church, in her wisdom, linked this gospel passage to the Old Testament reading from the book of Wisdom, describing what wisdom is and how it looks - even noting that we ought to "keep vigil" for wisdom, as the wise virgins kept vigil for the bridegroom. This state of constantly waiting for his appearance is one that can cause anxiety. Our lives on this earth are not easy, and often we long for the day when we will meet the Lord face to face, although he is long delayed. The wise among us make preparations to live out the long, seemingly endless wait. The have sustenance with them - oil to keep their fires burning. We, too, need to fortify ourselves with prayer and good works in order to be prepared when the bridegroom comes, vigorously guarding these practices from a world that seeks to distract us and rob us of our energy.

I think it is especially beautiful that this parable shows to us what all of humanity is waiting in eager expectation for. Christ has asked us to wait for him that He may be our Bridegroom at His coming. He has invited us to the marriage supper of the Lamb. This heavenly banquet occurs outside of time, in perpetuity. The Mass is a participation of this banquet, and we are invited to attend the wedding and meet the Bridegroom at every Mass. Therefore, we must develop a taste for the Mass and learn to love it - it’s important to remember that we are seeing a foretaste of Heaven dimly, as through a veil (1 Cor 13:12).

Please know that you are all constantly in my prayers. If you see me, please say hi - I am eager to meet all of our parishioners!

God bless,

Erin Corbett

Youth Ministry PADS Brunch

Each year the St. James hosts a breakfast/brunch for the PAD’S guests on Thanksgiving Day. This event is set up to not only to provide a meal, but also a “holiday” like setting in which the guests can interact with member of the St. James community. All PADS guests are invited to arrive at 7 a.m. and stay until 11 a.m. We need parishioners to donate food and supplies for this Thanksgiving event. The following is a sample of food/supply items needed:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Egg Dishes/Casseroles</th>
<th>Coffee Cakes</th>
<th>Desserts</th>

For a complete list of food, supplies and quantities, as well as volunteer opportunities, please go to our Sign up genius at: http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0549ae82ca1ff2-thanksgiving or the St. James website at www.stjamesah.org

We are also in need of magazines and interesting reading material for our guests.

This day provides a wonderful opportunity to participate as a volunteer. There are three shifts: 6:30 – 8:30, 8:30 – 10:30, and 10:30 – 11:30 on Thanksgiving morning. If you are not able to sign up for a specific shift, we need volunteers to just show up and interact with the PADS guests by playing games or engaging in conversation.

Note: All food must be fully cooked, ready to serve, and brought to the Old School Basement (east side of Arlington Height Rd, south end of parking lot) by 6:45 a.m. on Thanksgiving morning.

You may contact Nancy Moroney at njmoroney@gmail.com with any questions you may have or to sign up for food as well as volunteering.

In past years the St. James Community has been “over-the top” generous with donating food for this event...so generous that we have had to bring a sizable amount of left overs to other places. Once again this year we are requesting that you sign up for specific foods and quantities.

CHASE THE CHILL!

Let’s make this picture a reality for our PADS guests next weekend!

If you haven’t already created a scarf, it’s not too late.
All scarves 4-6 inches wide and 50-60 inches long are most welcome and appreciated.
Don’t forget to bring your warm winter scarves to tie around the tree in front of the Church on November 18th and 19th!

Thank you!

St. James Peace & Justice

Introducing Viator & Bethany Houses of Hospitality
~ Volunteer Opportunities ~

When a stranger sojourns with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong. You shall treat the stranger who sojourns with you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God (Leviticus 19:34)

Viator and Bethany Houses of Hospitality were recently established as residential homes in the Chicagoland suburbs for young adults as they await asylum hearings or a determination of immigration status. When undocumented children turn 18 years old, they are no longer able to remain in juvenile detention facilities. If they have no family with which to live in the U.S., they are transferred to adult detention facilities, which, in the Chicago area, are collar county jails where they might wait for months or more until their hearings.

Viator House (for young men) and Bethany House (for young women) provide supportive environments where 10-20 young people can attend school, grow spiritually and emotionally, receive medical attention, even work while they await court proceedings that determine whether they can become U.S. citizens and for a period after such proceedings as they begin to build a life here.

Last year, a young man from Viator House courageously shared his story at St. James as part of an immigration presentation given by Fr. Corey Brost. Since then, St. James Peace & Justice ministry has partnered to provide toiletry items and homemade baked goods to Viator House.

Both Viator House and Bethany House are in need of volunteers. Volunteers tutor, provide rides and help in many other ways that help the young men and women. If you are interested in assisting, please contact Fr. Corey Brost at brostcsev@gmail.com for Viator House or Sr. Patricia Crowley OSB at pcrowley@osbcchicago.org for Bethany House.

Psalm Response

Sung Psalm Refrain:

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father al-might-y, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(at words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

At the end of today's Gospel, the groom answers the pleas of the foolish virgins not with a question, "Why weren't you ready?" but with the statement, "I don't know you" (Mt 25:12). Now that sounds kind of odd, if the bridegroom represents the LORD, because God knows everything and everybody. But here in Matthew's Gospel, this phrase seems to imply that "because you made no effort to know me, I don't know you."

So what am I doing to get to know Jesus? One way to know someone is to act like them. Actors who portray a real person try to watch videos of that person to see how they talk, walk, relate to people, etc. We can act like Jesus by following his example of care for the poor and the sick, forgiving people who have done wrong, feeding the hungry, and giving God the credit for what we do.

Another way to get to know someone is to talk to them. The more we pray, the more we get close to Jesus. We can act like Jesus by following his example of care for the poor and the sick, forgiving people who have done wrong, feeding the hungry, and giving God the credit for what we do.

For over 47 years, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development has been supporting low-income communities as they address root causes of poverty through community organizing and economic development. CCHD works to break the cycle of poverty by providing grants, educating about the root causes of poverty and building bridges of solidarity in Cook and Lake Counties. We thank you for your generous donations to our parish weekly collection.
