November 2, 2014
November 2, 2014

As the season shifts from a blaze of color to the muted palette of winter anticipated, I find myself desiring to wrap in a fuzzy fleece blanket and nestle into my comfy spot on the couch. My mind wanders, wistful, pondering the moments and people whom have been part of my life. I am grateful for the unfolding of nature in our Midwest climes, transitions so gracefully reflected in the movement of our liturgical seasons and celebrations. The liturgical cycle invites us to enter more deeply into the seasons of our own lives. Today we celebrate the Feast of All Souls. We remember and pray for those whom have died. In fact, the Church devotes the entirety of the month of November to this “commemoration of all the faithful departed” (Lectionary for Masses). For this reason you see the crosses of remembrance in the gathering space as well as photographs of our cherished loved ones displayed in the Church.

My father did not share much about his family faith traditions as a boy, but I do recall him sharing with me how my grandmother marked all Soul’s Day. She would place a simple bowl of water on their kitchen table. Within the bowl, she floated and lit one candle for each of the family members that had died, leaving the flames lit as the family moved through their evening. Each pass by the table, each glimpse of a flicker of light a gentle reminder of a past shared, of lives entwined. This simple ritual also speaks to me of something fragile yet hopeful. A slight tilt or tipping of the floating candle and the flame is extinguished. Such a symbol provokes in us something deep, a longing for something more.

What is this “something more”? As Catholics, we are shaped not only by the memory of what has been shared, but by our hope in what is to come. As declared in 1 Pt 3:15, “Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you a reason for your hope.” We have hope because we are a people of the resurrection.

My wonderful father-in-law, John, passed away October 15. He had late stage cancer, dearly missed his late wife, and was suffering the effects of dementia. Some mornings he would wake up and cry because he was still alive. But every single day, his sons did what John taught them to do: be family. They cradled John in love, one spending time with him in the morning, one mid-day, and one in the evening. My husband, the only out-of-town son, travelled frequently to Minnesota to be with him as well. When John died, we lost his physical presence, but we did not lose him. Our ties with those who go before us are not severed with their death.

This is why we pray for the souls of the departed. The call to pray for them goes back to 2 Macc 12:46 where Judas Maccabeus calls for prayers and sacrifices to be made on behalf of the dead that “they might be freed from sin.” As stated in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, “From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God” (CCC 1032). We are, each one of us, part of a community of faith. Christianity is not a private affair but a communal reality based on our relationship and responsibility to one another to live and love as Christ did.

So let’s remember. Let’s hold close those whom we have loved and lost. Let’s pray for those we have not known who have gone before us. And let us always be ready to give anyone who asks us a reason for our hope!

Blessings and Peace,
JoAnne

Ministry of Praise
The Ministry of Praise is a spiritual ministry in which members offer their prayers to God to help others in need. This ministry was developed for the sick and homebound so they may experience a closer relationship with the parish. There are no dues or meetings. If you or a loved one is interested in participating in this ministry, please contact Marilyn Neuman at 224-345-7200 or MinistryofPraise@stjamesah.org

Confession/Mass changes in upcoming weeks
On the weekends of NOVEMBER 8/9, and NOVEMBER 15/16, there will be a change in Saturday evening Mass and Confession schedules, due to Jubilation and the Christmas Bazaar. Please note the following:

On November 8th:
Confessions will be heard from 3:30-4:30pm in the CHURCH. The 5:00pm Saturday Mass will be celebrated in the CHURCH.

On November 15th:
Confessions will be heard from 3:30-4:30pm in the CHURCH. The 5:00pm Saturday Mass will be celebrated in the CHURCH.

Veteran’s Day Mass
On Veteran’s Day, Tuesday, November 11th, we will honor our veterans at the 7:30am Mass in the Church. Fr. Matt Foley, our Pastor, will preside. All are invited to join our parish community in honoring both those who have served and those currently serving in the armed forces. We will especially remember family members who were killed in action serving in the military. Please contact Fr. Matt at the Parish Office so that we may remember those killed in action specifically at the Mass on Veteran’s Day. Members of our parish who are veterans will serve at this Mass.

Prayers for Military Members: If there are any family members from St. James who are currently deployed, please contact Fr. Matt at 224-345-7222 or frmatt@stjamesah.org so he can send them a letter.

Sunday Baptism Time Change
Effective January 1, 2015, Sunday Baptisms will take place at 12:00 Noon in the Church.

Welcome To All St. James Visitors!
If you would like to register at St. James Parish or know more about the parish, fill in this form and place it in the collection basket. A St. James Ambassador will contact you.

St. James Chapel

Additional chairs with kneelers were recently purchased for our Parish Center Chapel.

There are many religious activities taking place in the Chapel, including teaching Masses, Reconciliation, Adoration for our Day School, RE, and Youth Ministry programs, and extra seating was needed and requested.

Our Mission Statement

The St. James family is a welcoming Catholic community sent forth from our celebration of the Eucharist to walk in faith, live in hope, and act in love.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are committed to justice and peace through Prayer, Education, Evangelization, and Stewardship.

Making Beautiful Music!

On Sunday, October 19th, the St. Viator High School Music Ministry teens joined our St. James Teen Ensemble for the 5pm Mass in the Church. The group was led by Mrs. Mary McDermott and Mrs. Kristina Sandrock. After Mass, pizza was enjoyed by all!

We were also joined on that weekend by Fr. Corey Brost, C.S.V, from St. Viator, who celebrated the 5:00pm Sunday Mass. “Children of Abraham” members from local communities were also present at the Mass, and joined the Children of Abraham Coalition and St. James Peace and Justice members afterward for a dialogue about the Islamic, Christian, and Jewish traditions.
Resources for Those Who Care and Those in Need

Do you feel that someone you know may be in an unsafe relationship? By educating yourself, you can begin helping someone you care about. Knowing about national and local resources may help you feel less helpless and more empowered. Here are some ways to learn more about domestic violence – for your benefit and hers*

BOOKS:
- Helping Her Get Free – A Guide for Families and Friends of Abused Women by Susan Brewster, MSSW
- Family and Friends’ Guide to Domestic Violence – How to Listen, Talk and Take Action When Someone You Care About is Being Abused by Elaine Weiss, Ed D
- A Guide for Family and Friends of Someone Living in Domestic Violence by Susan Hamlin

NATIONAL HOTLINE/WEBSITE:
- The National Domestic Violence Hotline at 800/799-7233 or www.thelotline.org. The Hotline provides 24-hour support and crisis intervention to victims and survivors of DV through safety planning, advocacy, resources, and a supportive ear. Their website also offers an online CHAT, available 24/7.
- loveisrespect at www.loveisrespect.org offers live chat 24/7 from their website or via text. Or you can call 866/331-9474. This site, designed with young people in mind, provides support and fosters healthy dating attitudes and relationships.

SMART PHONE APPS:
- One Love: This danger assessment app is designed to aid people who are questioning whether their relationship, or a friend or family member’s, may be unsafe. Due to the sensitive nature of the information, the app disables itself after one use but can be downloaded again and again.
- Aspires News: a free app that contains summaries of top stories in world, sports, and entertainment news. Additionally, if someone you know is in an abusive relationship—or if that someone is you—the Help Section of the application contains resources for victims of domestic violence.

LOCAL HOTLINES/RESOURCES:
- Between Friends (Rolling Meadows): 800/603-HELP provides counseling for victims and their children, court advocacy, and prevention and education efforts, including healthcare education and an extensive teen dating violence prevention program, REACH (Relationship Education: A Choice for Hope).
- WINGS 24-Hour Hotline: 847/221-5680 WINGS offers emergency shelter, transitional housing, counseling and support groups, and children’s counseling
- Life Span (Des Plaines): 847/824-0382 provides legal services, advocacy, and counseling services to victims of domestic violence. Domestic violence attorneys represent clients within the Cook County area.

*Although we acknowledge that both men and women can be victims, for purposes of this article we refer to abusers in the masculine and victims in the feminine tense.

Stepping Stones has featured four articles targeted to the other “victims” of domestic abuse – family and friends. To see all articles, see our page on the St. James website. Thank you.

Catholic Social Teaching

Putting Faith into Action

In order for the vision of life put forth by Catholic social teaching to be realized at all in society, each member of the human community must be active members of the social, political, and economic spheres within which we live and work. We each face a challenge, though—what exactly am I called to do? This presentation will explain the elements of CST that put forth the call to participation of each person and then we will discuss how each person can discern how to concretely embody the foundational concepts of CST in our daily lives at home, at work, in the marketplace, and in the many communities we inhabit.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 3—Elizabeth Collier, Professor of Business Ethics at Dominican University and Co-Director of the Center for Global Peace through Commerce.

The Roman Catholic Funeral Service - Components of the Service

The Visitation—The Funeral Liturgy—the Committal Service (Archdiocese of Chicago, IL)

The Vigil (or visitation) for the deceased is the first way the Church captures the sentiments of those who are grieving and sets them in the context of our faith. A prayer service with selected readings, a homily that provides hope and comfort, and intercessions that speak to the faith of those gathered around the deceased, and prayers selected from the Order for Christian Funerals can help prepare for the funeral liturgy. The Rosary may also be a part of the Vigil.

The Funeral Liturgy (usually Mass)

Celebrating the funeral liturgy at Mass in Church is the normal way in which most Catholics experience the Order of Christian Funerals. The Eucharist is the central point of a Catholic funeral, as it looks forward to our participation in the heavenly banquet, where we are united with Jesus, the saints, and all who share eternal life. The family may also participate by clothing the casket with the pall, selecting the Scripture readings, serving as ushers or extraordinary ministers, singing the hymns and responses, and by receiving Holy Communion. The funeral homily is delivered by a priest or deacon. It speaks of the mystery of Christ’s death and resurrection, and gives the deeper meaning that is found in the experience of death and dying.

The Committal Service

The Rite of Committal is the final liturgy in the Order of Christian Funerals. It also makes use of Scripture, a few words of hope by the presider, intercessions, and prayers. A Catholic cemetery is a place of honor and respect for those who have died, and a sacred place where Catholics come to express their grief and hope for their loved ones. It is consecrated ground, fitting for someone whose body was a temple of the Holy Spirit on earth and awaits now the resurrection of the dead.

Cremation: The Church prefers to bury the body of the deceased in consecrated ground. However it is also allowed to have the body of the deceased cremated before it is buried, as long as there is no intentional denial of the Resurrection of the body. The burial or inurnment in a cemetery, mausoleum or columbarium should occur as soon as possible after the Funeral Mass, so that the cremated remains are not kept in the funeral home or family home. Out of respect for the body, the Church does not permit the cremated remains of the body to be scattered over water or some favorite place. Cremated remains are to be given the same respect as the body they were.
Tip-Off always provides an entertaining and supportive evening of performances by the Saint James School Pep Band, Poms, Cheer Squad, Girls 6th–8th Grade Volleyball Teams, and the Boys 6th–8th Grade Basketball Teams. The CoEd Soccer and Cross Country Teams were announced as well as the 5th grade girls’ volleyball and 5th grade boys’ basketball teams. It was truly a blessing watching these students display their God-given talents and gifts.

After an exciting game and tough loss to the faculty, the 8th Grade Girls Volleyball Team was shown a tremendous amount of compassion by the Varsity Cheerleaders, who stepped right up to congratulate their friends on a game well played. Feeling their disappointment, the cheer squad doled out plenty of hugs to lift their spirits.

There was an overall sense of respect during the 8th grade boys vs. coaches’ basketball game. Even if the coach’s team didn’t have as much speed or agility as the younger team, and the younger team didn’t have as much experience, height, or ball smarts as the older team, neither one took advantage of the other’s limitations! Good, clean fun was had by all and the boys were able to enjoy a recreational activity that can be sustained into adulthood.

Participation in the Saint James School athletic program is simply another avenue where students can further develop into better athletes and better people. Tip-Off was the perfect place for the Saint James athletes to develop their character, honor the games and each other, and respect their teammates, opponents, and the rules of the game.

Blessings of the Animals

Nearly 40 of our parishioners brought their pets Oct. 5 to be blessed by Fr. Bill Zavaski in the parish center parking lot. He was aided by Fr. Gilbert, who dispensed dog treats to each blessed pet in honor of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. Holy Water was sprinkled on each animal by a St. James student.

The Prayer of the Blessing

O God,
You have done all things wisely;
In Your goodness you have made us in your image and given us care over other living things.
Reach out with your right hand and grant that these animals may serve our needs and that your bounty in the resources of this life may move us to seek more confidently the goal of eternal life.
We ask this through Christ Our Lord, Amen

EXODUS TREKKERS

Raised Muslim, Now a Christian Missionary in Lebanon, He Talks Here about the Middle East

Note: To read this and many other inspiring, candid interviews with St. James members, go to your computer’s address bar and type "http://exodustrekkers.blogspot.com/". This interview will be posted Nov. 2 for the entire month.

Mohammad Y. – he asked that his last name be withheld—and your Exodus Trekker reporter met recently to talk about the real threat of radical Islamists, how Islamic government leaders manipulate the Koran to remain in power, and the volatility of his life in Lebanon as a Christian missionary raised as a Muslim. His “insider” comments went deeper into the truth than read in our daily newspapers.

Added to this interview was additional research that included Middle East data from various publications, an brief interview with the communications director of the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, and comments from two pastors, one of them of a nearby Christian church with a congregation of former Muslims from various Middle East countries.

Our Charity

We are grateful for your generous donations to our Charity during the month of November—the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, the official domestic anti-poverty agency of the Catholic Bishops of the United States. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development funds programs in our community and across the country that assist the poor and marginalized. CCHD also offers awareness programs to learn more about poverty and our responsibilities as members of the Church. Please visit www.povertyusa.org We thank you for your support of the poor through the Catholic Campaign for Human Development.

How Are We Praying?

Your Liturgy Board is interested in hearing about your experience of prayer and worship at St. James. We welcome your evaluation of Mass in the Church and Parish Center and your ideas about things we are doing well or ways we can improve our experience of praying together.

E-mail us at: stjamesliturgyboard@yahoo.com
MANNA at St. James

1) Submit Order Form to MANNA Rep at table or place in the collection basket.
2) Make checks payable to "Manna @ St. James."
3) Orders received Sunday will be ready the following week before and after Masses (except Sun. 5pm)
4) Manna order envelopes (yellow border) are also available in your monthly envelope packet.
