Our Lord Jesus Christ,
The King of the Universe

I WASH HUNGRY AND YOU GAVE ME FOOD,
I WASH THIRSTY AND YOU GAVE ME DRINK,
A STRANGER AND YOU WELcomed ME,
NAKED AND YOU CLOTHED ME,
ILL AND YOU CARED FOR ME,
IN PRISON AND YOU VISITED ME.

MATTHEW 25:35-36
When a religious person calls another their “King,” it is most unnatural. Foreheads wrinkle and eyes grow smaller. It seems to only further the perception that religious people are weak; both of mind and heart.

Why do you need a king? You need someone ordering you around? Can’t you think for yourself?

In fact, there is nothing that goes more against our American sensibilities. Was not this country begun in revolution to a king?! Independence! Liberty! Land of the free! Home of the Brave!

But for religious people in America, we know that our humanity can suffer too much from wishes of total independence. From the beginning Adam and Eve sought so much independence, that they desired to be their own kings. They rebelled, hid from God, and more or less told Him, “leave me alone!” They suffered as a result. And so do we.

Thank God for Christ our King! When I call Christ “My King”, I put myself under His rule…so that He may command me to do things that sin prevents me from doing: caring for the hungry and thirsty, the sick and the stranger, the naked and the prisoner.

When I call Christ “My King,” I also ask Him to reign over every part of my being (my thoughts, my feelings, and every one of my desires- both my sensual and sexual appetites). Only then can I be truly free to love Him with my whole heart, mind, and soul.

O Jesus Christ, Lord of the Universe, King of the Nations, be the sole Ruler of my mind and my heart. Be the complete master of my will. Be my ruler and guide, The Lord of my life, the king of all love, all justice, all compassion, and all mercy. I know You will never let go of me. Help me to never let go of You. Amen.

May Christ the King reign in our hearts, Fr. Derek

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

On the Feast of Christ the King – this year on the weekend of November 25th and 26th – the cycle A readings will conclude along with the Gospel according to Matthew. The readings on the feast are a fitting end to the liturgical year of our anticipating and celebrating the birth of Jesus, and following him through his public life, death and resurrection. We have heard his words to his followers after his rising and on to his ascension. Then the apostles go forth to “teach all nations”. These final readings on this glorious feast affirm Jesus as King and Lord. He is our Shepherd, Savior and Sovereign through all time who will meet us at his Second Coming.

This end of one cycle and the celebration of Christ the King, moves us into the readings of cycle B and the gospel of Mark. We are once again thrown into the story of Jesus seen through the lens of yet another Gospel writer. Mark will once again lead us through the anticipation of Christ’s first coming in Bethlehem and through his life, death and resurrection bringing us once again, face-to-face, with Jesus as King.

In all instances, we are presented with a Jesus who comes into the world as a powerless infant whose life’s way is not the way of the powerful institutions of his day. He welcomes the marginalized, empowers the lowly, challenging the status quo. Each celebration of the Feast of Christ the King fleshes out what Jesus’ quiet yet firm example calls us to be. Let us begin, once again, to find Jesus in these readings from Mark.

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, will be celebrated on the weekend of November 25th and 26th. In observance of this Solemnity, we will be using incense at all of the Masses. The incense is hypoallergenic, with a decreased tendency to provoke an allergic reaction or coughing spell. The use of incense has a long history in our Catholic tradition and is a profound sign in worship of prayers ascending to heaven.
Celebrating Motherhood

Friday, January 12 ~ 7 p.m. ~ St. James Church
831 N. Arlington Heights Rd.

Join us for the fifth annual “Celebrating Motherhood” event!

This special mass and reception is an awesome night where we gather with other women in our community to give thanks to God and to celebrate being or knowing a mom!

Mass will be celebrated at 7 p.m. by Fr. Matt Foley in the St. James Church, followed by a reception with light refreshments and drinks downstairs in the Laramie Room.

All adult women are invited to come and celebrate knowing or being a mom!

Sponsored by the Moms Plus Ministry and Women's Club at St. James. If you have questions about the event, contact Sandra Chaplin at sandramchaplin@gmail.com.

The St. James Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) is a diverse visionary and advisory body of servant leaders, guided by the Holy Spirit to assist and serve the St. James parish family and pastor in achieving our parish mission.

PPC members serve a 3-year term and work on various commissions and committees - including Faith Formation, Spiritual Life, Human Concerns, Finance, and Deanery - to further the mission of St. James Parish.

The responsibilities of PPC members include: praying for our parish, assisting the pastor in realizing a vision for our parish, advising the pastor, serving as a conduit between parishioners and pastoral staff, evaluating and enhancing all aspects of parish life, understanding and advocating for all parish ministries and encouraging involvement by all parishioners, and planning and hosting the Easter Vigil reception.

As servant leaders, members of the PPC are called to be faith-filled, evangelizers, transparent visionaries, accountable stewards, in service to all, bold and courageous, and compassionate and humble.

Please feel free to reach out to any of us when you see us at Mass, around St. James, or in the community. Contact e-mails are listed each week on the back page of the bulletin above the Mass schedule.
Advent, 2017

As Advent begins a new liturgical year (Year B), our calendar year draws to a close, cluttered with things to be done and expectations to be met. The absence of light, the onrush of darkness leaves us cold; it is in just such a spirit that Advent breaks through. It is in the liturgies of Advent that God offers us a place of stillness in the quiet of winter, a place to prepare for the Lord’s coming, as Emmanuel-God with us.

Our Advent liturgies are filled with beautiful scripture passages of promise and fulfillment and prayers that call out to us with hope. Isaiah provides for us powerful images that stir our senses and call for radical change: change in both our world and in our hearts. The Gospel of Mark urges us to prepare, to be watchful, to follow the lead of John the Baptist, to straighten our paths, and to become disciples. The focus of Advent is certainly a recalling of the past, but more importantly, the focus is on the future, when all will be accomplished. This is clearly seen in the words of the Advent prophets.

The season of Advent affords us the opportunities to find God deep within us, always and everywhere in our midst. Through Advent prayers, environment, song and gesture, we are offered in our liturgies a place of waiting stillness, a centering point, assurance in these uncertain times. Let our parish family join together this Advent in joyful hope to prepare for the coming of the Lord in our hearts and in our homes!

Advent Sunday Scripture Readings

1st Sunday—December 3rd
1st-Isaiah 63:16b-17; 19b: 64:2b-7; Ps: 80:2-3, 15-16, 18-19; 2nd- 1 Cor 1:3-9; Gospel-Mark 13:33-37

2nd Sunday—December 10th
1st-Isaiah 40:1-5,9-11; Ps: 85:9-14; 2nd-2 Pt 3:8-14; Gospel-Mark 1:1-8

3rd Sunday—December 17th
1st-Isaiah 61:1-2a,10-11; Ps: Lk 1:46-50, 53-54; 2nd-1 Thes 5:16-24; Gospel-Jn 1:6-8, 19-28

4th Sunday—December 24th

Advent Environment

Inside the church and parish center, it’s peaceful and quiet and not quite Christmas...yet. You’ll see the season’s blue-violet liturgical color in the vestments and banners with hints of gray (the natural world) and rose (for hope). No red bows...yet. You’ll see posters in the gathering space proclaiming each Advent week’s focus—Peace, Hope, Love and Joy—and in the church banners that anticipate not only Christ’s coming birth but His death and resurrection as well. No gold stars...yet. You’ll see the Advent wreath up front being lit at the beginning of each mass in each space, but twinkling lights? Not yet. You’ll notice evergreen wreaths, plants and trees start to appear but no wrapped presents underneath...no, not yet. During the four weeks of Advent, it’s peaceful and quiet inside...and not quite Christmas.

Advent Music

During the Time of Advent we are in a state of wonderment and mystery as we await the coming of the Christ Child.

The liturgical music reflects a sense of that mystery with a restrained joy. Our music is with a sense of watching, waiting, and anticipation. Our souls in stillness are waiting for Emmanuel, God with Us, to come and share in the hope of his love and his pure light. May the Savior of the nations come and show us the glory of his Son this Advent Season!

Christmas REMEMBRANCES

The Environment & Art Ministry invites you to create a tangible remembrance of your departed family members and friends by helping to fund the Christmas décor in the Church and Parish Center. In addition to providing for flowers and candles and lights, the names of those being remembered will also be published in the December 31st weekend Bulletin.

To create a Christmas Remembrance, please fill out the form below and return it by December 11th to the Parish Office. A donation of $25 per Remembrance is suggested. Checks should be made payable to St. James Church and either mailed to the Parish Office, 820 N. Arlington Heights Rd., Arlington Heights, IL 60004, or deposited in the collection basket at mass in an envelope marked “Christmas Remembrance.”

We thank you for your kind generosity and wish you a blessed Christmas,
The Environment & Art Ministry

Coffee Sale Dec 9-10 after Mass in Parish Center

WHAT IS FAIR TRADE PLUS?
Just Haiti ensures that coffee growers receive, up front, the current fair trade price for their harvests. This will help them to achieve a decent living standard. But we go further. Just Haiti returns all profits from the sale of the coffee directly to the coffee growers and their families. Growers typically receive 64% of the price of a bag of coffee.

Just Haiti is planting trees in the areas destroyed by Hurricane Matthew last year—seven tree nurseries and counting!
Trees protect the soil, prevent flooding, and provide food and cash crops.

COATS, SWEATSHIRTS AND SWEATPANTS COLLECTION FOR DETENTION CENTER

We are collecting clothing for detained immigrants at the Broadview Detention Center in suburban Chicago. Immigrants are brought to the Center without having a chance to bring personal belongings. Sometimes they are brought in at night in their sleepwear. They have nothing to wear as they are either deported or remain in the city awaiting future court dates.

Please bring new or gently used men’s winter coats, sweatshirts and sweatpants, all sizes, to the Parish Center Dec 9th and 10th, to the Coffee Sale area.

Gloria

Gloria!  Gloria to God in the highest!  Gloria!
Gloria to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son
Shepherd Me, O God, beyond my wants, beyond my fears, from death into life.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (at words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Open Our Hearts In Welcome......

Q. How do I make an extra/accelerated pledge payment to the campaign before year end?

A. For any additional payments to the campaign, please make your checks payable to: To Teach Who Christ Is and write St. James AH and your donor id in the memo line. Mail to the Archdiocese of Chicago as usual or place in an envelope marked TTWCI and drop it in the collection basket. Please contact Barbara Krawczyk in the parish office at 224-345-7239 or by email bkrawczyk@stjamesah.org if you have any questions or would like instructions on how to donate stock.
