A Reflection…

from JoAnne Mullen-Muhr, Director of Faith Formation

One of my favorite times spent with my children as they were growing up was our bedtime routine. These were precious moments spent recalling the day, massaging tired feet and hands, reading books together and praying. Funny how certain moments get etched in your memory...I clearly remember tucking in my oldest daughter when she was in grade school. The light was off, and she was peacefully settled in after a full day, her wispy blond hair playfully framing her sweet face. I suggested we memorize a scripture verse together. This passage is one of my favorites. I find it the perfect family creed, since it reflects how I hope to live as a person but especially how I want to live my vocation as wife and mother. I would like this reading proclaimed at my funeral mass when the time comes. From Colossians 3:12-17:

"Put on then, as God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him."

Did you catch what was tucked in the middle of this section? “And be thankful.” All the gifts called forth, the mandates given and the final mission “to do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus” are wrapped around gratitude. To-day, I am so very thankful. Seventeen months ago, Fr. Matt extended an invitation to me. It was an incredible honor and I must say, quite a surprise, to step into the position of Director of Faith Formation at St. James. I am deeply moved by the permission given to me to explore and engage in ministry with you, both the new ways of moving forward and the tried and true. I am humbled by the stories people have shared and invited me into, especially the moments where you trusted me with your vulnerability. I find such hope and energy in our community’s enthusiasm to wrestle with what it means to be a disciple of Jesus in today’s world and then actually strive to live it.

I could never have anticipated all the surprises and blessings God had in store for me here. I have been transformed by the many people I have encountered and with whom I have journeyed. When you showed up for Bible study before school on Wednesdays, you changed me. When you opened your heart at the women’s book club and let yourself be known, you changed me. When you stepped forward to start a new ministry because you saw the need, you changed me. When you changed me.

Every working day was fresh and filled with possibility. There was no time to be bored! I have found not only respected and capable co-workers and mentors among the parish and school staff, but also faith-filled and now loved friends. Maybe you heard me remark on occasion, “Welcome to the House of Joy” as I came into the office. This is because it is true.

So you can understand the fullness of heart I feel when I tell you I have decided to step down from my position in December. While working out this morning, my personal trainer said something that resonated deeply with me. He stated, “In ballet, they teach you from early on you are only as strong as your center.” This is a great metaphor for life. I have a need at this time to make sure my “center” is strong and work to balance my spiritual, physical, social and psychological self. I will be leaving staff but not St. James, so you will still see me involved in a variety of volunteer capacities.

Last Spring, I was at a funeral luncheon at Francesca’s. The restaurant was absolutely packed. Among the diners were numerous families celebrating their children’s graduations from St. James. In the middle of the meal, I was deeply engrossed in listening to one of the granddaughter’s share sweet rememberings of her grandma. It took me a moment to realize there was a young man behind me trying to get my attention. He had left his graduation celebration below and bravely maneuvered through a host of strangers and a maze of tables to talk to me. When I turned around, this thoughtful teenager shared, “I just wanted to tell you that Bible study is one of the best things I have ever done.” Wow. He so grabbed my heart. For three years he was a Wednesday morning Bible study regular, coming before school to open and immerse himself in the Word of God. He is thirteen, faith-filled, and he has taught me so much. One more person that has changed me.

So I would like to echo his sentiment and say deeply from my heart, St. James is one of the “best things” I have ever done. Thank you.

Be seeing you on Sundays~
JoAnne Mullen-Muhr

The St. James Children’s Rosary Group—2nd Monday of each month, 4pm, Church

The Children’s Rosary Group is a prayer group movement for all children. St. James joins hundreds of Children’s Prayer Groups around the world out of the love we share for Our Blessed Mother and her Son Jesus. On the 2nd Monday of every month we meet in the church from 4:00pm to 4:45pm to recite the rosary. It is our hope that the Children’s Rosary Group will be a strong source of prayers and blessings for the Holy Father and our church. If you’re just learning or if it’s been a long time since you’ve prayed the rosary we have hand outs and extra special rosaries for you to keep. Adults are always welcome! We believe these individuals are the special “guardian angels” of our group.

For more information contact Lynne Holland at: childrensrosarygroup@gmail.com or visit us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/stjameschildrensrosarygroup. If you are unable to attend, please feel free to email your petitions. These petitions will be offered by the children while they are praying the rosary.

Got Yarn?
St. James PADS guests need your help keeping warm this winter. Please consider assisting them by knitting or crocheting a scarf as part of Pope Francis’ request to MAKE LOVE OUR MISSION. We are participating in the Chase the Chill movement to provide scarves for the needy this winter. You can use any pattern you like to create a warm scarf 4-6 inches wide by 50-60 inches long. Bring your scarf to St. James on 11/21 or 11/22 and tie it around our tree in front of St. James Church for the homeless and those in need. Won’t that be an amazing sight! Please help us keep our PADS guests warmer this winter. For more info, check out www.chasethechill.com or connect with Kathy at 847-255-8899 or kk_ek@msn.com. “On this continent thousands of persons are led to travel north in search of a better life for themselves and for their loved ones, in search of greater opportunities. Is this not what we want for our own children? We must not be taken aback by their numbers, but rather view them as persons, seeing their faces and listening to their stories, trying to respond as best we can to their situation.”

~ Pope Francis to U.S. Congress, 9/2015

Can’t make the trip this year? Attend the USCCB Conference then!

What happens on Family Night?

Faith, Fun, Fellowship.

Parents bring their children with special needs and siblings to the SPRED/Sensory Room where teen and adult volunteers lead the children in games, activities, and fun scripture based craft. September’s bible point came from Psalms 28:7, “The Lord is my strength and my shield.” The children decorated shields of armor made out of cardboard and duck tape.

While the children are playing, parents meet in a separate room and have a chance to relax among other adults who share a similar journey. We tell stories and listen to each other talk about the ups and downs of parenting. And we laugh.

Light refreshments are served. When the evening comes to a close, the children leave with their craft and a token that has an individual affirmation written on it such as… “You are loved. You are beautiful. You make the world smile. You are God’s shining light.”

I would like to go to Family Night, but I’m not sure that my child qualifies. My child only has ____. (Fill in blank).

Parents…we cannot compare one child’s needs to another and say someone doesn’t qualify. All of the needs are different and unique. You can have two children with the same diagnosis, but their challenges are not always the same. Open Doors Ministry is about support and knowing that you are not alone whatever your child’s needs are. Trust your heart.

Come join us. All our welcome.

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
A cup that ranneth over
Is it possible that an Old Testament prophet founded a Catholic religious order? It may not have been his intention to, but yes. Elijah is considered by the Carmelites to be their spiritual founder. For all of his fieriness, Elijah was, like the Carmelites, contemplative. It was on Mount Carmel, where the order had its origins, that Elijah won a showdown with prophets of Baal, a deity worshipped in ancient Canaan and Phoenicia. In fact, according to Carmelite tradition, a community of hermits lived there from the time of Elijah until the order was formed. You never know what wondrous shape your spiritual heritage might take.

TODAY’S readings: 1 Kings 17:10-16; Hebrews 9:24-28; Mark 12:34-44 (155). “. . . the jars of flour did not go empty, nor the jars of oil run dry, as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.”

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9
Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica
Open the door and look at all the people
The meaning of the word church is as rich as a death-by-chocolate dessert! It is the English translation of the Greek word ecclesia used 115 times in the New Testament, and it means the assembly, the people, the community of faith. We often use “the church” to mean the magisterium, the leadership. Or we say “What a beautiful church,” meaning its architecture. Less frequently do we recall that we are the church, the people who gather and worship. For all its grandeur, the basilica of St. John Lateran is there to welcome God’s people, as a house of prayer, safety, and hope.

TODAY’S readings: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:10-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671). “Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up.”

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10
Feast of Leo the Great, Pope, Doctor of the Church
Ordinarily great
Leo, a fifth-century pope, was the first to be called “Great.” Why? First, he was an excellent administrator; he also was brilliant, named a Doctor of the church for establishing the nature of Christ as fully divine and fully human. His preaching could stir hearts to conversion. When Atilla was about to sack Rome, it is said that Leo went out to meet him and dissuaded him from entering the city. Where does greatness lie? The most ordinary person—not a political powerhouse, a celebrated professor, soccer star, or pope—can be called “great.” Jesus concludes the Sermon on the Mount making that crystal clear: “Whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven.”

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11
Feast of Martin of Tours, Bishop
Help those who are vettled
The son of a veteran, Martin was forced at the age of 15 to serve in the army. When he became a Christian at 18, he began to struggle as a soldier with the call of the King of Peace. Today, consider the soldier who defends you, but also the veteran, the conscientious objector, the wounded, many of whom struggle to find Jesus while defending a homeland. We have seen the effects of the stresses they have endured because of war. Can you help? Can you volunteer in veterans’ hospitals? Can you work for peace?

TODAY’S readings: Wisdom 6:1-11; Luke 17:11-19 (493). “Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?”

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12
Feast of Josaphat, Bishop, Martyr
Wisdom from the East
Let’s face it. Few Roman Catholics think of the Eastern Church as much more than a distant, dignified, and charming aunt with quaint manners and haunting music, who prays everything three times over! Yet Josaphat gave his life that the Ruthenian (Byzantine) Church remain united with Rome. Pope John Paul II wrote: “Since, in fact, we believe that the venerable and ancient tradition of the Eastern Churches is an integral part of the heritage of Christ’s Church, the first need for Catholics is to be familiar with that tradition, so as to be nourished by it and to encourage the process of unity in the best way possible for each.”

TODAY’S readings: Wisdom 7:22b-8:1; Luke 17:20-25 (494). “. . . behold, the Kingdom of God is among you.”

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13
Feast of Frances Xavier Cabrini, Virgin
Smile if you believe the gospel
Pope Francis frequently notes that religious-minded people should have happy faces. In the 19th century, Mother Cabrini modeled this idea with her community of Sacred Heart Sisters. She herself was denied entrance to religious life because of fragile health. When she began her own order, her admission criteria was different: She wanted frank, dynamic women with bright, smiling faces. Workhorse stamina optional. Despite poor health, Cabrini moved mountains in her 67 years. A joyful attitude will get us through tough times better than muscle.

TODAY’S readings: Wisdom 13:1-9; Luke 17:26-37 (495). “Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses it will save it.”

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14
Feast of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Hanging in there with Mary
Mary, the mother of Jesus, is a model of love, care, prayerfulness—and great perseverance! From urging Jesus to help the hosts of the wedding feast at Cana who had run out of wine, to following Jesus despite risks and threats of harm, Mary persevered. Even when standing at the foot of the cross where her son was crucified, Mary showed steadfast faith in God. No doubt she at times felt afraid and grew tired, yet she continued on. As we continually deepen our own faith in God, may we know that we have a constant companion in Mary.

TODAY’S readings: Wisdom 18:14:1-19:6-9; Luke 18:1-8 (320). “. . . when the Son of Man comes, will you be found faithful on earth?”

Program For The November Retired Men’s Meeting

I am sure that most of us don’t realize what services are available to Seniors in our area. So to that end, we have invited representatives from Escorted Transportation Service NW, Wheeling Township, and Catholic Charities to speak to us about all that their organizations provide. They will share their expertise and answer our questions. You will be amazed at the impact these organizations have on our community.

Please join us for our November 11th meeting in the Boardroom starting at 10:00am. I hope to see you then.

Deacon Pierce

St. James Staff College Road Trip!

St. James Staff members would like to visit your college student in school—for “PIZZA & PRAYER”—on Thursday evenings.

Please organize a time with your student, and any additional students/parents at their university who might be interested. (Visits will be to schools within a reasonable driving distance from Arlington Heights.)

Two parents are needed to accompany staff members on each of these visits.

Please contact FR. MATT FOLEY at the Parish Office - 224-345-7222, or fmatt@stjamesah.org if you would like to arrange a trip!

THANK YOU!

The St. James Blood Drive Committee wants to thank the 33 blood donors who gave their time and endured a needle stick at our recent Blood Drive. We also want to thank those who came and were willing to donate but were unable due to various issues. It is amazing to think that our donations helped 99 cancer, burn and trauma patients. We really appreciate the support of St. James for this needed service.
