A Reflection…
from Carrie Conley and Rebecca Linscott, Co-Coordinators of Religious Education

November 9, 2014

What happens when you jump into uncharted territory or try something new?  When you take a leap so big you can’t imagine yourself doing such a thing?  When we were asked to run the religious education program we were not even sure where to start.  But God had a plan and even though we knew that and trusted in Him we were still a bit skeptical.  Learning to trust God is not easy.  You must release ALL your worries into the Lord’s care.  This clears the way for you to seek His face unhindered.

We can often put pressure on ourselves to make the “right” choices or take those leaps in our lives.  At times, these decisions are too heavy for us to take on alone.  What’s amazing is that we don’t have to do anything alone.  God is always with us to help guide our decisions and see us through successes and failures.  We have to rely on God by praying to Him and asking for His wisdom and guidance.  God will help us with discernment if we ask and listen.  We both pray a lot and have been thinking about Proverbs 3:5-6: “Trust in the Lord with all your heart and do not rely on your own insight.  In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.”  We are both so thankful that we took this leap of faith into the St. James Religious Education program.  Today it’s hard to believe we had such skepticism.

As we are moving through the school year and seeing signs from God, we are affirmed by His grace and love.  We have affirmation that we have answered a call that we did not even think we would hear.  When a mother of a third grade boy tells us that he would rather attend Religious Education classes than go to football practice…WOW…that stops us dead in our tracks and we know God is at work here.  When a mother snaps a picture of her son doing his evening reading and it’s the bible (by his choice) that he is reading…God is at work!  When a young girl is moved to tears during praise and worship singing because “it’s just so beautiful”…God is at work!

So if you feel that little nudge inside of you when you have a decision to consider, pray, and listen for God’s wisdom.  You might be surprised at the plan that God has designed just for you.  It is seeing God’s presence in the Religious Education program that has made our faith grow stronger.  Just remember that it’s OK to trust in the Lord because he’s with us every step of the way.  In Matthew 28:20, Jesus promises, “And I will be with you always, to the end of the age.”

Take Five for Faith Reflections

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 2014
FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA
Home sweet home
Catholics sometimes identify where they live by the church they attend. It often indicates a familiar geographical area and the Catholic community in that vicinity. The church proper is the spiritual home for that community—your spiritual home. Even the pope has a home church: the Lateran Basilica in Rome. The pope is the bishop of Rome, the primacy of all the churches of the city and the world. For the first thousand years of Christianity, it was also the pope’s official residence. Renew your dedication to your home church and honor the ways it sustains you.

TODAY’S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9-11, 16-17; John 2:19-22 (670).

“Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?”

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 10
FEAST OF LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
Squaring the circle
When you look closely at the life of Jesus, you realize he is dealing with someone who defies easy description. He clearly was human: walking, talking, eating with those around him, even weeping when the occasion called for it. Yet he clearly was more than human, attested to not only by miraculous events but also by his irrefutable wisdom, unprecedented insight, and unlimited compassion. What to make of such a fellow? Pope Leo I answered the riddle for wary Christians by positing the union of two natures in one person—fully human and fully divine. Thanks to Leo, we have a full appreciation of the mystery of Jesus the Christ. Spend some time with this mystery today.

TODAY’S READINGS: Titus 1:1-9; Luke 17:1-6 (497). “The apostles said to the Lord, ‘Increase our faith.’”

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11
FEAST OF MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP
Great expectations
When obligations pull you away from what you’d rather be doing, think of Saint Martin of Tours, who didn’t wander from his wishes but also accepted his obligations. Martin wanted to be a monk but was forced to enlist in the military when he was 15. Once he finally became a monk, the people of Tours insisted he become their bishop and he reluctantly acquiesced. Even when he was near death, Martin prayed, “Lord, if your people still need me, I do not refuse the work. Your will be done.”

TODAY’S READINGS: Titus 2:1-8, 11-14; Luke 17:7-10 (493). “When you have done all you have been commanded, say, ‘We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.’”

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 12
FEAST OF JOSAPHAT, BISHOP, MARTYR
Divided we fall
The year 1435 has not been a good one for Ukrainian unity, given competing ethnic and national identities that have at times erupted in violence. For that matter, the year 1623 wasn’t much better. Josaphat, a monk and archbishop of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church, was killed by a Christian mob with a different religious loyalty. Regardless of the cause, no justification for warring with our sisters and brothers will hold water with the Creator of us all. Make amends and heal divisions while you can, so that people of all nations and religious backgrounds may live in peace.

TODAY’S READINGS: Titus 3:1-7; Luke 17:11-19 (493). “Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!”

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13
FEAST OF FRANCIS XAVIER CABRINI, VIRGIN
Be open to a change of plans
How do you respond when the unexpected happens? Like Francis Xavier Cabrini (1850-1917), you may have a path in mind, only to find yourself suddenly detoured. Frances founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart in her native Italy. Inspired to evangelize and serve, set her sights on China. But Pope Leo XIII urged her to go “not to the East, but to the West,” where poor immigrant Catholics were struggling to survive. Guided by the desire to extend Christ’s love to others, Frances took the change of geography in stride. The Missionary Sisters went to New York, healing those in need through education, healthcare, and other outreach.

TODAY’S READINGS: Philippians 4:4-9; Luke 17:20-25 (494). “The hearts of the holy ones have been refreshed by you.”

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14
What is the church saying about purgatory?
Old cathedrals preserve images of a leaping sea of flames in which loose-haired women and swarthy men (and usually a bishop or two) are paying the penalty for their dissolute living. Replace the word “penalty” with “preparation,” and the idea of a “place” with “process.” That comes closer to how the church speaks of purgatory today. If God is Love, then anything unloving or unyielding in our spirits must be surrendered before approaching final union with the Lord. Hardness isn’t compatible with love. Let it go now or later.

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 John 4-9; Luke 17:26-37 (495). “Those who try to make their life secure will lose it, but those who lose their life will keep it.”

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15
FEAST OF ALBERT THE GREAT, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
Study the God of all creation
Conflicts between science and religion such as that of “evolution vs. creationism” have become all too common in the culture wars of recent years. If Albert the Great were alive today, we would likely be talking instead about evolution and creationism. Albert may have lived in the Middle Ages, but he had a positively modern outlook on the natural world. Curious about all matters scientific, philosophical, and religious, he never stopped studying, learning, or integrating. We can do the same. The more we learn about the world, the more we learn about God.

TODAY’S READINGS: 3 John 5-8; Luke 18:1-8 (496). “When the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?”
Eucharistic Adoration

It has been the consistent belief of the Catholic Church from the very beginning that the bread and wine consecrated at Mass truly become the Body and Blood of Christ, and that, furthermore, as the Catholic Catechism states, this “Eucharistic presence of Christ (which) begins at the moment of the consecration...endures as long as the Eucharistic species subsist.” (CC #1377).

In other words, the Eucharistic Christ then continues to be present in our midst beyond the Eucharistic liturgy, when the consecrated host is either reposed in a tabernacle or exposed on the altar.

The Blessed Sacrament is exposed for Adoration in the Church at St. James every Thursday following the 7:30am Mass, until 4:00pm. Starting at 3:00pm, we recite the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the Rosary, and end with Benediction. You are invited to attend Adoration on Thursday, and pray the Rosary. All are welcome.

Weekly Bible Study (Lectio Divina)

Every Thursday, 7pm—O’Brien Room

We will come together to study the Sunday Scriptures—to understand, to reflect, to pray, and to share.

ALL ARE WELCOME. NO sign up, NO fee, NO pressure. Please BYOB.

Questions: Fr. Joji at 224-345-7201.

A Reminder About Our Gestures at Mass

Over the summer, our parish requested an evaluation of our Sunday liturgies from the Liturgical Institute at Mundelein Seminary. In view of that evaluation, during Advent we will be reminding you of our gestures at Mass. Our Deacons, Priests, and liturgical ministers will model them at our liturgies. Information is included below so that the entire St. James assembly will be able to actively participate in our Masses.

During the celebration of Mass, we raise our hearts and minds to God. We are creatures of body as well as spirit, so our prayer is not confined to our minds and hearts. It is expressed by our bodies as well. When our bodies are engaged in our prayer, we pray with our whole person. During Mass we assume different postures – standing, kneeling, sitting – and we are invited to make a variety of gestures. These postures and gestures are not merely ceremonial. They have a profound meaning, and when done with understanding, can enhance our participation in the Mass. (2010 United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.)

The Procession

In our Opening Procession, you will note that the procession participants will keep moving. The altar servers will walk in, genuflect (in the Church) and bow (in the Parish Center), and go directly to their places. The Deacon will move directly to the altar to place the Book of the Gospels there. Since the Tabernacle is in the Sanctuary in the Church, the gesture at the beginning of Mass should be a genuflection, rather than a bow. In the Parish Center, the Tabernacle is in a different space, so a bow is sufficient.

Giving Reverence to the Altar

You will note that the Reader and Cantor will now give reverence to the Altar together, before and after the Readings and the Psalm by bowing. Bowing signifies reverence, respect, and gratitude. The Priest and other ministers bow to the altar, a symbol of Christ, when entering or leaving the Sanctuary. (Based on the Roman Missal Formational Materials provided by the Secretariat for the Liturgy of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, 2010). Our Readers and Cantors will meet in front of the altar and bow together before moving to their places.

Bowing during the Creed and at Communion

There are two kinds of bows – a bow of the head, and a bow of the body.

- A bow of the head is made at the name of Jesus, at the mention of the Three Persons in the Trinity, at the name of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and at the name of the particular saint in whose honor the Mass is being celebrated.
- A bow of the body, or a profound bow, is made to the altar. Bows of the body are made during the Creed, at the words that commemorate the Incarnation – ("and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man."). In the Roman Canon, by the Deacon when he asks for a blessing from the Priest before proclaiming the Gospel, etc. The Creed is recited by the Priest together with the people (cf. no 68) with everyone standing, and a bow of the body is made at the words commemorating the Incarnation. (On the Solemnities of the Annunciation and the Nativity of the Lord, all genuflect.)
- A bow of the head is made before receiving Communion, as a gesture of reverence. When Communion is received under both kinds, a bow of the head is also made before receiving the Precious Blood.

Sharing Tree Christmas Project
(A Message from Fr. Matt)

We have shared Christmas gifts in the past with the Dett School in Chicago. Over the years, Dett School has acquired a number of donors for Christmas gifts for their school. St. James will no longer be giving gifts to Dett School.

We have had a long-standing relationship with St. Malachy School, which also serves children with similar needs, and is in the same Chicago neighborhood as the Dett School.

Since St. Malachy currently has no one providing gifts for their children, this year we will be giving gifts to 400 children in St. Malachy Catholic School, and in their Religious Education program.

We thank you for your continued generosity.

St. James Recycles!

We are proud to announce that St. James has begun a Parish-wide recycling program! As you move around the Parish, you will see BLUE recycling bins in addition to our usual trash containers. These bins are in classrooms and offices, in the Parish Center and the Cafeteria, and also near the drinking fountains (for water bottles).

Posters near the bins indicate which items may be deposited in each bin or container.

Let’s “MAKE BLUE THE NEW GEEEN” together! Whether you are at St. James for a meeting, a special activity, an athletic event, or offering your time as a parish volunteer, please help us to:

Celebrate the Christmas Spirit

Mercy’s 40th Annual Christmas Outreach Program

This year we celebrate the 40th year of Mercy Hospital’s Christmas Basket Outreach to the elderly. For many of those years, St. James has partnered with us to bring a special Christmas gift to our elderly friends. Thousands of lives have been touched by your faithful and generous participation. Truly, your commitment allows Mercy to continue its Christmas Outreach to so many. Receiving this “Special Box” is such a welcomed gift.

As Christmas approaches, we are again extending the invitation to you to participate in the gift of giving. We are hopeful that you will find a way to help those less fortunate by preparing a box and extending the true spirit of Christmas to our special friends.

On Saturday, November 15th, and Sunday, November 16th, we will distribute empty boxes after each Mass in the Church and Parish Center. If you are interested in preparing a box of food, we ask that you use the boxes that we provide. Each box will have detailed lists and guidelines that we would like you to follow.

We also need reliable volunteers with cars to deliver the boxes on Saturday morning, December 13th. Last year, 180 of St. James’ Parishioners generously participated in the distribution of the boxes to the homes where our friends live. If you are able to volunteer, please fill out a card when you pick up your box. The elderly receiving boxes live primarily on the south side of Chicago. Because the boxes are heavy, we require at least 2 volunteers per car; the delivery takes about 2 hours.

Mercy is so grateful for the parish of St. James’ annual support. With your continued participation we can carry on this wonderful Christmas tradition.

Dear St. James...

On behalf of the entire St. James Theatre Productions family, we would like to thank you and Fr. Matt for your overwhelming support and attendance at our 2014 summer production of Oliver. The list of people who played an integral part in making Oliver a success could fill countless pages of a playbill.

What does SUCCESS look like? Here is Oliver by the numbers:

- 10 shows performed over 3 weekends
- The cast of adults and children = over 110 people
- Ticket revenue = $50,348
- The theatre ministry added $20,000 to the parish coffers
- $2,000 was donated to the St. James Broadway Bulldogs to ensure the continuation of the School’s Junior High Musical and sound equipment was purchased to augment the Parish Center Sound System.
- 2015 marks the 45th year of this summer ministry which was started by our beloved Fr. Bill Zavaski. Please consider joining us as we plan for this much anticipated event. The Theatre ministry allows entire families as well as the St. James Parish community to work all summer to produce a family-friendly production that is loved by all.

Thank you again for your generosity and support. Stay tuned to the website and bulletin, where we will announce our next exciting musical!
