“O God, be merciful to me a sinner.”

Ordained for a little over two years now, probably the times I have felt most like a priest has been in the confessional. That may be somewhat of a surprise to you, but it’s true. A woman once told a priest in an airport how sorry she felt for him because he had to listen to people’s sins in the confessional…

Ugh, gross… person after person, they come in and tell you the worst things about themselves; the laundry list of their failings…that must be the worst!

In fact though, it’s the best place! I think the worst would be having to sit and watch the person commit all their sins and continue to turn away from God. But to sit in the place where they’re recognizing the error of their ways and choosing to return, well, there’s nowhere I’d rather be.

It’s no secret that today’s Catholics are finding themselves further and further from the sacramental life, particularly the confessional. We don’t like to admit our sins to ourselves, let alone a priest. Replacing “rote” prayers and “archaic” ritual, we prefer to look to self-help books and new age spirituality for seemingly better and more “enlightened” ways to find fulfillment in life. However, for those who still come to the sacrament, it is always a graced time.

As Catholics we believe that God desires to use ordinary things to mediate the extraordinary. Water is used in baptism to mediate the grace of becoming adopted sons and daughters of God. Oil is used in the Sacrament of Anointing to mediate the grace of God’s healing. Bread and wine are used to mediate the grace of the Eucharist- the real presence of Jesus. Finally, in the Sacrament of God’s forgiveness, the penitent’s contrite heart is used to mediate the grace of true reconciliation.

When Jesus walked this planet, he told his disciples, “There will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over 99 righteous people who have no need of repentance.” And if the church is the place where Heaven and Earth meet as we say in the context of the Mass, then I can attest to the joy experienced with the sinner on earth who hears the words of Christ… “I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

There is tremendous power in the Church and in her Sacraments. May God open your heart to receive it.

Wishing you peace and all good things,

Father Derek

So, we are providing a Parish-wide Survey for parishioners’ participation.

The survey can be easily accessed by going to the Archdiocese’s web page (Archchicago.org) and clicking on “Departments” on the upper left of the page, then scrolling to “Ministerial Evaluation” to access our web page. There, in the middle of the page, find “360 Catholic Leadership review for priests” and click on your appropriate language. Then, follow the instructions for anonymous participation.

Thank you for your participation in the survey.
Remember with Love Mass

On Saturday, November 5th, at the 8:30am Mass in the Church, we will remember all those in our families and our parish community who have gone before us and are enjoying the presence of God. (We will celebrate using the All Souls Day Liturgy.)

We invite all parishioners of St. James, especially those who have lost a loved one during the past year to gather with one another as we remember their deceased family members in a special way. The names of those who have died and were buried from St. James in the past year will be mentioned at this Mass. (However, as the departed are always remembered with love in our hearts, participation is not strictly limited to those who have lost someone in the past year. All are welcome to attend the Mass.)

If there are any questions, please call Maureen Ruane at 847-398-3907.

- The Care and Bereavement Ministers of St. James

Open Our Hearts in Welcome:

New Parking

(As of 10/14/16)

Total Raised: $4,513,472
Number of Families: 201
Average Gift: $22,456

WHO: This will impact every parish family who drives to church. Handicap accessible spaces will be added in addition to non-handicapped spots.

WHAT: The area in red on this rendering shows an outline of the old school building. One of the renovations and updates addressed through the Open Our Hearts in Welcome campaign consists of removing the old school building and replacing the area with parking.

Site Costs: $2.9 million

WHY: Why does it cost so much to tear down the school and replace with parking? Great question!

To meet grading standards required by law, there is not enough land to allow proper drainage. This requires St. James to construct an underground retention system. The entire parking area on the east side of our campus will be influenced by this.

"As pastors of the Catholic Church in the United States, we state as clearly and strongly as we can that violence against women, inside or outside the home, is never justified." – US Catholic Bishops
For over 30 years, St. James has reached out to the homeless in Chicago’s Uptown Neighborhood. The LOAVES & FISHES Ministry provides an evening meal and a brown bag lunch for Women at Sarah’s Circle www.sarahscircle.org and Men at NorthSide Housing www.northsidehousing.org. Our ministry operates every Saturday beginning with the 1st weekend in November through the last weekend in April.

As always, we thank those volunteers who give so very generously of their time, talents, treasure, and especially those who provide their prayers.

Many organizations prepare lunches including: the St. James Women’s Club, CFM groups, Confirmation groups, SOR groups, members of the Youth Ministry and Scouting Troops.

Many individuals too numerous to mention also make lunches, pick up soup and bread and give up their Saturday evenings to deliver food to the shelters. For all of you, THANK YOU.

Special thanks also to those businesses who donate food on a regular basis: The Palm Court Restaurant, Eros Restaurant and Ice Cream Parlor, The Dunton House, Egg Harbor Cafe and Central Continental Bakery of Mt. Prospect. Please consider patronizing these local establishments.

LOAVES & FISHES needs volunteers for any of the following:

- Pick up bread and soup from local bakeries and restaurants on Saturday afternoons.
- Make 100 lunches - (great opportunity for scouts, families, confirmation/high school service hours, etc.)
- Transport the donations to the shelters later Saturday afternoon.

Gloria

Psalm Response
Responsorial Psalm: 34:2-3,17-18,19,23
R. The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

Alleluia

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; Through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Opening Song

Let Justice Roll Like a River

Refrain

Let justice roll like a river,
and wash all oppression away; Come, O God, and take us,
move and shake us, Come now, and make us anew,
that we might live justly like you.

Verses

1. Take from me your holy feasts, all your off'ring and your music;
   Let justice flow like waters, and integrity like an ever-flowing stream.

2. How long shall we wait, O God, for the day of your mercy to dawn, the day we beat our swords into ploughs, when your peace reigns over the earth?

3. Hear this, all of you who use the poor in your thirst of power and riches:
   the Lord will turn your laughter to tears, on the wondrous Day of our God.

4. Even now return to me, let your hearts be broken and humble, for I am gracious, gen'rous and kind; come and seek the mercies of God.

5. You have been told the way of life, the way of justice and peace;
   to act justly, to love gently, and walk humbly with God.

Text: Amos 5:21-24, 8:4, Micah 4:3-4, 6:8, Joel 2:12-14; Marty Haugen, b.1950

Eagle Candidate Adds Flagpoles for St. Viator High School

This past August 13th –16th, Matt Beiersdorf (a senior at St. Viator High School), several Troop #166 scouts, and other volunteers put in three new flagpoles near the St. Viator athletic fields.

Matt worked with Mr. Burks and others to bring this project to reality, and now St. Viator has three flagpoles as part of the athletic fields.

Matt is now working to complete his book and sit for his final review and is especially thankful to Mr. Steven Hayes for giving him the idea for this project.

Matt hopes to be another Eagle Scout from St. James Boy Scout Troop #166. A special note of thanks to the St. James Parish Women’s Club for being the Troop’s sponsor for over 35 years!

A Report from Haiti after Hurricane Matthew...

Just Haiti report:

Many St. James parishioners support Haitian coffee growers by purchasing the coffee sold by Just Haiti. Because of your support over the years, the Haitian farmers are able to build their own schools, pay the education fees for their children and become leaders in their communities. The communities are now reeling from the destruction of Hurricane Matthew. The map shows the location of 4 coffee associations. Three of them were in the direct path of Hurricane Matthew. We have heard from the farmers. Please keep them in your prayers. Your purchase of Just Haiti coffee puts the profit directly into their hands...money that is needed ASAP! We will have another coffee sale in December, but you can order online now: www.justhaiti.org. You can also go to the Just Haiti facebook page to see more pictures, read reports from them & learn how to help.

“We are here, but our country is broken,” Francois Lominy of KDB association texted to us. He was the first to respond after the hurricane passed. We were relieved to hear that no one lost family members, but that was short lived as pictures began to arrive. “All animals and crops are destroyed.” That means their food and livelihood...

Before: St. James visits in 2011, construction almost complete

After Hurricane Matthew

Before: KDB meets with St. James, Jan. 2015 in their plant built with 0% loans from Just Haiti

After: plants and crops destroyed, before harvest

Pere Verdieu of APCCA walked from Carcases to Jeremie (3.5 hours by truck) to deliver to us this report. “90% of houses destroyed. Church destroyed, rectory flooded. Second story of school destroyed. No water or food. 700 people in gov’t shelter, rectory or school.”
Welcome to St. James!
