Our Mission Statement
The St. James family is a welcoming Catholic community sent forth from our celebration of the Eucharist to walk in faith, live in hope, and act in love.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are committed to justice and peace through Prayer, Education, Evangelization, and Stewardship.

We Remember,
We Celebrate,
We Believe

Eucharistic Adoration
October is the month of the Blessed Mother and of the Holy Rosary. The Mother of God and Mother of the Eucharist ALWAYS leads us to her son, Jesus. Mary has been encouraging us and asking us to pray the Rosary which is prayer right out of the Bible. The Hail Mary is from Luke 1:28-35, and Luke 1:42-48, and the Our Father from Matthew 6:9. For hundreds of years we had the Joyful Mysteries, the Sorrowful Mysteries, and the Glorious Mysteries consisting of five decades each. In 2002 Pope John Paul II in a letter to all Catholics entitled, “The Most Holy Rosary” gave us the Luminous Mysteries, sometimes called the Mysteries of Light because they show Jesus as the light of the world and as the Son of God. These five mysteries cover our Lord’s public life beginning with the Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan River and ending with the institution of the Holy Eucharist at the Last Supper. So with the twenty decades of the rosary we can contemplate the entire life of Jesus and Mary.
Please come to Eucharistic Adoration on Thursday and pray the Rosary before the Blessed Sacrament, you’ll be glad you did.

The Blessed Sacrament is exposed for Adoration in the Church at St. James every Thursday following the 7:30 am Mass until 4:00 pm. Starting at 3:00 pm, we recite the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the Rosary, and end with Benediction.
Remember with Love Mass

On Saturday, November 1st at the 8:30am Mass in the Church, we will remember all those in our families and our parish community who have gone before us and are enjoying the presence of God. (We will celebrate using the All Souls Day liturgy.)

We invite all parishioners of St. James, especially those who have lost a loved one during the past year to gather with one another as we remember their deceased family members in a special way. The names of those who have died and were buried from St. James in the past year will be mentioned at this Mass. (However, as the departed are always remembered with love in our hearts, participation is not strictly limited to those who have lost someone in the past year. All are welcome to attend the Mass.)

A reception will be held in the Laramie Room immediately after the Mass. If you plan to attend, please fill in the form below and return it to the Parish Office by October 27th, or drop it in the collection basket.

If there are any questions, please call Maureen Ruane at 847-398-3907.

Our Charity

Thank you for your generous response to our charity this month, the World Missions. This year, we were invited to reach out to the Church in Mongolia, the world’s youngest Catholic Church, as well as local churches throughout the Missions, in the most remote areas of the world. Your prayers and donations help the work of priests, religious and lay leaders in the Church in Mongolia and throughout the Missions, who offer the poor practical help and the experience of God’s love and mercy, His hope and peace. Thank you for your generosity!

Celebrating the Rosary

In Luke’s Gospel, we learn that Jesus’ disciples came to Him one day and said, “Lord, teach us to pray.” (Luke 11:1) On October 8th, the 5th and 6th graders at Saint James School led the student body in prayer as they presented The Living Rosary.

With Rosaries in hand, students aligned themselves in the shape of a Rosary around the perimeter of the Church. They started praying the Rosary by holding the Crucifix, making the Sign of the Cross and reciting The Apostles’ Creed. Students took turns delivering the appropriate prayers as they followed along on their Rosary beads. As students prayed each decade, fingerling their beads, they were able to meditate on some event in Mary or Jesus’ life. These events are called Mysteries; there are three sets of five Mysteries each.

Beautiful blue and white flowers were offered up to the Virgin Mary at the Altar following each Mystery. After the entire Rosary had been completed, students were once again holding the Crucifix in the palms of their hands. This peaceful and solemn moment gave them a chance to reflect on the power of prayer. It allowed them to realize that the prayers they had just uttered were more than just a bunch of memorized words. The act of prayer actually brought a tremendous amount of comfort and provided an opportunity to develop a more intimate relationship with God. Prayer allows us to be open with God about whatever is on our minds and in our hearts. Prayer makes us aware of God’s presence. Prayer grants us a loving communion with God.
Nineteen St. James teens braved the cold on the night of October 18th at the Youth Ministry Homeless Sleepout. They also helped collect coats at the Coat Drive that weekend. A candlelight Rosary was prayed for all those on the streets.

How You Can Help a Victim of Domestic Abuse

People have many feelings about domestic abuse, especially if it is happening to someone they care about. They may feel shock, anger, sadness and frustration. When they feel compassion, they experience the life of another person in a real way, not in their mind but somewhere in their souls. As you experience the suffering of another, you are moved by that suffering to listen, talk, or take action. Remember, an abuser always controls and devalues his partner’s perception of reality by making her* doubt what she sees and hears. She needs support and encouragement to hold firmly to her own truth. These are some essential principles of how you can help:

Believe the person and tell them you do. Remember that abusers most often behave differently in public than they do in private.

Listen. If you actively listen, ask clarifying questions, and avoid making judgments and giving advice, you will most likely learn directly from them what it is they need.

Build on the victim's strengths. Based on the information they give you and your own observations, actively identify the ways in which they have developed coping strategies, solved problems, and exhibited courage and determination, even if their efforts have not been completely successful. Help them to build on these strengths.

Support their decisions. Remember that there are risks attached to every decision an abuse victim makes. If you truly want to be helpful, be patient and respectful of a person's decisions, even if you don't agree with them.

Validate their feelings. It is common for victims to have conflicting feelings - love and fear, guilt and anger, hope and despair. Let them know that their feelings are normal and reasonable.

Avoid victim-blaming. Tell the victim that the abuse is not their fault. Reinforce that the abuse is the partner's problem and responsibility, but refrain from "bad-mouthing" the partner.

Take their fears seriously. If you are concerned about their safety, express your concern without judgment by simply saying, "The situation sounds dangerous and I'm concerned about your safety."

Offer help. As appropriate, offer specific forms of help and information - these can include recommendations for social services, legal referrals, support groups, etc. If you are asked to do something you're willing and able to do, do it. If you can't or don't want to, say so and help identify other ways to have that need met. Then look for other ways that you can help.

Be an active, creative partner in a victim's safety planning effort. The key to safety planning is taking a problem, considering the full range of available options, evaluating the risks and benefits of different options, and identifying ways to reduce the risks. Offer ideas, resources and information.

Do you think that you can be an anchor for a victim of abuse?

*Although we acknowledge that both men and women can be victims, for purposes of this article we refer to abusers in the masculine and victims in the feminine tense.

This month, Stepping Stones will feature articles targeted to the other “victims” of domestic abuse – family, friends, co-workers and neighbors. Next Week: Local and National Resources

A Reflection…
from Fr. Matt Foley, Pastor

October 26, 2014

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

As Catholic Christians our love comes from our whole person, heart, soul and mind. In our relationship with God we are called to hold nothing back.

I believe, that as your servant leader, being transparent with your financial sacrifices is very important. St. James parishioners have been tremendously generous this past fiscal year. On pages 16 and 17 of this bulletin you will find our most recent financial report. I am grateful for the guidance of the Parish Council and Finance Committee who have maintained a spirit of stewardship with your financial contributions.

As you observe our financial statements you will see we currently have 1.3 million dollars in various savings accounts. One may ask why all the savings?

I have placed a number of photos showing the many stairs around and inside our Church. St. James has a rich history of being a welcoming community by being Ambassadors for Christ. Unfortunately, our current beautiful Church is very difficult to enter for those who may need special assistance. Yes, we have a ramp to enter the worship space. However, once one enters the front door, nothing is handicapped accessible.

St. James has room to grow in our ability to show God’s love by loving our neighbor as we love ourselves. Stating it simply, we are called to act in justice and create a Church in which all are welcome.

Your servant in Christ,

Fr. Matt
