DON’T FORGET TO CELEBRATE THIS WEEK!

The popular view of October 31st is a day of dressing up, collecting candy, and decorating lawns with spider webs and skeletons. Pumpkin carving and eating caramel apples are always fun, too! Nevertheless, this time of year has much religious significance and is for celebrating!

October 31- Like Christmas Eve, Halloween, or “All Hallows’ Eve,” is a holy day more because of the day that comes after it, All Saints’ Day. It was customary for children to honor their favorite Saint by dressing as them- imitating their outward as well as their inward appearance. Over time, some began to dress in scary costumes to mock the devil and all that might cause fear so as to say, “If God is for us, who can be against us?!?” or “Nothing can separate us from the love of Christ!” (Provided we steer clear from the occult, who knew the vampire, ghost, and goblin costumes could be a minor tribute to our trust in the goodness of God?!)

November 1- All Saints’ Day is a Holy Day of Obligation for all Catholics. There are 10 of these holy days throughout the year and they were times for great public parties in celebration of some major feast (like the birth of Christ at Christmas or the rising of Christ at Easter). On All Saints’ Day, we marvel at the heroic lives of the Saints and we pray that through their intercession, we too may find Heaven by following Christ to the end.

November 2- All Souls’ Day is given to us as a day to pray for the dead, especially our deceased family members and friends. While All Saints’ Day reminds us of the Church Triumphant in Heaven, All Souls’ Day reminds us of the Church Expectant or the Church Suffering; those who need our prayers to pass through the gates of purgatory into their Heavenly reward.

Though some fear Halloween a day of the worship of pagan gods or the satanic celebration of evil, Halloween is what you make of it. May we make these days “holy days of opportunity” to pray more intently and to celebrate the power of Christ which conquers all fear and all death.

Happy Halloween! Happy All Saints’ Day! Happy All Souls’ Day!

Father Derek

St. Vincent de Paul

We Need Your Help!

As you may have noticed, the food collection bins for those served by the St. James Society of St. Vincent de Paul have been removed from the Parish Center and Church. This is due to the fact that we need to close our food pantry down for the construction of the new church after the first of the year. Even though our pantry will be closed, WE WILL STILL serve our clients, providing much needed food and other services.

We are asking the generous St. James community for HELP! As we transition through the church construction, we will be giving out Jewel Gift Cards to our clients, instead of food. If you would like to help us with our mission we ask that you stop by the Manna table in the back of the Parish Center/Church, purchase a $25 Jewel Certificate, and ask the attendant to provide it to St. Vincent de Paul. We will be using these certificates to serve our clients. Whether you add the card to your order or just purchase it the same day, please inform the attendant that you are donating the card to St. Vincent de Paul and they will know how to complete the transaction.

Thank you for your support over the years. We will soon have a new church and a new pantry!

Update from Kim Lamberty, President

A couple of weeks ago I visited growers in Baraderes, our largest and oldest producer association. Baraderes was hit very hard by Hurricane Matthew, and most people are still trying to recover. The debris has been cleared, but many of the houses are not habitable, and people have been displaced as a result. We sent food assistance immediately after the hurricane, and seeds for food crops somewhat later. I was told that we sent the right assistance at the right time. Our method was to send cash to the leaders, and they purchased the items and distributed them, without outside assistance.

The growers also expressed to me how much they value our scholarship program. It is an opportunity for their children to create a better life, and with our internship program they graduate with work experience that makes them more employable.

We also held the first meeting of the umbrella organization for all the grower associations we work with, called COSOPLACH. Each association sent a representative to the first meeting, where we discussed issues of mutual concern, such as bags, transport, and export. All the associations will now be able to legally export under the COSOPLACH umbrella.

We expect to plant around 50,000 coffee trees and 50,000 shade trees (mixed forest and fruit trees) in the four associations affected by Hurricane Matthew. Our agronomist has begun training programs, and has started to hire the soil technicians who will oversee the work in each community.

We are very grateful to each of you for the support you provided for Hurricane Matthew recovery, for your contributions to the scholarship fund, and most importantly, for your coffee purchases.

Loaves and Fishes

For over 30 years, the St. James community has reached out to the homeless in Chicago's Uptown Neighborhood. The LOAVES & FISHES Ministry provides an evening meal and a brown bag lunch for Women at Sarah’s Circle www.sarahscircle.org and Men at NorthSide Housing www.northsidehousing.org. Our ministry operates every Saturday beginning with the 1st weekend in November through the last weekend in April.

As always, we thank those volunteers who give so very generously of their time, talents, treasure, and especially those who provide their prayers.

Many organizations prepare lunches including; the St. James Women’s Club, CFM groups, Confirmation groups, SOR groups, members of the Youth Ministry and Scouting Troops.

Many individuals too numerous to mention also make lunches, pick up soup and bread and give up their Saturday evenings to deliver food to the shelters. For all of you, THANK YOU.

Special thanks also to those businesses who donate food on a regular basis: The Palm Court Restaurant, Eros Restaurant and Ice Cream Parlor, The Dunton House, Egg Harbor Cafe and Central Continental Bakery of Mt. Prospect. Please consider patronizing these local establishments.

LOAVES & FISHES needs volunteers for any of the following:
- Pick up bread from Central Continental Bakery (Mt. Prospect) on Friday evening.
- Pick up soup from local restaurants on Saturday afternoon.
- Make approximately 100 lunches – This is a great opportunity for scouts, families, confirmation/high school service hours, etc.

Transport the donations (soup, bread, & lunches) to the shelters late Saturday afternoon or early Saturday evening.

Those who are interested and have questions can contact Kevin and Geralyn Walsh at 847-338-1234 / 847-361-1480 geralynbw@sbcglobal.net or Art and Patty Brown 847 590-5167 / 847 651-9215 abrown9157@aol.com.

EXODUS TREKKER

Two Catholic Hospice Chaplains Talk About Dying, God, and Art

Joseph Marco is 62 and works with four other hospice chaplains—one is Jewish—at the Northwest Community Hospital in Arlington Heights, where, for 16 years he has cared for "hundreds of dying people, most of them Christians, some atheists." He once lived in a religious community and took vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience, vows which I am still loyal to," he said.

Joseph believes that "Jesus invites all of us day by day to grow through dying and rising." This is especially true, he said, of hospice patients who, along with their caregivers need to aware of this cycle. "I'm honored and privileged to hear my patients share their life stories."

Joseph expresses his core beliefs by painting; on his desk and office walls are abstract paintings that show his deepest felt spiritual beliefs. He speaks passionately about how he has depicted God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit in a montage of colors and forms on canvass or special paper.

Joe Casey, our other chaplain, is three years older than Joseph, has seen suffering and dying of nearly 150 patients since coming 2½ years ago to Vista Hospice in Waukegan, Illinois. Sometimes it's more of a matter of being comfort to the family, he said, especially when "the patient is journeying to this sacred period in his life, when they're getting ready to transition from their earthly life to their eternal life..."

Sung Psalm Refrain:
_I love you, Lord, my strength, my strength._

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
his kingdom will have no end.

(at words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

OPENING HYMN

The King of Love My Shepherd Is

1. The King of love my shepherd is, Whose goodness
2. Where streams of living water flow My ransomed
3. Confused and foolish oft I strayed, But yet in
4. In death’s dark vale I fear no ill With you, dear
5. You spread a table in my sight; Your saving
6. And so through all the length of days Your goodness fails me never; I nothing lack if soul he’s leading, And where the verdant love he sought me; And on his shoulder Lord, beside me, Your rod and staff my grace bestowing; And O what transport fails me never; Good Shepherd, may I

I am his, And he is mine for ever.
pastures grow With food celestial feeding.
gently laid, And home, rejoicing, brought me.
comfort still, Your cross before to guide me.
of delight From your pure chalice flowing!
sing your praise With in your house for ever.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — You shall not oppress an alien, for you yourselves were once aliens in Egypt (Exodus 22:20-26).

Psalm — I love you, Lord, my strength (Psalm 18).

Second Reading — You became imitators of the Lord, so that you became a model for all believers (1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10).

Gospel — You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself (Matthew 22:34-40).

What the first reading calls aliens are immigrants or newcomers. They lived among the Hebrews, but were not Jews themselves. The Lord reminds the people that they were once aliens themselves. The should not make the same mistake the Egyptians did when they mistreated the Israelites. God uses the same logic in commanding them to take care of widows and orphans. Treat them like family, or else your own wives and children will be in the same situation.

The reason for such compassion should be deeper than just fear of punishment. Jesus said, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Matthew 22:39). He called this the second commandment. The first is to love God wholly and completely, heart, mind, and soul. If the second commandment is the Golden Rule, the first might be called the Diamond Rule. If you think about it, in order to keep the first commandment, you have to be keeping the second as well.

Jesus said that whatever you do for the poor, the homeless, the sick, or prisoners, you do for him (Matthew 25:31-46). We can't really say we love God if we don't love the people God created. So that gives us two reasons to love our neighbor. First, because God lives in other people, so loving God means loving God wherever God is found. Second, God loves them, so if we are to be holy, we must be like God. What does that mean? Remember the saying that "charity begins at home"? It doesn't end there. If we truly love God, we will extend our charity to those outside our homes. People are probably still rebuilding after earthquakes, tornadoes, floods, and other disasters, and every city has some kind of homeless shelters. You say you love God? Let's see you love your neighbor.

The Diamond Rule
I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say

1. I heard the voice of Jesus say, “Come un-to me and rest; Lay down, O wea-ry one, lay down Your head up-on my breast.” I came to Jesus as I was, So wea-ry, worn, and sad; I found in him a rest-ing place, And he has made me glad.

2. I heard the voice of Jesus say, “Be-hold, I free-ly give The liv-ing wa-ter; thirst-y one, Stoop down, and drink, and live.” I came to Jesus, and I drank Of that life-giv-ing stream; My thirst was quenched, my soul re-vived, And now I live in him.

3. I heard the voice of Jesus say, “I am this dark world’s light; Look un-to me, your morn shall rise, And all your day be bright.” I looked to Jesus, and I found In him my star, my sun; And in that light of life I’ll walk Till trav-’ling days are done.

Our Charity

During this month of October, our charity has been the World Mission Appeal. The Catholic Church was invited to support mission dioceses in various parts of the world, where priests, religious, and lay leaders work to proclaim the Gospel to those who do not know Christ. This Appeal reminds us of our responsibility to those outside our parish, our archdiocese, and even our nation!

We thank you for your generosity in supporting our weekly St. James Parish collections!
