A Reflection….from Fr. Matt Foley, Pastor

Keeping the Faith

Embarking on a 10.5 million dollar Church expansion is an exciting and challenging time for St. James parishioners. We are so very blessed to have many active parishioners who are investing in the future of our Catholic Christian Community.

As we move towards beginning construction in the spring of 2018 we are constantly making assessments for future operations for our expanded and handicapped accessible Church. A very important part of the expansion of the Church is the additional seating that will be added. It is our hope that 824 seats will be our new capacity.

Every October the Archdiocese of Chicago counts everyone that attends each Saturday Vigil and Sunday Mass. Last year we had this average at our six weekend Masses:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Worshippers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5:00 PM Saturday Vigil Mass</td>
<td>410 Worshippers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7:00 AM Sunday Mass</td>
<td>160 Worshippers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8:30 AM Sunday Mass</td>
<td>380 Worshippers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10:00 AM Sunday Mass</td>
<td>760 Worshippers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11:30 AM Sunday Mass</td>
<td>370 Worshippers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5:00 PM Sunday Mass</td>
<td>420 Worshippers</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The late Cardinal Bernardin would often state that if a Mass is less than half full the Parish should consider combining Masses. I have never consolidated Masses in my previous Pastor assignments. I see a half full Church as an opportunity to evangelize and brings others to follow Christ by worshipping at our Sunday Masses.

I ask that you please reach out to your family members and friends inviting them to join us in the source and summit of our faith, the Sunday Eucharist.

Your Servant in Christ,

Fr. Matt

Derek will be hosting the event. If you’ve registered this year at St. James and have not yet attended a Welcome Event, we look forward to hosting you and your family.

We look forward to welcoming YOU!
We welcome six new teachers to SJS this year.

As Saint James School opened its doors to new and returning students this fall, it also warmly welcomed six new teachers. The new faces that will greet you in our hallways are: Denise Harter (Ed Tech Director), Kerriann Kura (PK3/Learning Lab), Angela Lazzeretti (PK/3, PK/4), Nicole Long (7th/8th grade science), Courtney Ryan (Kindergarten), and Michelle Schueler (3rd grade).

All of these individuals bring with them an impressive array of education and experience that allows them to create innovative learning experiences for our students. Ms. Harter will work with teachers and staff to provide a clear vision for the best ways to integrate technology into teaching and learning. She will also work directly with the students and is particularly looking forward to co-teaching a new coding unit to the third through eighth grade classes this year. Mrs. Long will emphasize hands-on learning and STEM. After studying cells, seventh graders will have the opportunity to create a cell analogy in the form of a building. Eighth graders will design and build mousetrap cars after learning about force and motion.

While they appreciate the opportunity to contribute to a rich academic environment, our new teachers agree that the welcoming and faith-filled community at Saint James is what most attracted them to their new positions. Mrs. Kura noted, “I love that everyone makes you feel like more of a family member than a staff member.” Ms. Ryan echoed that sentiment, expressing gratitude for the support and guidance she has received from the kindergarten team and adding that she was drawn to “how much value this school places not only on academic success, but on the students’ growing relationship with God.”

We are so grateful to have all of our new teachers with us this year!

After Abuse: 5 At-Home Healing Techniques

Domesticshelters.org states that survivors of domestic violence “develop protective responses that don’t shut down. It’s more about managing them than stopping them.”

They give these five at-home methods to aid in the healing process:

- Practice meditation or mindfulness. This can simply mean sitting still, clearing your mind, and breathing deeply for 10 minutes every morning to quiet your racing, anxious thoughts.
- Exercise – even a little bit.
- Massage has been proven to help with the effects of PTSD by reducing cortisol levels in the body, which can reduce that feeling of hypervigilance that makes you feel like danger is around every corner. Try it at home, just by massaging your hands, feet, or above your eyes to relieve tension.
- Take time for you. Whatever self-care means for you, whether it is watching your favorite TV show, going to a movie or something else. A funny movie is even better – the Mayo Clinic reminds us that laughter relaxes muscles and stimulates circulation!
- Help others. Volunteering at a soup kitchen, walking dogs at a local shelter or practicing small, random acts of kindness are all great examples of things to do to give back. And if you’re not ready to venture out yet, seek microvolunteering as a way to give back from home in small but impactful ways.

We pray that each day brings you renewed energy to feeling more centered, less anxious, and more able to deal with the trauma you’re recovering from.

Everyone deserves to be in safe, healthy relationships. If you, or someone you know, may be in an abusive relationship, a path to safety exists. Get help. Call the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 800-799-SAFE or locally contact WINGS 24-hour Hotline at 847-221-5990.

GIVE BLOOD TODAY IN THE PC CAFETERIA

Gloria

Gloria! Glory to God in the highest. Glory!
Gloria to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory.
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty, Father, Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Holy Virgin Mary, one hemisphere, you are God, and by the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

Psalm Response

Sung Psalm Refrain:

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Gospel Acclamation

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (at words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

Share the Journey

On September 27th, Pope Francis launched a global campaign to support immigrants and refugees around the world called “Share the Journey.” Our brothers and sisters often make perilous journeys, leaving their homelands because they are forced to flee their homes to escape conflict, poverty, persecution, and violence. There are more refugees and internally displaced people now—over 65 million—than at any other time in recorded history. Our faith calls us to “love our neighbor,” to see Christ in those who are in greatest need, and to welcome newcomers seeking the security, peace, and opportunity they cannot find in their own countries.

We can join Pope Francis and the Church around the world, and share the journey with fellow children of God by:

- Joining the #sharejourney campaign on social media
- Say a daily prayer for all people, especially children, who have fled their homes in search of peace and safety.
- Support the work of local and international Catholic agencies, like Catholic Charities and Catholic Relief Services, who help to care for the needs of immigrants and refugees in the United States and around the world.
- Learn more about and get involved in the “Share the Journey” global migration campaign at: sharejourney.org
- Pray during the kickoff week of prayer and action for “Share the Journey—Oct. 7-13, 2017
- Also See: http://www.caritas.org/ for information.

St. James Retired Men’s Group

How lucky are we!! For our guest speaker this month we have our very own ROLAND G. LEY.

I am sure you all know how intelligent and glib Roland can be. So, this is one meeting you will not want to miss!

He will be leading us in a discussion of his pamphlet: “PLANNING FOR CATHOLICS.”

Remember, “If you fail to plan, you are planning to fail.”

See you at 10:00am in the Boardroom of the Parish Office on October 11th.
