A Reflection from….Fr. Derek Ho, Associate Pastor

October 9, 2016

Gospel Reflection: We are all busy but are we busy about the right things?

10 lepers cleansed… 1 open to true transformation… 9 too busy.

As Fall begins, so do many Faith Formation programs: Religious Education and Confirmation classes, RCIA, Christ Renews His Parish, Encounter, Small Christian Communities, Financial Peace University, and Catholic Meditation to name a few. These programs educate and form our parishioners to grow in their knowledge and love of God. With 60+ ministries spread among four commissions, St. James offers wonderful and diverse opportunities to learn more about our faith.

The only way the aforementioned ministries succeed though is if people desire enough to sign up and to grow in their personal relationship with God. The problem? Many don’t. It’s simply not enough of a priority for which to make time. Like the 9 lepers, they’re not mean about it…they just aren’t interested.

Many of our faith formation programs are rightly called catechesis- religious instruction given to men, women, or children to come to know God is real and that Jesus is the Son of God. But catechesis addresses the problem, “I don’t know” rather than the bigger problem, “I don’t care.”

That’s why we need evangelization first. If we try to catechize someone who doesn’t care, we will bore them. We will ultimately frustrate them (and ourselves) because we are giving them something they don’t want yet. Evangelization addresses “I don’t care” so that catechesis can then address “I don’t know.”

So what is Evangelization?

At the heart of evangelization is the awareness that Christianity is a religion of salvation. The very first thing we do at Mass is call to mind our sins. The cry heard by the lepers in this week’s Gospel is “Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!” We need to be saved! We all come to Jesus for healing but, like the 9 lepers, some are not able to actually encounter Jesus because they do not care enough. Once again, they’re not mean; they’re just too busy to care.

For those willing to actually admit their sinfulness and then their inability to fix themselves, well, that’s someone ripe for evangelization.

Evangelization is basically inviting lepers to encounter the person of Jesus Christ and open themselves to a new way of living. The Faith Formation Commission is dedicated to a renewed focus on evangelization so that we can experience true conversion, deepen our own personal relationship with God, and give others a reason to care.

Won’t you join us?

Father Derek

“One of them, realizing he had been healed, returned glorifying God.”

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty
maker of heaven and earth,

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

This Day God Gives Me

1. This day God gives me strength of high heaven,
   Sun and moon shining, flame in my hearth,
   Flashing of lightning, wind in its swiftness,
   Depths of the ocean, firmness of earth.

2. This day God sends me strength as my guardian,
   Might to uphold me, wisdom as guide.
   Your eyes are watchful, your ears are listening,
   Your lips are speaking, friend at my side.

3. God’s way is my way, God’s shield is ‘round me,
   God’s host defends me, saving from ill.
   Angels of heaven, drive from me always

Our October meeting will take place in the Parish Office Boardroom.

We will have three experts from the Village Bank and Trust of Arlington Heights speaking to us about Estate Planning, Trusts, and Stocks and Bonds.

Since they are experts, I’m sure they will be able to answer any questions you might have.

So….please join us on October 12th, at 10:00am!
