FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

April 1st
Easter Sunday
Come Celebrate
Mass in the CHURCH
Before Construction Begins
This 5th Sunday of Lent brings us closer to Holy Week, and the theme is clear already: death leads to resurrection. There are many times when our hearts and our minds look to the end of life and wonder if there really is anything beyond, even when our faith tells us about life in Jesus Christ.

It’s natural to be somewhat worried about that, right, especially if we are approaching death or some serious illness. It takes real faith, a strong, unshakeable, firm belief in Jesus; and not just a lukewarm feeling, but a genuine faith that has been lived out. A faith that is easy to recognize, a faith that is re-enforced when we do good deeds for others, and comes alive as we become: DISCIPLES.

Life after death is a gift from God, and not something that we merit by ourselves. We must be clear that what saves us is our faith in Jesus Christ, expressed in our love for God and one another. Not just faith, but faith that is alive. In James Chapter 2 we hear: “what good is it to profess our faith without practicing it? Faith that does nothing in practice, is thoroughly lifeless.” That is one of my favorite verses in Scripture.

If a person can come back to life after being truly dead - and especially someone like Lazarus (after four days!), as we hear today in John’s gospel -then we can begin to recognize that there is a power over life and death, and that our death, whenever that may be, is not the final word about life.

Life goes on after death...Life surely changes at our death...We hope that our faith, how we lived our lives, how closely we acted as Jesus did in caring for others, and helping those in need, as Jesus did, translates into everlasting life. Death is merely a transition point, from earthly life —> to life everlasting in heaven.

Today maybe we each could take a moment and reflect on the necessity of having that Spirit of Jesus ALIVE in us now. Maybe because of the busyness of our lives, the Spirit of Jesus inside of us has become somewhat subdued...stale...dormant...buried deep. Is our Spirit just a little rusty? It’s still there, but maybe it’s just not very active...maybe we need a little jump start?

There is still time in Lent to repent and prepare. There is still time to reflect and make changes. There is time to receive the grace and the overwhelming feeling of relief by going to the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The ability to wipe our slate clean, to clean up our souls, to begin again, to revive it, to get back on track...and to fully prepare for Easter.

Faith Formation

Exploring the Diaconate
Archdiocese of Chicago

The call of the Holy Spirit to consider a vocation may sometimes be a gentle voice stirring the soul or a personal longing in our hearts. It may be the urging of friends or spouses. It can also find birth in the invitation of pastors, deacons and parish leaders to pursue such an inquiry. No matter the source of our questions, each of us needs to be affirmed and encouraged to bring a call to a vocation to prayerful discernment. The Institute for Diaconal Studies (IDS) invites all men who feel the gentle nudge of the Holy Spirit to attend an Exploring the Diaconate session. It is a time to pray, discuss, and learn more about the discernment process and the formation program that aspirants and candidates pursue. Please join us, with your wives, if married, as we explore the potential of a vocation, engage in dialogue and pray in search of the next step. All are welcome to attend any of the sessions. No registration required.

U.S. Bishops' Migration Chairman Urges Immediate “Humane Solution” for Dreamers After Supreme Court Decision

On February 26, the U.S. Supreme Court declined the government's request to hear its "appeal before judgment" on the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrival (DACA) cases. Accordingly, the lower court injunctions in California and New York, DACA cases remain in effect nationally and DACA renewals remain available to those who currently have DACA status.

In response to the Supreme Court decision, Bishop Joe S. Vásquez of Austin, Chairman of the Committee on Migration, stated: "Monday's Supreme Court decision does not reduce the urgency of finding an immediate legislative solution for Dreamers, people who were brought to the United States as children and have known only our country as their home. The anxiety and uncertainty that Dreamers and their families face remain unabated. Monday was our National Call-in Day for Dreamers, when thousands of Catholics urged their leaders in Congress to protect Dreamers. These faithful took action because they recognize that protecting these young people from deportation is an issue of human life and dignity, and that a legislative solution is necessary to make that protection durable. My brother Bishops and I continue to call upon Congress to work towards a bipartisan and humane solution as soon as possible." http://www.usccb.org/news/2018/10-043.cfm

Every stranger who knocks at our door is an opportunity for an encounter with Jesus Christ, who identifies with the welcomed and rejected strangers of every age (Matthew 25:35-46). The Lord entrusts to the Church the mercy that every person forced to leave their homeland in search of a better future. This solidarity must be concretely expressed at every stage of the migratory experience — from departure through journey to arrival and return. This is a great responsibility, which the Church intends to share with all believers and men and women of good will.

- Pope Francis, Message for the 104th World Day of Migrants and Refugees, 2018

What is DACA? On June 15, 2012, the Secretary of Homeland Security announced...that certain individuals who came to the United States as children and met several guidelines could request consideration for deferred action through the newly initiated Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program. DACA was patterned after the DREAM Act, bipartisan legislation that was introduced more than a decade ago but has never become law. The purpose of DACA was to utilize prosecutorial discretion to provide undocumented persons who were brought to the United States when they were children with temporary relief from deportation (deferred action) and work authorization...The status expires after two years, subject to renewal.

Why is a legislative solution needed? The Administration ended DACA on September 5th, allowing one-time renewal for those whose status was set to expire between September 5th and March 5, 2018. While this termination is now the subject of litigation and a nationwide preliminary injunction, this injunction or halt, is currently only partial and temporary. Congress, however, could permanently protect Dreamers who are contributing to our nation — and provide them with a path to citizenship — through legislation.

Who are Dreamers? Dreamers exemplify the extraordinary contributions that immigrants can provide to our nation. These young people are contributors to our economy; veterans of our military, academic standouts in our universities, and leaders in our parishes. Dreamers are woven into the fabric of our country and of our Church, and are, by every social and human measure, American youth.

USCCB POSITION: As Catholics, we believe that the dignity of every human being, particularly that of our children and youth, must be protected. ... As Bishop Joe S. Vásquez of Austin, Texas, Chairman of the Committee on Migration (USCCB.COM), recently stated: "As a nation, we have a moral and humanitarian obligation to Dreamers. These young people have steadfastly worked to improve themselves and our country and attempted in good faith to comply with the law as it stood. Their futures hang in the balance. We stand ready to work with the President and with Congress in the coming days to help fashion a just solution that meets their needs, ensures our nation's safety and security, and sets the stage for the larger debate on immigration reform that is so urgently and desperately needed." http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-activities/human-life-and-dignity/dreamers-refugees-and-travellers/backgrounders-on-daca.cfm

February, Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month, was busy for Stepping Stones. We created a display that was on view at the Arlington Heights Memorial Library throughout the month. The “window” consisted of print materials [Relationship Spectrum, Best Dating Partner, Healthy Relationship Quiz, Build a Healthy Relationship, Dating Rights, Dating Abuse and Emergency Resources] as well as Barbie and Ken and other “props” on a teen dating theme.

On February 23, we held a viewing and discussion at St. James. The documentary, The Empowerment Project, followed an all-female film crew across the country as they interviewed eight women who have succeeded in their professions. The panel, local and parish women holding prominent positions in their fields, shared impressions of the movie, spoke of their paths to their current roles and the people who influenced them and how they balance work and personal lives. The evening ended with a brief presentation on NORTHWEST CASA’s work, a raffle, Photo Booth and pizza party. About 50 adults and youth attended.

As a team, Stepping Stones would like to recognize and thank the individuals, organizations and businesses who helped us to carry off these “events”:

Library Display: AHML Staff (Carol Ng-He), St. Edna & Our Lady of the Wayside DV Ministries, Michael Gaggiano (sports props), Allison Fiore (Barbie & Ken…) and Office Depot

The Empowerment Project: St. James Staff (Liz & Carol), St. James School, Sylvia Hipple (St. Hubert), OLW DV Ministry (Barb Condon & Jean Simpson), Darlyn Goodwin (Photo Booth), Brigid Devery & Kathy Ponce (publicity) panelists – Denise Brown, Jennifer Stanhope & Margherita Ungaro, Jessica Caccavallo (NORTHWEST CASA), MUG’S Pizza, COSTCO, Office Depot & Dollar Tree.
During the Lenten Season, there is no Opening Hymn or Gloria. Our sung prayers reflect the solemn nature of the season. The moments of silence in our liturgies heighten the music already present in the Mass.

Confiteor

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault,
through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary
ever-virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by
the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.  Amen.

Sung Psalm Refrain:

Create a clean heart in me, O God. Create a clean heart in me.

5PM Sunday Mass (Third Scrutiny):

With the Lord there is mercy, and fullness of redemption.

Refrain

Un- less a grain of wheat shall fall up-on the ground and die,

1. if we hold firm, we shall reign with him.
2. where- ever I am, my ser-vants will be.

4. then you will be my dis-ci-ples.

I Am the Bread of Life

1. I am the Bread of life. You who come to me shall not hunger; and who believe in me shall not thirst. No one can come to eat of this bread, and live for ever, unless the Father beckons.

2. The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you believe in me, even though you die, you shall live for ever. And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

3. Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and believe you are the Christ, no one can come to eat of this bread, and live for ever, unless the Father beckons.

4. I am the Resurrection, If you believe in me, even though you die, you shall have life within you. And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

5. Yes, Lord, I believe that...
My name is Don Duffey. I was born in western Illinois but raised in north central Missouri. We moved back to western Illinois my senior year of high school. Neither of my parents were raised with a religious focus, and I wasn’t raised with much religious education. We chopped wood on most Sundays to heat our house and my dad’s auto body shop. We claimed to be Protestants when the subject came-up, but it wasn’t something that was discussed too much. After college, I moved to the Chicago area in the mid-90s for a job. A few years later, I met my wife, Amy at work. We have 3 children ages 11, 9, and 7. We moved to Arlington Heights in 2001 and Amy, a Catholic, soon joined St. James. All three of our kids were baptized at St. James and attend St. James religious education classes, where Amy also volunteers.

As we’ve attended masses over the years, I’ve become more curious about God and the Catholic faith. Coupled with my promise during our marriage vows to support Amy to raise our children in the Catholic faith, it seemed like a great time to become more acquainted with God, Jesus, and Catholicism through the RCIA program. I learned about the program over the summer from a colleague who also is a RCIA team member at St. James. I’ve enjoyed the journey to-date and am looking forward to completing this chapter of my life while becoming closer to Jesus.

Hi St. James, my name is Chris Kalweit. I grew up in Elk Grove Village and was baptized and confirmed Lutheran. My parents gave us a very nice religious upbringing, but I can't say that I was a huge "church goer". I met my wife, Trish, while we attended Northern Illinois University. Trish was born and raised Catholic, and we were later married in 2001 at Our Lady of Wayside Parish, where we began attending regular mass together. Occasionally we would attend Lutheran church so I could receive the Eucharist.

We have lived in Arlington Heights since 2001 and now have three children, Chris (12), Connor (10) and Kathryn (5). With a very full work schedule and three very busy children, we began attending the 5 PM Sunday Mass at St. James or, as my wife likes to call it, "last call". We both found that we enjoyed the "positive energy" of the St. James Parish and Mass right away. From the personal welcoming received from Father Matt and Father Derek... to the messages of the homilies...to the spirit of the music...we felt as though Mass became more of a "call to action" than "going through the motions".

We decided to join St. James Parish in 2016 and our boys have enjoyed the religious education program here as well. The Open Doors Ministry is a wonderful ministry and another big component of our decision to become parishioners here at St. James. The ministry has gone above and beyond for our son Connor to receive the most from his religious education and we wish to thank all involved.

With all of these factors, I felt a calling to begin a religious education journey myself. On my birthday this past September, I told my wife that I planned to check out the first RCIA meeting. I think she was more shocked than I was. It had been something that had been on my mind for some time and you realize if you don't make time for something, it is not going to happen. From my first meeting, I have been so impressed and happy with the program. There is no pressure and the meetings are extremely well planned and organized by "the team". The group is fun to be with and I find that I look forward to Wednesday evenings and some personal time dedicated to spirituality. Words cannot describe how excited I am to becoming "official" at the Easter vigil and participating in the Eucharist with my wife and sponsor, Trish. We want to thank the St. James parish and RCIA group for all their prayers and guidance on this journey.
Hello my name is Allyson Jannotta. I am originally from Texas and was raised in the Methodist Church. My uncle is a Methodist minister and was very influential in my religious upbringing. You could say he was our “go to guy” for my Baptism, our family weddings, funerals and other events in our family’s life. His sermons often included stories from time we spent with my aunt, uncle, and cousins. My husband’s father is a permanent deacon at Thomas Becket in Mount Prospect. Tony and I were married in Dallas in 2001 at the Cathedral Guadalupe with a priest, my uncle, and his father officiating. Since we have moved to Arlington Heights, my in-laws have played an inspirational part of my life and I admire both of their work in social justice in the Catholic Church. This has led to my interest in RCIA and in learning more about Catholicism.

I have enjoyed the RCIA experience and the guidance from Fr. Derek and the RCIA leaders and would like to thank them for all their hard work in making this a meaningful experience.

At the end of my RCIA journey, I will continue my spiritual exploration with a trip to Spain in June where I will be a pilgrim hiking the spiritual path of the Camino de Santiago or The Way of Saint James. This is the trek to the shrine of the apostle Saint James to the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela. Looking forward to a Buen Camino!

My name is Jacob Staar. I grew up in Mt. Prospect, IL in a Christian home. I attended Lutheran school and church for many years. I met my wife, Betsy in 2004. We were married in 2010 and moved to Arlington Heights. I began to attend mass at St James periodically with my wife, who was raised in the Catholic faith. Betsy and I have a few friends who attend St. James and as we participated in St. James activities we became close with a few other couples. It became clear that as we begin to grow our family, I wanted to get more involved with the church. I joined RCIA to learn more about Catholicism so I can be knowledgeable about my faith and educate our future children.

Weekly Intentions

Our Charity
Aid for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe
During the month of March, our charity is the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. Those living in Central and Eastern Europe often face poverty, infrequent pastoral care, and lack of spaces for worship, presenting challenges as they try to live a life of faith. Your support of the Church in Central and Eastern Europe helps provide grants for projects to restore the Church and build the future in these areas.

Open Our Hearts In Welcome......

This month we saw the old school close the doors for the last time. With the asbestos removal going on, it is one step closer to demolition. While it is sad to see it go, it is so exciting to know we are getting closer to the start of construction! At the same time, we are receiving bids for new pews and a new sound system. The new plans also include reinstalling the hearing loop that is currently in our existing Church for those with hearing aids and hearing impairments. By the way, did you know that in preparation for all the masses to be held in the Parish Center after Easter we installed a hearing system in the PC? Check out a device in the sacristy to work with hearing aids or add one of the provided earbuds or earphones to help if you just have a hard time hearing.
