Open Our Hearts In Welcome......

Last weekend we had our Groundbreaking and Blessing event. While the weather prevented us from being on site, it was nice to see so many of our parishioners come out to celebrate the beginning of our project in the Parish Center. As you can see by the pictures, a good time was had by all! This last month we saw the fences go up and the asbestos removed from the Church. As we prepare for the school demolition, we will be installing a camera to provide a live feed of the entire project. We will share the link through our website and all social media. STAY TUNED!
A Reflection...from Deacon Matt Hahn

April 22, 2018

The article written by Carol Anderson reflecting on the Wheels To Worship (W2W) ministry was a fantastic read. If you didn’t read it, it was in the bulletin for Divine Mercy Sunday, the April 8th issue of the bulletin; get on the parish website and check it out. Carol’s words and reflections seem to fit perfectly well with the lesson of the Good Shepherd that Jesus teaches us in today’s Gospel passage (John 10: 11-18). Jesus tells us that he will lay down his life for the sheep, as a good shepherd will do. But he goes even further by saying that there are “other sheep that do not belong to this fold.” Is Jesus, by his example, teaching us to serve others…even those who do not necessarily fall in to the flock with whom we worship? Of course, he is. Carol’s ministry serves the flock that would not ordinarily be able to get to our worship celebrations…they would be outside our flock if not for W2W, were it not for the W2W ministry.

But “What’s in it for me?” you might be asking. Well, make yourself feel good! What came through to me in reading Carol’s reflection, and reading about the experiences of the drivers, is that the drivers are getting a great reward for driving for W2W. Honestly, that’s how it is whenever we serve others. Whenever we make ourselves the shepherd of others, we get much more in return than what we give others. Ultimately, as shepherds, we get a great feeling that is rooted in the teachings of Christ, namely to serve others.

Yes, I am encouraging you to make yourself feel good. Feel good because of the service you provide to others. Nearly 70 ministries are active within our community. Get involved; serve others. For more information visit our website at http://www.stjamesah.org/ministry-guide/.

Reverend Matthew Foley
St. James Parish
820 N. Arlington Heights Rd.
Arlington Heights, IL 60004-5866

Dear Father Foley,

We are an Easter People and Alleluia is our song! Let us give thanks to the risen Lord Jesus who has given us the hope of resurrection.

With a joy which impels them to tell the Good News, the parishioners of St. James Parish of Arlington Heights begin today an expansion and renovation of the parish’s church building. The desire is to bring all to Christ, and to become one community in worship and in response to his mandatum.

I know you will bear some inconvenience during this renovation and change. May you be patient and loving, and may this church building renovation bring new openness and unity to the St. James Parish community. May you, parishioners of St. James Parish, always be an example of Christ to each other.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend George Rassas
Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by
the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,

Gathering Song

The King of Love My Shepherd Is

1. The King of love my shepherd is, Whose goodness
2. Where streams of living water flow My ransomed
3. Confused and foolish oft I strayed, But yet in
4. In death’s dark vale I fear no ill With you, dear
5. You spread a table in my sight; Your saving
6. And so through all the length of days Your goodness fails me never; I nothing lack if soul he’s leading, And where the verdant

love he sought me; And on his shoulder Lord, beside me, Your rod and staff my grace be stowing; And O what transport fails me never; Good Shepherd, may I

I am his, And he is mine for ever.
pastures grow With food celestial feeding.
gently laid, And home, rejoicing, brought me.
comfort still, Your cross before to guide me.
of delight From your pure chalice flowing!
sing your praise With in your house for ever.

Closing Song

REFRAIN

O taste, taste and see the goodness of God, the blessings of God.

1. I will sing God’s praises all the days that I shall live.
   My soul will glory in my God,
   the lowly will hear and be glad.
   O glorify God’s name with me,
   together let us rejoice.

2. For God has heard my anguished cries,
   and delivered me from all my foes.
   O look to God that you might shine,
   your faces be radiant with joy.

3. When the poor cry out, God hears and saves them,
   rescues them from their distress.
   God’s angel watches near to those who look to their God to save them.

4. O taste and see that God is good,
   how happy the ones who find refuge.
   The mighty shall grow weak and hungry,
   those who seek God lack nothing.

5. Come, my children, hear me,
   I will teach you the fear of God.
   Come, all of you who thirst for life
   and seek joy in all of your days.

6. For God is close to the brokenhearted,
   near to those crushed in spirit.
   The hand of God redeems your life,
   a refuge for all those who seek.

Field trips today consist of an “educational experience” for students outside of the classroom. It’s a hands-on, concrete learning experience that leads to greater understanding and knowledge of the content areas being covered in school. This can include the subject areas of reading, writing, math, science, social studies, art and even music! For example, while visiting a science museum, students are challenged to make predictions, compare and contrast the information presented to them, as well as make observations and draw conclusions. Or, while visiting a historical museum, students have the opportunity to become more civilized young men and women who are forming critical thinking skills, exhibiting historical empathy, and displaying tolerance. Sometimes during a field trip, teachers provide a hand-out for students to complete, making sure they are fully understanding the experience. A major advantage of spending the day in a different learning environment is the ability to cater to a variety of learning styles. In the field trip setting, children can succeed whether they are visual, auditory or kinetic learners.

Popular field trip destinations include nature centers, local community agencies, museums, theater, and Chicago! Students learn about different professions and opportunities available in today’s workplace. At the same time, a field trip has the potential to awaken a student’s desire to try new things and pursue previously unconsidered dreams. Sometimes a field trip can simply provide a means to serve others. A trip to a nursing home encourages students to practice being compassionate and empathetic. It also allows them to work on their social skills by being a good listener. This type of trip opens student’s eyes to the importance of having a lifelong commitment to help others. No matter what kind of field trip students take, they gain new insights into the world around them and they come to appreciate the importance of their roles in our global society.
