The kingdom of God is like a mustard seed that is the smallest of all the seeds. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants.

Mark 4:31-32
Plants come in all shapes and sizes: flowers, grasses, weeds, bushes, trees, fruits, and vegetables, but they all have one thing in common: all plants come from seeds.

Jesus tells his disciples in today’s gospel the parable about the mustard seed, one of the smallest seeds…and yet the smallest seeds turn into such large, majestic bushes and trees. What is this parable supposed to mean to us today?

A tiny seed can not turn into a majestic tree or enormous bush unless it stops being a seed; the seed must die, and be transformed into a blade, a stalk, or a small shoot as it changes, evolves, and grows into something greater.

The seed can’t do it on its own. It needs soil, water, sunlight, and freedom to grow without being stomped on, eaten, run over, or destroyed. If the seed is supported and nurtured, it can thrive. The seed dies and becomes something greater. So can we!

A part of each one of us has to die before we can be transformed and changed into something more powerful, more helpful, more caring, more compassionate, more loving—that part of our “human-ness” that is inherent in most every human being. That element of our being that is generally a bit self-centered, self-focused, that wants us to satisfy “it”—whatever the latest “it” is. Designer clothes, fancy cars, exotic vacations—whatever scratches our “itch”. But if we are able to curb our appetite and harness that desire to always want more, possess more, if we can control our consumption for excess, that part of our “human-ness” dies as we begin the change process that Jesus has in mind for all of us— to become more aware of the needs of others and slowly transform into true followers of Christ.

Just as seeds die and change into majestic trees, we too can change into caring and compassionate believers of Jesus. Over time, as our relationship with Christ deepens and is nurtured, we can become disciples that lead the way for others to follow, and set an example for others on how to live out their lives the way Jesus has asked us to do. Our Heavenly Father lead the way by sharing His Son with us, so that Jesus could show us the way, and so we could also show others the way.

Many of us have, or had, fathers or significant men in our lives that have led the way for us, by providing countless examples of how to act, who helped guide us, support us, instill our faith in us, and demonstrate for us how we are supposed to live our lives and treat others. They nurtured us and allowed us to be transformed.

We remember these outstanding role models in our lives that helped transform us, and that helped us become the followers of Jesus Christ that we are today, for that, we must all be grateful.

Happy Fathers Day, and may God Bless all these important men in our lives who helped form us, by their example, on our faith journey.

Deacon Tom Westerkamp

Anointing Masses - June 23/24th

This sacrament will be after the Saturday 5pm Mass and after the Sunday 11:30am Mass.

In the Church’s Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, through the ministry of the priest, it is Jesus who touches the sick to heal them from sin – and sometimes even from physical ailment. His cures were signs of the arrival of the Kingdom of God. The core message of his healing tells us of his plan to conquer sin and death by his dying and rising.

The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. A careful judgment about the serious nature of the illness is sufficient.

When the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is given, the hoped-for effect is that, if it be God’s will, the person be physically healed of illness. But even if there is no physical healing, the primary effect of the Sacrament is a spiritual healing by which the sick person receives the Holy Spirit’s gift of peace and courage to deal with the difficulties that accompany serious illness or the frailty of old age.

+A Father’s Prayer to the Holy Spirit+

Come, Holy Spirit, guide me along Your paths. I am blessed to have been entrusted with the care of a dear wife and children. They deserve a man of character, of wisdom and virtue.

Enlighten my mind, strengthen my will, uproot from my heart the pride and selfishness that lead to sin. Draw me to prayer; prompt me to turn to You often each day, so that all my actions and decisions, whether minor or of great significance, may be infused with Your light and Your grace. I ask this in Your holy name. Amen.

Stepping Stones would like to wish all those men, who have fathered, mentored, or guided us, a most happy and blessed Father’s Day. May Jesus be the model for how you live this life.

Prayer taken from A Father’s Prayerbook by Leaflet Missal Co. Used with permission.

Fun!
Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.
