The Gospel foreshadows the mission that every believer will embark on for every generation to come. My faith came to me through all the generations, through all the nationalities, and through all the years, by the witness of my faith ancestors.

The Twelve Apostles Jesus sent out were not experts. In Mark’s Gospel, this story happens in chapter six of sixteen. The apostles had only been with Jesus a relatively short time, and they had not experienced Christ’s passion, death, and resurrection, nor had they received the Holy Spirit, but their time with Jesus was filled with observing Him at work. He had thrown demons out of many people; cured Simon’s mother-in-law & many others of illness; taught about the coming of the Kingdom of God; the need for people to change their hearts. Jesus had even raised the synagogue official’s daughter from the dead.

The Twelve saw all this, but in today’s Gospel, Jesus sent them out as witnesses despite the fact that they were not experts. They were told what to do, but did not have detailed instructions nor a masters degree in theology. Maybe this is a little bit like us. We have experienced Jesus, but may not feel expert enough to go out proclaiming the Gospel, praying with people for their healing.

Now going out, witnessing like an apostle can be a scary thing, but we can be a witness without being an expert. We know the basics. We have experienced Jesus, and we have had life experience doing things for which we were not completely qualified. We have all been over our heads at times in jobs, parenting, school, and etc. To carry on the apostles’ work, we don’t have to be experts; we just need to be witnesses.

Pope Paul VI said, "Modern man listens more willingly to witnesses than to teachers, and if he does listen to teachers, it is because they are witnesses."

Be a witness; Tell the people you know how faith has helped in your life: how Jesus gives life direction and meaning, how he heals, and how he keeps the demons away. It can be a simple and direct message. People need desperately to hear your witness.

Now we can be concerned that we won’t be successful, and that is fair enough. Jesus knew that even the Twelve would not be successful with everyone. That is why he told them it was okay to shake the dust off their sandals and move on. That is why they took only a walking stick and sandals, so they could move on to the next opportunity.

Now maybe expecting that we can be successful like our faith ancestors feels unrealistic. After all, they were in direct contact with Jesus, but so are we. Jesus said in Matthew 28:20, “And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.” Jesus is present in the Sacred Scripture that we just read. He is present among us whenever two or more are gathered in His name. And he is most especially present to us in the Eucharist when we share His body, blood, soul, and divinity at every Mass. So we have all the grace we need to be witnesses.

Our faith ancestors passed on the faith out of Israel across the world for over 2,000 years. Now it is our turn to be witnesses, even if we are not experts. That is the obligation of every Christian. We will have successes and failures. So be it. Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord!

Religious Liberty for All Americans
(including Child Welfare Providers who serve the needs of children)

Please ask your congressman and senators to support the Child Welfare Inclusion Act (HR1881 and SB811)

- It would ensure that child welfare providers can continue providing services in accordance with their religious beliefs.
- It respects the birth mother’s choice of adoption agency or adoption family to whom she entrusts her child.
- It prevents displacement of children to other overburdened agencies – faith based agencies (e.g., Catholic Charities) have shut down in Illinois, Massachusetts, California, and the District of Columbia.

~ It respects marriage as God intended ~
~ It Keeps Kids First! ~

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow when reciting words in bold)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Mass of Renewal
Curtis Stephan

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Amos said, “The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people” (Amos 7:12-15).

Psalm — Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation (Psalm 85).

Second Reading — The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing (Ephesians 1:3-14 [3-10]).

Gospel — Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two (Mark 6:7-13).

Gathering Song

This Day God Gives Me

1. This day God gives me Strength of high heaven,
2. This day God sends me Strength as my guardian,
3. God’s way is my way, God’s shield is ‘round me,
4. Rising I thank you, Mighty and strong One,

Sun and moon shining, Flame in my hearth,
Might to uphold me, Wisdom as guide.
God’s host defends me, Saving from ill.
King of creation, Giver of rest,

Flashing of lightning, Wind in its swiftness,
Your eyes are watchful, Your ears are listening,
Angels of heaven, Drive from me always
Firmly confessing God in three Persons,

Depths of the ocean, Firmness of earth.
Your lips are speaking, Friend at my side.
All that would harm me, Stand by me still.
Oneness of God-head, Trinity blest.

Communion Song

Take and Eat

Refrain

Take and eat; take and eat: this is my bod - y giv-en up for you. Take and drink; take and drink:
this is my blood giv - en up for you.

Verses

1. I am the Word that spoke and light was made;
2. I am the way that leads the ex - ile home;
3. I am the Lamb that takes a - way your sin;
4. I am the cor - ner - stone that God has laid;
5. I am the light that came in - to the world;
6. I am the first and last, the Liv - ing One;

I am the seed that died to be re - born;
I am the truth that sets the cup - tive free;
I am the gate that guards you night and day;
A cho - sen stone and pre - cious in his eyes;
I am the light that dark - ness can - not hide;
I am the Lord who died that you might live;

I am the bread that comes from heav’n a - bove;
I am the life that rais - es up the dead;
You are my flock: you know the shep - herd’s voice;
You are God’s dwell - ing place, on me you rest;
I am the morn - ing star that nev - er sets;
I am the bride-groom, this my wed - ding song:

D.C.

I am the vine that fills your cup with joy.
I am your peace, true peace my gift to you.
You are my own: your ran - som is my blood.
Like liv - ing stones, a tem - ple for God’s praise.
Lift up your face, in you my light will shine.
You are my bride, come to the mar - riage feast.
We Are Called

1. Come! Live in the light! Shine with the joy and the love of the Lord! We are called to be light for the kingdom, to live in the freedom of the city of God!

2. Come! Open your heart! Show your mercy to all those in fear! We are called to be hope for the hopeless so all hatred and blindness will be no more!

3. Sing! Sing a new song! Sing of that great day when all will be one! God will reign, and we’ll walk with each other as sisters and brothers united in love!

We are called to act with justice, we are called to love tenderly, we are called to serve one another; to walk humbly with God!

Our Charity

Our charity for the month of July is the Summer Mission Appeal of the Archdiocese of Chicago, which supports the work of various missions throughout the world.

We thank you for your donations to our parish’s weekly collections.

CALLED BY GOD

Today’s scriptures invite us to listen to two calls. The first is the call issued by the LORD to the prophet Amos, the “shepherd and a dresser of sycamores” (Amos 7:14). The second is the call the Lord Jesus issued to the Twelve, whom he sent out “two by two” (Mark 6:7). These faithful people responded to the call, prophesying and preaching to the people to whom they had been sent. Each of us received a call when we were baptized. The second reading invites us to ponder that call as we are reminded that we are chosen in Christ and that, in love, God “destined us for adoption” (Ephesians 1:5). As adopted daughters and sons of God we are called to bring the presence of Christ into our marriages, families, schools, and places of work. Let us be inspired today to say yes to the call we hear once again through God’s living word.
