Celebrating Backyard Masses
July 22, 2018

I hope you and your families are enjoying the summer and finding time for rest and relaxation. I recently finished a short book by Josef Pieper, a German theologian, called Leisure is the Basis of Culture. According to Pieper, leisure is a “mental and spiritual attitude...an attitude of non-activity, of inward calm, of silence; it means not being ‘busy’, but letting things happen.”

Opposing 20th-century Marxist ideology of the proletariat who find meaning purely in work, Pieper describes the masses as adopting a worker mentality characterized by:
- extreme tendency to work
- readiness to suffer to no end
- completely absorbed by utility-production

To the worker, leisure is lazy, strange, and to be avoided as utter idleness. On the contrary, Pieper calls us away from work, adopting leisure as a fundamental attitude of the mind. Any type of celebration is rest from work, but the highest form of leisure is not found in a nap or a vacation, but the exercise of our spiritual capacity (now re-read the definition of leisure above. Sounds a lot like true prayer!) For the Christian, Sundays are specially marked off, set aside, and reserved for God, not for work. One must escape the lower “world of work” and the enormous pressure placed on the individual to perform, to create, and to consume.

Before you know it, school will begin, leaves will change, ice will form, and long summer nights will be a distant memory. Unable to rest properly, let us find renewal - not only reserving Sundays for worship and rest, but also- by escaping a worker mentality through daily prayer. Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.

Peace be with you,
Fr Derek

P.S. Come visit Jesus! During construction, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays is offered in the St James School chapel from 4-8 pm.
Liturgy and Worship

Hi everyone,

My name is Ben Rahimi and I will be your resident seminarian for this year, which basically means I am here to help out wherever I am needed. I am originally from Palatine so, like many of you, I can relate to the experience of growing up in the Northwest suburbs. I am the oldest of four boys who, believe it or not, get along pretty splendidly. I love to cook and enjoy reading, writing, and hanging out with friends and family. I attended St. Theresa School in Palatine and Northridge Preparatory School in Niles from 6th through 12th grade. After high school, I attended the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign where I studied Accounting and Finance. After college, I accepted a job at a consulting firm downtown where I worked as a tax and advisory consultant to companies going through mergers. My corporate career was cut short when I felt God calling me to serve Him in a different way – as a priest. I left my job downtown and entered Mundelein Seminary where I studied philosophy for two years. After this time I was asked by Cardinal George to study theology in Rome at the Gregorian University. For the last three years I have been in the Eternal City and have had a chance to see the universality of our faith and the good that the Catholic Church does around the world. I am excited to be serving at St. James for this year and I look forward to getting to know you all in the time ahead. Be assured of my daily prayers for you and your intentions as we all strive to become missionary disciples, a people sent on mission to bring the world to Jesus Christ.

Parish office will have SUMMER HOURS

St James Welcomes Our New Parish Children’s Choir Director

“Hi, I’m Natalie Conseur, this fall I will begin as Parish Children’s Choir Director. I’m thrilled to help the children develop their voices and express their praise and love through music. I hold a Master’s Degree in Music and I have been working as a professional musician for nearly 20 years. I have four children of my own. I love music, love singing, and I love the Lord! I am blessed to have Susan Chappell working alongside me as the accompanist for the Children’s Choir. She has been playing at St. James for years, and she is a wonderful musician and person.”

Once again this fall our children’s choir will meet to rehearse on Wednesday afternoons, starting right after Labor Day. The choir is open to any and all students, grades 2-5. We sing at Mass twice per month. Rehearsals will take place each Wednesday in the music room at St. James from 4-5 pm.
Parish Stewardship

Financial Stewardship
Thank you for investing in the mission of St. James Parish. We are grateful for your generosity and the sacrifices you make on behalf of the parish and all those we serve. Following is the financial stewardship report for the month of June.

Cardinal Cupich launched a Violence Prevention Initiative in 2017 to address the increased violence in our communities. The Vicariate 1 Ministry Commission, in its effort to support this initiative, is offering an immersion experience to Chicago’s Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation and Kolbe House Jail Ministry.

Who Should Attend? Parish staff and lay leaders who are committed to learning more about the cycle of violence and programs that are assisting communities that know and care for each other. You will experience restorative justice in action and come away with concrete ideas for your parish to support successful programs already making an impact. There is no cost to participate however space is limited.

Schedule:
- Arrive at Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation
- Depart for Kolbe House Jail Ministry
- Mass at Assumption BVM
- Depart for Holy Family Family

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

Ragtime The Musical, performed at St. James this summer, tells the story of three groups whose lives intertwine in early 1900’s America: African-Americans, an upper-class white family, and Eastern European immigrants. The themes of Ragtime illuminate some of our Catholic Social Teachings:

Ragtime Moment

TATEH - an Immigrant father (singing): Look at my daughter. God. / Why have you brought us here? / How can I feed her or clothe / or protect her here? / Where’s the America / We were supposed to get? / Was it a silhouette?

“Option for the Poor and Vulnerable”

A basic moral test is how our most vulnerable members are faring. In a society marred by deepening divisions between rich and poor, our tradition recalls the story of the Last Judgment (Mt 25:31-46) and instructs us to put the needs of the poor and vulnerable first.

Ragtime Moment

TATEH - an Immigrant father: One afternoon, watching his children play, Tateh had an idea for a movie: a bunch of children, white, black, Christian, Jew, rich, poor - all kinds - a gang, a crazy gang getting into trouble, getting out of trouble, but together despite their differences. He was sure it would make a wonderful movie - a dream of what this country could be. He would be first in line to see it.

“Solidarity”

We are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers and sisters keepers, wherever they may be. Loving our neighbor has global dimensions in a shrinking world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace. Pope Paul VI taught that if you want peace, work for justice. The Gospel calls us to be peacemakers. Our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we promote peace in a world surrounded by violence and conflict.

Ragtime Moment

PEOPLE OF HARLEM (singing): It’s a day of peace / A day of pride / A day of justice / We have been denied / When a man can live / And a child can play / We’ll never get to heaven / Till we reach that day.

“Rights and Responsibilities”

The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities— to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

Parish Stewardship Prayer

I AM Stewardship Prayer

My parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly, if I am. It will be holy, if I am. Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them. It will do great work, if I work. It will be prayerful, if I pray. It will make generous gifts to many causes, if I am a generous giver.

It will bring others into worship, if I invite and bring them in.

It will be a place of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, of compassion, charity, and mercy, if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with the help of God, I now dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow when reciting words in bold)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

You Satisfy the Hungry Heart

Refrain

You satisfy the hungry heart With gift of finest wheat;

Come give to us, O saving Lord, The bread of life to eat.

Verses

1. As when the shepherd calls his sheep, They know and heed his voice; So when you call your family, Lord, We follow and rejoice.
2. With joyful lips we sing to you Our praise and gratitude, That you should count us worthy, Lord, To share this heav’n-ly food.

REST IN THE LORD
For several weeks we have listened to readings that have recounted just how arduous the work of prophets and disciples can be. In today’s Gospel, the Lord Jesus listens to the reports of those he had sent out “two by two” to minister to the people. After the apostles reported what they had done, Jesus, recognizing their fatigue, says, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile” (Mark 6:31). Perhaps this is what the Lord is telling his disciples in the year 2018 as well. We need to pause on our journey of discipleship and simply rest in the Lord. Sunday Mass provides many opportunities for quiet times, particularly during the periods of silence following the readings. Why not take the time today to allow the saving word of the Lord to penetrate your heart during those silent times? Ask the Lord to renew you in body, mind, and spirit for the arduous work of discipleship.
