“Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me.”

Certainly, these words provide comfort when someone we love passes from this life to a prayed-for eternal life. However, these words should also provide us living our earthly lives to live more fully…to live life to the fullest we can!

This past summer has been quite difficult. We lost a well-liked swim- and water polo coach; a young student from a local high school was killed in a tragic and senseless traffic accident; and, this past weekend Chicago lived down to its reputation as one of the most violent and deadliest places to live. Add to all of this our own personal struggles and one might ask, “Why?”

Well…because “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.” That’s why! Although this passage from the Evangelist John comes a few chapters before the current Bread of Life Discourse that we have been hearing recently, it still provides us with a valid point. Yes, we pray that we have eternal life through Jesus, but let not that “eternal life” wait until we pass from our earthly lives.

So often we (and I am quite guilty of this…just ask my lovely bride and wonderful children) tend to live our earthly lives as though it is mere drudgery. We wait for something better to happen…we wait for “things” to go our way…perhaps we even wait for our passing from this life to the next. In essence, we are “dead” to this life and we appear “dead” to those around us.

I can’t imagine that Our Lord and Savior would want us to live our earthly lives impatient, unhappy, or dissatisfied. We “do not know the hour” that we will be called from this life to the next; this summer has taught my family this lesson very, very well. And personally, I struggled mightily early this summer, but I have been blessed with a wonderful wife who taught me the value of life…yes…but also the covenant that we have with God to live this earthly life to its fullest. I am so very thankful for the presence and prayers of my loving family these past several weeks! I am so very thankful for the presence and prayers of this St. James Community!

“This is the bread that came down from heaven.” Take the Body of Christ…take this bread…because the one who feeds on this bread will have life. Let not our lives be so filled with impatience, unhappiness, or dissatisfaction that we don’t see the love of God right here…right now…right before our very eyes. Eternal life starts right now!
THINKING ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC?

R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for all adults who:
• are not baptized
• were baptized in another Christian denomination
• were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people from all ages and walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses, or spiritual longing.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting Wednesday nights this fall beginning on October 3rd. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

After the Inquiry Phase, you will discern for yourself if this feels right for you. You then decide if you wish to receive further instruction in order to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil next spring. Persons baptized in other Christian denominations would only receive Confirmation and Eucharist as the Catholic Church respects these baptisms.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven.

(All bow when reciting words in bold) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Closing Song – O Taste and See

REFRAIN

O taste, taste and see the goodness of God, the blessings of God.

1. I will sing God’s praises all the days that I shall live.
   My soul will glory in my God,
   the lowly will hear and be glad.
   O glorify God’s name with me,
   together let us rejoice.

2. For God has heard my anguished cries,
   and delivered me from all my foes.
   O look to God that you might shine,
   your faces be radiant with joy.

3. When the poor cry out, God hears and saves them,
   rescues them from their distress.
   God’s angel watches near to those who look to their God to save them.

4. O taste and see that God is good,
   how happy the ones who find refuge.
   The mighty shall grow weak and hungry,
   those who seek God lack nothing.

5. Come, my children, hear me,
   I will teach you the fear of God.
   Come, all of you who thirst for life
   and seek joy in all of your days.

6. For God is close to the brokenhearted, near to those crushed in spirit.
   The hand of God redeems your life,
   a refuge for all those who seek.

Parish Life

BACK TO SCHOOL = MANNA TIME

Please consider supporting the St. James MANNA program—it’s such an easy way to generate income for the church. For example, a $50 card costs you just $50, and St. James gets a profit of the sale, which goes to the renovation of the Church!

Gift Cards from MANNA can be used for school supplies, college dorm provisions, and of course for everyday gas/grocery/fast food purchases—the list is (just about) endless!

Check out the MANNA Order Form at the MANNA table or on the parish website—if your favorite place isn’t listed, see shopwithscrip.com for the complete list and write in your order on the order form.

We have a handful of “regulars” who purchase MANNA cards. We’d like YOU to give it a try and you’ll find how easy the process can be😊. Place your order by Sunday and pick it up the following Sunday at mass...there is also limited amount of inventory that can be purchased on the spot!

MANNA cards make great gifts and are always the right size and color. Don’t know which card to buy for a friend? Gift Certificates are available for purchase at the parish office Monday thru Friday from 9am–3pm—the recipients can choose their own cards!

MANNA tables are in the gathering space before and after most masses.
