Eighteenth Sunday

in Ordinary Time

I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.

John 6:35
A Reflection….Matt Marcheschi, FOCUS Parish Outreach

August 5, 2018

In Matthew Kelly’s book Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic, he points out that everyone evangelizes about something – what is it that we evangelize about? We can passionately share about how much we love our new phone, favorite vacation destinations, the latest Netflix series or our even our gym. Kelly says it is our nature to evangelize. He suggests that we don’t evangelize about our faith because we haven’t truly been “won” to the reality that Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life. In other words, we cannot give to others what we do not have ourselves.

On our journey of deepening discipleship, we are called “to create a culture of encounter and witness, we must live explicit lives of discipleship. We are called not only to believe in the Gospel but to allow it to take deep root in us in a way that leaves us incapable of silence: we cannot help but to announce the Gospel in word and in deed. This missionary outreach is at the heart of discipleship.” (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Living as Missionary Disciples: A Resource for Evangelization p. 14)

After the Great Commission, the disciples were huddled in the Upper Room with Mary until Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to them on Pentecost. After that event, they were able to go out boldly, apply their training and share the Good News with the world. They moved from being just disciples to disciple makers. This is the phase which opens up the Good News to the world so that we can address poverty in all of its forms and invite everyone to know and experience the love and mercy of God through the Church. As disciples become disciple-makers, they come alive in their faith in entirely new ways. Have you ever taught something before? When we teach others, we hold ourselves to a higher standard and we begin to understand what we teach in a deeper way.

We have the great privilege in sharing how God is working in our lives to spread the joy that only God can give and in doing so our faith is strengthened! Pope Francis says, “The joy of the gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept his offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness. With Christ, joy is constantly born anew… I wish to encourage the Christian faithful to embark upon a new chapter of evangelization marked by this joy, while pointing out new paths for the church’s journey in years to come.” (Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium para. 1)

God deeply desires that everyone in each generation would have the ability to come to know His love and mercy personally. He modeled it for us first, and then He commissioned us to imitate Him by making disciples makers. By following the method He modeled for us, along with cultivating the habits of Divine Intimacy, Authentic Friendship and Clarity and Conviction for Spiritual Multiplication, we are able to respond to the urgency of the call. This generation is waiting for us to become what we were meant to be. Everyone on earth is experiencing poverty of some kind, and they are waiting to be cared for by people who have experienced the enriching reality of life in Christ.

Testimony:

“It is important for us to grow in our faith through prayer, spiritual reading, and frequenting the Sacraments, but it is not good enough simply to be faithful, we must also be fruitful. God is calling EACH of us to be missionary disciples and bring people into closer relationship with Him. If we all invest in just a few others through Christ centered virtuous friendships then each person on Earth can be truly known and known by God!”

Liturgy and Worship

Fr. Ed Witt, S.J. from St. Isaac Jogues in Rapid City, SD visited St. James the weekend of July 28th/29th. St. James contributes to his mission through our Mission Co-op Program. Below is the prayer card that he talked about in his homilies and is asking for our prayers.

Prayer for the canonization of Nicholas Black Elk

Heavenly Father, Great Spirit! Behold us, who stand before you singing our song of thanksgiving for Servant of God, Nicholas Black Elk. Faithfully he walked the Sacred Red Road and generously witnessed the Good News of our Lord Jesus Christ among the Native American people. We humbly ask you to hear the prayers we plead through his intercession. We ask Holy Mother Church to recognize his sanctity by acknowledging his presence among the company of Saints and as one to imitate in his zeal for the Gospel.

Open our hearts to also recognize the Risen Christ in other cultures and peoples, to your glory and honor, through Christ our Lord. Amen

Parish Stewardship Prayer

I AM Stewardship Prayer

My parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is.
It will be friendly, if I am.
It will be holy, if I am.
Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.
It will do great work, if I work.
It will be prayerful, if I pray.
It will make generous gifts to many causes, if I am a generous giver.

It will bring others into worship, if I invite and bring them in.

It will be a place of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, of compassion, charity, and mercy, if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with the help of God, I now dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be.

Gloria

GLORY TO GOD

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (All bow when reciting words in bold) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen, amen.

Bob Hurd

Refrain

Gather your people, O Lord.
Gather your people, O Lord. One bread, one body, one spirit of love.
Gather your people, O Lord.

Verses

1. Draw us forth to the table of life;
2. We are parts of the body of Christ;
3. No more harm on the mountain of God;
4. Wash us, Lord, in the waters of life;

brothers and sisters, each of us called to need each other, each of the gifts the swords into plow-shares. Free us, O Lord, from waters of mercy, waters of hope that

WHY
ADVERTISE
IN YOUR LOCAL CHURCH BULLETIN?

J.S. Paluch will create, produce and print your ad for less than you’d spend elsewhere. They help you reach consumers at extremely affordable rates and offer options to advertise effectively and keep pace with market change.

If you own a business or know of a local business that might like to support your local Catholic parish by advertising in its parish bulletin, please contact J.S. Paluch. Grow your business by advertising in the church bulletin and create strong connections with your target audience. Benefits include:

GREAT COVERAGE - 97% of all households attending church take at least one church bulletin home every Sunday.

GREAT VALUE - 70% of all households are aware of and look at the advertising in the church bulletin and 68% of households surveyed when making a choice between businesses are inclined to choose the one who advertised in the church bulletin.

GREAT LOYALTY - 41% of households do business with a company specifically because they are advertising in the church bulletin.

GREAT PRODUCT - 62% of households keep the church bulletin the entire week as reference.
