LABOR DAY
A Reflection....Fr. Derek Ho, Associate Pastor

September 2, 2018

Dear parish family,

During these difficult times, thank you for your renewed trust, love, and support. It truly means a lot. I’ve spent a good amount of time in prayer these past few weeks and will continue. Through prayer, God has convicted me that, while it’s good for me to be justly angry, reasonably sad, or increasingly passionate about fighting for justice for the victims of sexual abuse, it cannot touch my interior peace. That is sacred. If I surrender that, it only opens the door to attacks from the evil One. I ask you to join me in that prayer for yourselves.

The below verse may help from St Paul:

[I] urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all. (Eph 4:1-6)

I’m confident in the following:

1. that God has called me to be a priest; this unique way of life by which He shows His personal, passionate and intimate love for me,
2. that I must work to continue to give myself entirely to Christ and cooperate with His grace to root out all sin in my life,
3. and that God permits any evil only to bring about some greater good (whether we know it or not). In the meantime, He will always be faithful to His promise to be with us always. Where anyone is in pain, there God is.

Be assured of my continued prayers for healing and for peace.

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr Derek

THINKING ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC?

R.C.I.A., Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for those adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

This process is for all adults who:
• are not baptized
• were baptized in another Christian denomination
• were baptized Catholic, but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation

Every year we have people from all ages and walks of life come to the R.C.I.A. They come for many reasons, such as engagements, marriages, having children, personal losses, or spiritual longing.

R.C.I.A. will start meeting Wednesday nights this fall beginning on October 3rd. The first two months of the process are called the Inquiry Phase, where you will learn more about the Catholic faith by listening to presentations and personal reflections by a team of parishioners, by sharing scripture, and by participating in group discussions.

For more information contact: Fr. Derek Ho at 224-345-7201 Email: frderek@stjamesah.org or Jim Hamman at 847-347-1368 Email: jhamman@rcgdirect.com

Exodus Trekkers

A Touch of the Divine in a Home Depot Garden Section

It all started for one of our St. James "regulars" with her Spanish Canary, followed by a family of ducks….

Was God giving me a challenge of some sort and using Rosario to help me better understand the helplessness of some people?

A small crowd of shoppers stood outside in a Mt. Prospect Home Depot garden section watching an employee carefully begin to rearrange a tall stack of heavy compost bags to serve as steps leading down from the top. Another employee and frequent worshipper at our weekday mass, Shirley Mitan, stood in the crowd with the eyes of a caring mother, making sure this rescue operation was gentle. On top of the pile was a nest of a mother duck and her three ducklings. Shirley, thanks to the accommodating nature of her employer, had been the self-appointed guardian of this duck family ever since the ducklings had hatched 28 days ago. She now stood watch over their impending exodus. The Home Depot employee now reached out at the top with a slightly shaking hand and grabbed the nest and began prodding the ducks down the compost sacks. Shirley exhaled.

It was an odd fact that a few shoppers witnessing this event were exchanging religious sentiments; perhaps this can best be explained by going back to a warm August day in 2014, on the lawn outside Shirley's apartment …

You can read the rest of this Trekker report beginning Sunday, Sept. 2, at Exodus-trekker.blogspot.com. Or search for it on "Blogs" at the St. James website. where you'll find several inspiring and dramatic true accounts written by a St. James member about St. James members and those who have struggled across a desert of ups and downs to reach their "Jordan River" and the freedom beyond it.
Back to School

St. James School kicked off the 2018-2019 school year with a Back to School Mass on Sunday, August 19th. New families, new teachers, new technology. We are READY to begin!
Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, he was born of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Those who donate money for the “purchase” of goods select one or more charity(s) for their donation. Every cent goes directly to the charity(s) chosen by the donor.

$5 In God We Trust $5:

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth... but store up treasures in heaven... For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.” (Matthew 6:19-21)

We share our “treasures” with a generous spirit. The results are in the hands of God as contributions may be well above or below the values of the items “purchased.”

“...whatever you did for one of these least brothers of Mine, you did for Me.” (Matthew 25:40)

Co-sponsored by the St. James RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY and the St. James Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.
St. James Loaves & Fishes Ministry and its many volunteers and supporters have provided soup and lunches to Sarah’s Circle & Northside Housing for over 30 years. These two shelters serve the basic needs of the homeless men and women in the uptown community with food and shelter. The shelters have expressed a need for some other basic necessities. The guests are most in need of the following personal items for use at the shelters and to take with them when leaving the shelter:

- Face/Bath towels & washcloths
- Full size shower gel/body wash
- Body lotion
- Full size toothpaste
- Toothbrushes
- Disposable razors – men & women
- Purse packs of Kleenex
- Women’s personal hygiene products – laundry detergent
- "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.”

In addition, gift cards in small increments ($5 - $10) to Dunkin Donuts, Starbucks, and McDonalds are a welcome treat for the guests. Purchase these from MANNA to increase your giving!
