Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?

James 2:5
We hear today in Mark’s gospel how Jesus, once again, helped out someone who was in need. Jesus and his disciples are far from home, in an area not known for its Christian beliefs. The gospel setting is the far north region of Decapolis, considered a pagan area during the time of Jesus. The townspeople bring to Jesus a man who is deaf and has a speech impediment, and Jesus performs another miracle, and cures the man.

Just another day for Jesus and His disciples, who travel around the Sea of Galilee preaching the Good News to all, and helping those they encounter who needed help. Jesus helping others. Jesus reaching out to those who needed assistance. Jesus setting an example for us.

We hear so many stories in the New Testament about how Jesus would stop to help those in need, and I think we sometimes fail to grasp the full meaning of the story. We hear another gospel passage from the numerous gospel stories of how Jesus helped someone, and sometimes, I think, we get bored, we tune out, we fail to hear, we stop listening. This is just another story of Jesus helping someone- same old, same old. Heard it all before. Maybe sometimes we become “deaf” to His Word?

Just like the man in the gospel today who cannot hear, maybe we sometimes fail to listen, and fail to hear. We are busy thinking about what else we have to do today, where we have to go right after Mass, what errands we have to run, and what tasks at home need to get finished. We may hear some words, but we don’t really hear the message.

Maybe today we can carve out a few minutes of quiet time to connect with Jesus. Find a few minutes today, or sometime this week, to use our gift of hearing, to truly listen…or maybe read the Scripture passages that will be read at Mass before coming to church. The readings for the week are in the bulletin or are easy to find on the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (www.usccb.org) website.

Like the man in today’s gospel who wanted to hear, Jesus wants to hear from us, and desperately wants us to hear Him.

We Warmly Welcome Our New Teachers at St James School

We are pleased and blessed to welcome our new teachers for this school year. Their thoughtful reflections give you a good idea of their approach to life and teaching. We are grateful to have them be part of our SJS community.

Introductions, please!

Deacon Matthew Hahn, 5th grade teacher: "I chose to teach here because this is where God called me to be. Now that I've been here a few weeks, I like our routine, our uniforms, our positive attitudes, and the practice of our faith." Moving into the new school year, Deacon Hahn reports that "fifth-grade will be implementing some new reading strategies and we are excited to get our students going."

Emily Frye, PreK 3 & 4 teacher reflects, "what I like most about SJS is the strong family-school connection. I can already see how much the families care about the well-being of the teachers, staff, and students. Only because of the families are we able to create such a positive faith-based learning environment. I feel truly blessed that I am able to be part of such a wonderful community!"

Julie Winter, Music teacher, "I am a 2008 St. James graduate and God called me to teach at my grade school to help make a difference in my students' lives. He knew that St. James was where I was meant to be."

Angela Lollino, 1st grade teacher, "chose to teach at Saint James because I wanted to work in a supportive and motivated group of staff who strive to teach the whole child. With all of the advancing technology available, supportive administrators, and close-knit staff to work with, I knew teaching at Saint James would be a great opportunity for me to inspire students to be life-long learners. I am so excited to find new and exciting ways to engage my students using the interactive Smartboard and Apple TV in my classroom. I have already begun using it and the students love any chance they get to come up to the board to participate. I look forward to researching more ways to use it to make my lessons come to life!"

Gina Zebron, Educational Technology Coordinator

"It's no secret that my family has a great deal of history at St. James Parish & School. As a SJS Alumni (shout out to the class of ’91) and mother to three children who are students at St. James, when the opportunity to join the staff of the most outstanding Catholic school presented itself I knew it was an answer to my prayers. I am humbled and honored to be part of this passionate, dynamic, and faith-filled team of teachers. What I consider to be most special about teaching here is that it is not just an occupation but it is work in service to building our community of faith. My hope is that I can give back to the staff and students more than SJS has given to me."

Eileen Kirk, 6th grade teacher, is "so thankful for how welcoming the entire St. James community has been to my family and me. Everyone has been so willing to help with anything we have needed. SJS is a true example of why we choose Catholic school."

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow when reciting words in bold)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

All Are Welcome

1. Let us build a house where love can dwell
   And all can safely live.

2. Let us build a house where prophets speak,
   Where words are strong and true.

3. Let us build a house where love is found
   In water, wine and wheat:

4. Let us build a house where hands will reach
   Beyond the wood and stone:

5. Let us build a house where all are named,
   Their children tell.

   How hearts learn to forbear to seek
   Where peace and justice serve and teach.

   As words with - in the
   Built of hopes and dreams and visions,

   Built of tears and cries and laughter,

   Rock of faith and vault of grace;

   And as symbol of God’s grace;

   Bear the image of God’s face;

   Prayers of faith and songs of grace,

   Love of Christ shall end divisions;

   We claim the faith of Jesus;

   Share in Christ the feast that frees us:

   House pro-claim from floor to raft - er:

   All are wel - come, all are wel - come in this place.

How Can I Keep from Singing

1. My life flows on in endless song
   Above earth’s lamentation.
   I hear the real though
   far-off hymn that hails a new creation.
   No storm can shake my inmost calm.
   Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth,

2. Through all the tumult and the strife,
   I hear the real though
   Lord, my savior liveth.
   In my soul; How can I keep from singing?
   While to that rock I’m clinging.
   Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth,

3. What, though my joys and comforts die,
   The
   Though the darkness gathering round? Songs in the night it giveth.
   I am his, How can I keep from singing?

4. The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart,
   Above earth’s lamentation.
   I hear the real though
   That hails a new creation.
   Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth,
   How can I keep from singing?

Meals on Wheels

St James volunteers for Maine Township Meals on Wheels program for only the month of October during the year.

Meals on Wheels Drivers: needed for the month of October. This is a quick, easy and rewarding ministry. Sign up to deliver meals locally once a week or once or twice during the month of October. Choose any weekday mornings to fit your schedule: 11:00am start; typically finished by 12:15pm. Any help will be appreciated; would love a few new drivers!

Call Peg Hill (847-394-9789)

Meals on Wheels Coordinator: needed to take over scheduling. This is a once a year commitment involving simply filling in a route schedule for the weekdays of the month of October. No meeting necessary; just a series of phone calls to drivers to set up driving dates which they prefer. Fun and easy job for stay-at-home mom or retiree.
