Thank you to our Greeters at all the Masses. Please join our ministry and help greet everyone before Mass.
How important is singing at Mass, really?

Psalm 47: (7-8) Sing praise to God, sing praise;
sing praise to our king, sing praise.
For God is king over all the earth;
sing hymns of praise.

I am blessed to have been your music director for the past 4 years and have developed many close relationships with the parishioners here at St. James. I know your passion for this Parish and I know you are also passionate about your faith.

The question is: do you allow that passion to manifest itself during the liturgy? Do you really proclaim “Thanks Be to God!!”?

Now I’m not claiming that we aren’t all saying our correct responses with reverence or personal piety or without a decent amount of vocal volume. It’s more about the manner in which we say and in this case, sing the responses. If we truly are a community of believers, we don’t believe that just going through the motions will be enough to show our gratitude or our love for Christ. The Bible contains over four hundred references to singing and fifty direct commands to sing. The longest book of the Bible, the Psalms, is a book of songs. And in the New Testament we’re commanded not one, but twice, to sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to one another when we meet (Ephesians 5:19; Colossians 3:16).

Why does God so often tell us not simply to praise him but to sing his praises when we meet? Why not just pray and preach? Why does God want us to sing? One reason is that God himself sings. In Zephaniah 3:17 God exalts over his people “with loud singing.” And Ephesians 5 tells us that one effect of being “filled with the Spirit” is “addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart” (verses 18-19). We worship a God who sings, and He wants us to be like Him.

In Musicam Sacram, the accompanying document that followed the Second Vatican Council, we find a better defined role on what we are called to do as participants in the Mass:

The faithful fulfill their liturgical role by making that full, conscious and active participation which is demanded by the nature of the liturgy itself and which is, by reason of baptism, the right and duty of the Christian people. This participation should be above all internal, in the sense that by it the faithful join their mind to what they pronounce or hear, and cooperate with heavenly grace. One cannot find anything more religious and more joyful in sacred celebrations than a whole congregation expressing its faith and devotion in song.

When we all sing together our level of worship is enhanced, and we are brought to a greater sense of reverence and beauty during the Liturgy.

We want full, active and passionate participation during Mass. Not because our priests tell us to, or that it makes this music director happy. It’s because it is pleasing to our God and we bring our gifts, our talents and our voices together as one to sing His praises! When we come to Mass, we need to think not so much about ourselves, but about what is truly bringing our best to our Lord and Savior. We are taught to live, love and sing boldly, not in the shadows, but in the light.

My prayer is that we begin to raise our voices as one voice and proclaim the goodness of God by singing with a loud voice each time we gather together at Mass. May it be pleasing to our Lord and may it bring us to a deeper understanding of His love for us.

Donations received during the month of August supported two important parish initiatives....adult faith formation and the parish strategic planning process. Financial assistance was provided to parishioners who have enrolled in the Institute for Lay Formation at the University of St. Mary of the Lake. Investing in this program helps to strengthen lay leadership within our parish and support those who answer the call to serve. Donations were also used to acquire materials as we prepare to implement a parish-wide survey. This survey will be a critical tool in the strategic planning process as we work to renew our church and fulfill God’s purpose for us now and in the years to come.
Thank you for your continued generosity to St. James Parish.

Parishioners Sandra and David Chaplin are enrolled in the Institute for Lay Formation.

Human Concerns

For over 30 years, the St. James community has reached out to the homeless in Chicago’s Uptown Neighborhood. The LOAVES & FISHES Ministry provides an evening meal and a brown bag lunch for Women at Sarah’s Circle, www.sarahscircle.org, and Men at NorthSide Housing, www.northsidehousing.org. Our ministry operates every Saturday beginning with the first weekend in October through the last weekend in April.

As always, we thank those volunteers who give so very generously of their time, talents, treasure, and especially those who provide their prayers.

Many organizations prepare lunches including: the WOJS (Women of St. James), CFM groups, Confirmation groups, SOR groups, members of the Youth Ministry, and Scouting Troops. Many individuals, too numerous to mention, also make lunches, pick up soup and bread, and give up their Saturday evenings to deliver food to the shelters. For all of you, THANK YOU.

Special thanks also to those businesses who donate food on a regular basis: The Palm Court Restaurant, Eros Restaurant, The Dunton House, Egg Harbor Cafe and Central Continental Bakery of Mt. Prospect. Please consider patronizing these local establishments.

LOAVES & FISHES needs volunteers for any of the following:

- Pick up bread from Central Continental Bakery on Friday evening.
- Pick up soup from local restaurants on Saturday afternoon.
- Make approximately 125 lunches – This is a great opportunity for scouts, families, confirmation/high school service hours, etc.
- Transport the donations (soup, bread, & lunches) to the shelters late Saturday afternoon or early Saturday evening.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (All bow when reciting words in bold) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
