A Reflection….from Matt Marcheschi, Focus Parish Outreach

October 21, 2018

I remember the experience like it was yesterday. My first FOCUS Conference, where I found myself surrounded by hundreds of others seeking and asking the deeper questions in life. Why am I here? Is there a plan for my life? Why does the Church teach us that? Over the course of a few days, I brought these questions to prayer and I attended several talks by amazing speakers who helped to open my mind to a deeper understanding of my Catholic faith. The SEEK experience gave me a deeper appreciation for my faith. I went home, energized and engaged in a way I had never before experienced. It changed the trajectory of my life.

This January 3rd -7th, the FOCUS SEEK 2019 Conference will be held just a few hours away in Indianapolis. Fr. Matt and I are inviting you, your family, friends & fellow parishioners to experience for yourselves the vitality & spirituality of SEEK. Maybe you’ve been Catholic all your life, but you never stopped to ask the question ‘why am I Catholic?’ Maybe you are ready to dive a bit deeper or you have been a committed disciple but are unsure how to help others grow in their faith. This SEEK experience is for you. No matter where you are, there is something for everyone. You will walk away inspired, engaged and equipped for living out your faith vibrantly in your life!

For everyone who attends, there will be practical hurdles to overcome and sacrifices to be made, but I’d like to encourage you in the fact that our Lord is NEVER outdone in generosity. If He is tugging at your heart to carve out time for this experience, He will make it possible and He will return to you and your family, tenfold in blessings. Thank you for your prayerful consideration!

Go to www.seek2019.com for more information or to register. Prices increase after October 30th. Email Matt at mmarcheschi@stjamesah.org with any questions!

THIS WEEKEND there will be an opportunity for every parishioner (adult and child alike) to sign their name on an I-Beam after all masses.
These beams will then be used in the construction of our newly renovated Church.

There will also be one last opportunity to obtain a memorial brick from the old school building.
The $20 cost will offset preserving the bricks during demolition and to create a limestone marker from the old school.

SURPRISE! LOOK WHAT WE FOUND...

Construction projects sometimes bring surprises... pictured above shows a 3000 gallon tank being emptied. 2 oil tanks were found buried filled with heating oil for the Church and School. The State Fire Marshall was on site to document & confirm remediation of the site was completed safely & properly!

When I Call for Help: A Pastoral Response to Domestic Violence Against Women – 3

“Domestic violence is a learned behavior. Men who batter learn to abuse through observation, experience, and reinforcement. They believe that they have the right to use violence; they also are rewarded, that is, their behavior gives them power and control over their partner.”

“Abusive men come from all economic classes, races, religions, and occupations. He may be a ‘good provider’ and a respected member of his church and community. While there is no one type, men who abuse share some common characteristics. They tend to be extremely jealous, possessive, and easily angered. A man may fly into a rage because his spouse called her mother too often or because she didn’t take the car in for servicing. Many try to isolate their partners by limiting their contact with family and friends.”

“Typically, abusive men deny that the abuse is happening, or they minimize it. They often blame their abusive behavior on someone or something other than themselves. They tell the partner, ‘You made me do this.’”

“Many abusive men hold a view of women as inferior. Their conversation and language reveal their attitude towards a woman’s place in society. Many believe that men are meant to dominate and control women.”

“Alcohol and drugs are often associated with domestic violence, but they do not cause it. An abusive man who drinks or uses drugs has two distinct problems: substance abuse and violence. Both must be treated.”

“Women stay with men who abuse them primarily out of fear. Some fear that they will lose their children. Many believe that they cannot support themselves, much less their children.”

“When the first violent act occurs, the woman is likely to be incredulous. She believes her abuser when he apologizes and promises that it will not happen again. When it does – repeatedly – many women believe that if they just act differently they can stop the abuse. They may be ashamed to admit that the man they love is terrorizing them. Some cannot admit or realize that they are battered women. Others have endured trauma and suffer from battered women syndrome.”

“REMEMBER: Some battered women run a high risk of being killed when they leave their abuser or seek help from the legal system. It is important to be honest with women about the risks involved. If a woman decides to leave, she needs to have a safety plan, including the names and phone numbers of shelters and programs. Some victims may choose to stay at this time because it seems safer. Ultimately, abused women must make their own decisions about staying or leaving.”

St. John Paul II, Pray for Us – Feast Day October 22
Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

WHAT ON EARTH ARE YOU DOING, FOR HEAVEN’S SAKE?

Those clichés still apply today. How we live on earth and help each other matters. At St. James we are blessed with opportunities to bring our faith to life. A couple of them are by helping seniors get where they need to go. Be it driving them to medical/dental appointments during the week, or to St. James for Sunday Mass, we know we can make a significant difference in their lives. To do so, we need your help, and your wheels! Be it once a month or once a week, your time will matter to those who need your help.

Some of our Wheels 2Worship drivers tell us they enjoy getting to know others and like not going to Mass alone. It gives them that "feel good" feeling. Our Escorted Transportation Service Northwest (ETSNW) drivers agree! Some love hearing the stories our beloved elderly share along the way. Joe Ruane says, "I believe that I am called to be an ETSNW driver for a number of reasons - the most prominent of which is that I can serve a senior who has a critical need that otherwise would be unfulfilled or fulfilled at substantial cost and that I will not nor expect to be repaid for it." All drivers are insured through the program when they are driving for the program.

Passengers are so grateful! They tell us what we do is such a blessing to them. They praise drivers for their courtesy, and friendliness... "Just as if they knew me for ages!" If you want to feel appreciated, this will fill the bill!

On November 3rd & 4th volunteers with ETSNW and W2W will speak before each Mass to invite you to consider joining these outreach opportunities. Since it began in 2006, ETSNW has provided over 28,000 round trip rides to medical and dental appointments for seniors. W2W is off to an impressive start getting those in need to Church on time! Since 2015 over 600 rides have been given. Both receive funding from Jubilation and are partnering this weekend to maximize efforts recruiting parishioners to join our teams.

Volunteers will be available in the greeting space after Masses to answer your questions and offer a sign up to serve. Stop by to learn more or join these remarkable volunteers in these interesting ways to connect with your neighbors and parishioners. There is no greater gift than your time. Your time will be well spent with ETSNW and/or Wheels2Worship.

THANK YOU!

Last month members, family and friends of the Knights of Columbus held their annual I-D drive or more commonly known as our “Tootsie Roll Drive” for organizations that work with the intellectually disabled. Over $14,000 was collected and will be distributed to the various organizations who work with those individuals. Also, thanks to the generosity of the parishioners of St. James, the K of C members from St. James collected $1,581.49 for the St. James special needs ministries. Thanks again for your support!
