November 11, 2018

A few weeks ago, I met up with some friends for lunch. After the hugs and “how are you’s”, we were seated at our table and stayed for hours. We caught up and chatted about our life changes: leaving jobs, starting new jobs, having babies, announcing pregnancies, wedding planning… almost every major life change that could happen to a woman in her late 20’s and early 30’s was discussed. The conversation began to go deeper and we began to pull back the curtain on the things going on in our lives, the things you wouldn’t be able to tell just by looking at us from the outside. Anxieties, fears, the desire for happiness and all the real talk. As I sat back and listened to my friends, I realized we all shared similar anxieties, fears and desires. We all wanted joy and happiness in our lives, but there was something that was different in the way we all went about finding happiness.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples the rich men put in large sums, but the poor widow gave her livelihood. Out of her poverty, she gave Him more than coins, she gave Him everything she had. The widow’s poverty here is not just material poverty but a spiritual poverty as well. “Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” (Matthew 5:3) Being ‘poor in spirit’ is to know our deepest human desire is a need for God. We must recognize the need and like the widow, give God our livelihood. Once we accept the reality that we need God, and we see we are nothing without Him, only then can we be worthy of the kingdom of Heaven promised us. When we become beggars, our gratitude for the Giver becomes greater.

I gave my two cents here and there relating to their struggles and offering advice, but finally, mustered up the courage and said, “Seriously, Jesus will take it away.” I looked at my friends’ blank stares and took in the awkward silence at the table. Then one friend laughed a little and said, “Then pray for us.” I looked back at her and said, “I will.” We carried on with our lunch and continued to share stories and laugh about life.

Life is messy and when relationships and people are added, life gets even messier. It is human to struggle with fears, anxieties, and doubts. We try to take it solely upon ourselves to figure out how to ease the heaviness in our hearts, but the reality is, we can’t. The more we try, the more defeated and hopeless we feel. When we cover up the truth of what is deep down, we prevent ourselves from experiencing spiritual poverty. Give it to Jesus. Like the widow in today’s gospel, give Him your livelihood. It is Jesus that you seek…

It is Jesus that you seek when you dream of happiness; He is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; He is the beauty to which you are so attracted; it is He who provoked you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is He who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; it is He who reads in your heart your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle. It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves to be ground down by mediocrity, the courage to commit yourselves humbly and patiently to improving yourselves and society, making the world more human and more fraternal.

Veterans Day, November 11th

Join us to honor our veterans in prayer. Today on Nov 11th, Veteran’s Day, we remember and honor all veterans, past and present, for their sacrifice of time, comfort, ambition, health and prosperity so that we may live in peace and ultimately enjoy our religious freedom. We kindly ask that you keep our men and women of the armed forces in your prayers, always.

Veterans will be recognized at all masses on Nov 10/11th.

“No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends”
John 15:13

A Prayer for Our Veteran’s

God of compassion,
God of dignity and strength
Watch over our veterans
Bless them for their courage, valor, hard work and perseverance.

Grant them lives of joy and bounty
Shelter each of them and always draw them closer to you

May we always remember their sacrifice
And be thankful for their service
Heal their wounds,
Comfort their hearts.
Grant them peace.

We ask this our Lord
Protector and Redeemer,
Our Shield and our Stronghold.

Amen
Seeking Slideshow Operators for Weekend Masses

We have some exciting news—we are now ready and are using the screen and projector during all masses! We’ve been waiting a while for this, and now that it is here, we need your help.

We need one person who can commit to each mass to help “run” the slideshow. Being the Slideshow Operator involves showing up 15 minutes early to mass, and clicking the button on the laptop to advance the slides during the mass. While it would be very helpful to know the flow of the mass, we will help direct you as to when to advance each slide. Please go to website www.stjamesah.org home page & click on button to sign up to help run the slides!

Thanks for helping to make this a successful change at St. James!

Chase the Chill Reminder:

Let's make this picture a reality for our PADS guests next weekend! If you haven't already created a scarf, it's not too late. All warm knit or crocheted scarves 6 inches wide and 60 inches long are most welcome and appreciated. Don't forget to bring your warm winter scarves to tie around the tree in front of the rectory 11/17 and 11/18. Thank YOU!

This Christmas Season, the Environment & Art Ministry invites you to create a tangible remembrance in honor of or in memory of someone special in your life. Your donation will be used to purchase flowers and candles for the Christmas décor in the Parish Center. The names of those being remembered will also be published in the Christmas Week Bulletin.

To create a Christmas Remembrance, please fill out the form below and return it by December 10th to the Parish Office. A donation of $25 per Remembrance is suggested. Checks should be made payable to St. James Church and either mailed or dropped off at the Parish Office, 820 N. Arlington Heights Rd., Arlington Heights, IL 60004; or deposited in the collection basket at mass in an envelope marked “Christmas Remembrance.”

Thank you and have a blessed Christmas,

CHAIRMAN OF THE USCCB COMMITTEE ON MIGRATION AND PRESIDENTS OF CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES AND CATHOLIC CHARITIES USA ISSUED STATEMENT URGING HUMANE ACTION TOWARDS THOSE SEEKING PROTECTION

WASHINGTON—Bishop Joe S. Vásquez of Austin, Chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops Committee on Migration, Sean Callahan, President and CEO of Catholic Relief Services, and Sister Donna Markham OP PhD, President and CEO of Catholic Charities USA issued the following statement urging all people of goodwill to speak and act with compassion towards those migrating north and seeking refuge from violence and poverty.

“As Catholic agencies assisting poor and vulnerable migrants in the United States and around the world, we are deeply saddened by the violence, injustice, and deteriorating economic conditions forcing many people to flee their homes in Central America. While nations have the right to protect their borders, this right comes with responsibilities; governments must enforce laws proportionately, treat all people humanely, and provide due process.

We affirm that seeking asylum is not a crime. We urge all governments to abide by international law and existing domestic laws that protect those seeking safe haven and ensure that all those who are returned to their home country are protected and repatriated safely.

Furthermore, we strongly advocate for continued U.S. investments to address the underlying causes of violence and lack of opportunity in Central America. Our presence throughout the Americas has convinced us that migration is a regional issue that requires a comprehensive, regional solution. An enforcement-only approach does not address nor solve the larger root causes that cause people to flee their countries in search of protection.

As Christians, we must answer the call to act with compassion towards those in need and to work together to find humane solutions that honor the rule of law and respect the dignity of human life.”

Would you like to Give to St. James through your IRA?
If so, please read the information below:

Qualified Charitable Distribution Basic Information

What is a qualified charitable distribution (QCD):
- A QCD allows individuals who are 70 ½ years old or older to donate up to $100,000 per year total to one or more charities directly from a taxable IRA instead of taking there required minimum distribution.
- Federal income tax law contains a provision which allows taxable IRA owners to take a distribution from their IRA, transfer those funds to qualifying charities, have the distribution count towards their annual RMD, and NOT have the distribution included in taxable income.

What is a required minimum distribution (RMD):
- When the owner of a traditional IRA reaches age 70 ½, federal income tax law requires that individual to begin taking a series of annual distributions from the IRA known as an RMD.
- For a typical IRA owner, where the IRA was originally funded with deductible contributions, 100% of the RMD is included in the individual’s taxable income in the year the funds are distributed.

Benefits of doing a QCD from an IRA:
- The QCD distribution comes out of the IRA without any of the tax consequences that would otherwise apply to a withdrawal (i.e. it is excluded fully from your income)
- To the extent that the IRA owner had a RMD obligation for the year, the QCD is deemed to satisfy the RMD, even though the QCD is not taxable as an RMD otherwise would have been.

To complete a QCD from an IRA to a charity, the IRA owner must:
- Already be age 70 ½ on the date of distribution
- Submit a distribution form to the IRA custodian, requesting the check be made payable directly to the charity
- Ensure that no tax withholding is being done from the QCD to the charity (as the money must actually go to the charity to qualify, and as a non-taxable distribution no withholding should be necessary)
- Send the check directly to the charity, or to the IRA owner to be forwarded along to the charity

Psalm Response

Praise the Lord, my soul!

Alleluia

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow when reciting words in bold)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

THE CALL TO DISCIPLESHIP

The core vocation in the Gospel of Mark is the vocation, or call, to discipleship. Today’s Gospel passage provides us with one last example of what the vocation to discipleship means, and one example of what it doesn’t mean. A destitute widow shows us that discipleship means following Jesus’ way of service, even if it requires giving one’s livelihood (or life). The scribes show us by their bad example that discipleship should entail a vocation to extend God’s care to those who are most in need.

In our reading from the book of Kings another widow and her son are close to death. They too give what little they have, but they are rewarded by Elijah with food enough for a year. And the reading from the Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that Jesus sacrificed his life “to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him” (Hebrews 9:28).

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — The widow of Zarephath had only a handful of flour and a little oil, but made a little cake for Elijah (1 Kings 17:10-16).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146).

Second Reading — Christ will appear a second time to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him (Hebrews 9:24-28).

Gospel — This poor widow put in more than all the other contributors (Mark 12:38-44 [41-44]).

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Monday: Ti 1:1-9; Ps 24:1b-4ab, 5-6; Lk 17:1-6

Tuesday: Ti 2:1-8, 11-14; Ps 37:3-4, 18, 23, 27, 29; Lk 17:7-10

Wednesday: Ti 3:1-7; Ps 23:1b-6; Lk 17:11-19

Thursday: Phlm 7-20; Ps 146:7-10; Lk 17:20-25

Friday: 2 Jn 4-9; Ps 119:1-2, 10-11, 17-18; Lk 17:26-37

Saturday: 3 Jn 5-8; Ps 112:1-6; Lk 18:1-8

Sunday: Dn 12:1-3; Ps 16:5, 8-11; Heb 10:11-14, 18; Mk 13:24-32
